NOTES AND COMMENTS.

A Ithough the Governor-General and the Considers of Aberdeen will not be leaving Canada until next autumn a farewell address will be presented to Lord Aberdoen on the occasion of the prorogation of Parl impent, which will probably take place within a few days.

With the visible supply of cattle many millions short, and with a premise of no exports from Manitobs and the Northwest. this should be a great year for Ontario farmers. It is to be hoped they will be prepared for the good fortune which ovidently awaits them.

Premier Greenway of Manitoba was in Toronto last week. He says that the prospects for the farmers in Manitoba never looked brighter than they do this scason. The population of the province will be increased by a large number of emigrants and crops and prices are likely Mrs. George Sherrington Diesat Her to be very encouraging.

A subscriber writes us stating that he is requently troubled with dogs chasing his sheep and asks if he would be justifiable in shooting dogs found worrying them. In In reply we refer him to Section 8 and subsections a. b. c., of Chapter 271 R.S.O. of 1897, which provides that any person may kill-any dog which he see pursuing, worrying or wounding any sheep or lamb, or any dog without lawful permission in any enclosed field on any farm which the owner or occupant thereof or his any sheep or lamb on such farm, or any wherein any sheep or lambs are kept .-

Canida is no longer on the eve, but the dawning of a season of prosperous developement, as glorious as over came to a country. Better than all else in the outlank, is the present cortainty that the prosperity of Canada will not be due to favors from the United States. If Canada had been blessed with prosperity just after the United States had opened its doors to freer trade there would have been an effort to trace the growth of our prosperity, to its roots in Washington. But prosperity Teachers' Institute was held in Georgetown is here, in spite of the fact that the United | Friday and Saturday last. The leftux of Americans this year will be greater than ever before, and they should be met by all Canadians with studied kindness and courtesy. Some Canadians may disapprove of President McKinley's course towards Spain, othersmay doubt the recent protestations of good will towards Great Britain, but such disapproval or distrust must not be flung in . the faces of our gueste. Harsh criticisms directed towardsforeign visitors are always evidence of a boorish nature, but between Americans and Canadians at a juncture such as this they would be almost original. It is not necessary that this politoness should amount to a slavish approval of everything American, but if we find it movementy to differ from an individual the opinion should be given with mildness coupled with the sincere hope that better conditions may prevail. If such a course is observed Americans will return to their own country ambassadors of our good will towards the nation, and with a new realization of what Canadian hospitality really is-

It looks as though both the franchise bill and the plebiscite bill bad been killed for the present by the Senate's amendment to the fermer. There is probably nothing in either this amendment or in one which Benator Vidal proposes to the plebisoite bill which the Government could not accept it it was in an accommodating spirit. The Senate has, however, assumed functions and responsibilities which belong to the Government by blocking vital measures and offering a policy of its own. has by this means created a governmental anomaly and impasse which obviously carries with it the doom of the Senate as now constituted, as it may be taken for granted that the Canadian people do not purpose to have their government taken out of their hands by a group of men responsible to nobody. Certainly, in interfering with legislation of the House of Commons dealing with the franchises of the people in regard to their representation in their own chamber, the Senate. purely mominative body, whose abolition would probably be ordered were a plebispeople, has taken ground very dangerous (about $20,000,000). This is supposed to bigh and in lavestigation proves his claim to itself .- Montreal Witness.

SANTIAGO IN RUINS

on Cuban Soll After a Great Spanish Defeat.

NEMY'S LOSS WAS VERY GREAT CAPE HