LITTLE LOCAL BRIEFLETS
Which Caught the Eyes or Ears of
Free-Press Reporters this week

- Glorious summer weather.
- Summer vacation in four weeks.
- These are wash-washing and abstering days.
- The country is wearing its prettiest garb just now.
- The streets are ready for that new sprinkling cart.
- Have you called yet in Company 6 of the Lorne Rifles?
- T. F. Harris, Dentist, will visit Acton professionally to-day.
- The wall-paper and newly-planted flower beds in town look very pretty just now.
- The travelling of Mill street road is being extended this week from Elgin St. eastward.
- The prospects are very promising for a big wheat crop. Clover is also in an exceptionally fine condition.
- Rev. H. A. Macpherson, of Knox Church, and A. Blair, B. A. Nasagawaya, exchanged pulpits last Sabbath.
- Mr. Thomas Perryman, Jr., purchased recently the property of Mr. Robt. Campbell on Lake Avenue for $600.
- The Clark House has been transformed in appearance by the introduction of new windows. The improvement is very striking.
- The House of Commons supplement a committee, also a partial eclipse of the sun Dec. 13th, and a total eclipse of the moon Dec. 25th.
- A flock of birds flies past and we notice them, but in another moment they are lost to sight and memory. So should it be with uncharitable stories concerning others to which you must listen now and then.
- Complaints are frequent on the part of drivers who persist in riding on the wrong side of the road. If they would only remember and keep on the right-hand side, they would avoid accidents and make other people happy.
- There is money in a greenhouse business in Acton to an experienced man. The proprietor of the Georgetown greenhouse informed the Free Press the other day that he sells three times as much stock in Acton as in his own town.
- The presentation of Mr. R. A. Payne's capite, The Arch of Rams, by members of the Acton Methodist Sunday School in the church there on Tuesday night, was a great success, the building being crowded. The performance, which was a patriotic one, went off in a style, and the audience was delighted.—Gaulph Mercury.
- Haltion Farmers' Convention.
The Public School teachers of this county will meet in convention in the Georgetown High School on Friday and Saturday, June 3rd and 4th. A very excellent programme has been prepared, in which nearly forty of the county teachers are announced to take part. Mr. R. A. Thompson, B. A., vice-principal of the Ontario Normal College, will take a prominent part in the programme.
- The announcement of Rockwood Woolen Mills in these columns the past month is worthy of general perusal. For thirty-one years the reliable and well-known firm of Harris & Co., have been doing business with the farmers and others in a wide radius of country. Their straightforward business methods have always been admired. The firm is in an unusually good position to deal with the public this season. Fall wools and fair inspection are predominant in all transactions and every patron may be assured that he will be well served when he goes to Rockwood Woolen Mills.
- Wool, Washed—Highest price in cash or trade for any quantity of good, clean, merchantable wool, delivered at Georgetown. Wm. McKeown.

THE NEWS AT HOME.
Mostly of a Local Character, and every item interesting.

An Evening Arrest.
A delightful evening was spent on Monday by about thirty of our local cyclists who paraded the principal streets in town, took a few times around the course at the park, and a run out to Bannockburn School. After the cooling they were hospitably entertained to refreshments by the Misses Nelson, whose guests they were for the evening. It was a very enjoyable occasion.

First Husbands Match of the Season.
The first match of the season was played in the park on Saturday afternoon and proved quite exciting. It was between a team of East end players and the town. Fred Ryder captained the castenders and W. Jago the town. Victory perched on the laurels of the boys of the East end with a score of 11 to 8. The first nine are now in good shape for the season and have secured W. Alcott, pinner, and W. Mills, shortstop, from the Rimbles, Toronto.

Attention! Company No. 6.
Capt. Langton announces that the members of Company No. 6, Lorne Rifles, will parade at the Armory here on Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings of each week at eight o'clock, until further orders. The Recruit Class will be open for the admission of good desirable recruits on each of the above nights. Col. Stuart, W. J. Moore is the Company's instructor, and the men are making good progress under his tuition. Capt. Langton, who resides in Toronto is already quite a favorite with the volunteers here and has the reputation of treating his men well while they are in camp.

Haltion Farmers' Institute.
The annual meeting of the Haltion Farmers' Institute will be held in the Town Hall, Milton, on Tuesday, 7th June, at 1:30 p. m. The business of the meeting will be as follows: 1. President's report. 2. Treasurer's Report. 3. Treasurer's and auditors' report. 4. Suggestions of points at which to hold regular and supplementary meetings. 5. Election of Director and Auditors. 6. Suggestions as to how the Institute can be improved or made more useful. At the close of the annual meeting the new Board of Directors will meet and elect from among themselves a President and Vice-President, and shall finally decide the points at which to hold regular and supplementary meetings. J. L. Warren, President, will occupy the chair.

Pioneer Restless Pasting Away.
While attending the funeral of the late Mrs. Holmes at Ashgrove last Friday a prominent local farmer said to the Free Press: "Our early residents are rapidly passing away; this is the fifth interment in this cemetery of the remains of persons of eighty years and over since the first of January." Enquiry elicited the names and ages of those referred to, as follows:—Mr. Thomas Howson, 80 years; Mr. George Wigglesworth, 81 years; Mrs. Thos. Crawford, 82 years; Mrs. Bell, 83 years; Mrs. Holmes, 86 years; Rev. A. Blair, B. A., of Nasagawaya, who was present at the time, said: "I was looking over my burial register the other day and I find that during my pastorate of thirteen years in this cemetery I have buried forty-five persons of eighty years of age and over. 'The young may die, but the old must die.'"

TWO BRIGHT YOUNG LIVES LOST
Tommy Wallace and John Owens Drowned in Guelpin—Both Well-Known in Acton.

A number of homes in Acton and vicinity were especially saddened and the entire community was moved with feelings of sorrow on Friday morning with the heart-rending news that Tommy Wallace and John Owens, both drug clerks and well-known in Acton, had been drowned at Guelpin the night before. The former was the second son of Mr. Hugh Wallace, one of the most esteemed farmers in this vicinity and the latter was the only son of Mr. William Owens, Mount Forest. He was a grandson of Mrs. McKetown and being frequently in Acton visiting at the homes of John Stephenson, James Wilson, Thos. Elliott and had made numerous friends here.

T. B. Wallace, who had been employed in A. B. Petrie's drug store, and John Owens in Alex. Stewart's drug store, in company with Charles Clendinning, also a drug clerk, had gone up the River Speed in the evening on a canoeing trip last Thursday evening about eight o'clock. All went well on the way up and they had started on the return trip when the canoe upset below the Victoria bridge—how, no one appears to be able to explain—and the three were like a flash plunged into the deep water. Charles Clendinning alone was rescued. The other two sank almost immediately. Neither of them could swim. The river in this place is very deep and nothing could be done until grappling hooks were brought. Both bodies were recovered, but life was extinct. The young men were well known and were general favorites.

The parents of the young men were notified and in company with sympathizing friends went to Guelpin, removing the remains to their respective homes by the evening train next day.

The young men had both spent about four years at the drug business and would have completed their apprenticeship and graduated in about three months. Referring to the deceased during the period that they had been in Guelpin became well known to many citizens. They were courteous and obliging, attentive to business and gave promise of living long and useful lives. Their prospects were bright in every respect. In three more months they would have completed their terms of apprenticeship, and were then to go to the School of Pharmacy. The druggists here were confident that both would make a good showing and come out with high honors at their examinations.

The funerals were both held on Sunday afternoon. That of Thos. B. Wallace took place from the residence of his father, Mr. Hugh Wallace, 6th line, Nasagawaya, to Fairview cemetery, Acton. The concourse of people was the largest ever attending a funeral from that district, a tribute of respect and sympathy to the bereaved father and mother who were deprived of their son so suddenly. Floral wreaths from sympathizing friends covered the casket. Over forty from Guelpin were present and about 100 conveyances were in the funeral procession.

The funeral of Mr. Owens at Mount Forest was also very large. Mrs. McKetown, Sr., Mr. David McKetown and Mrs. John Stephenson were present from Acton.
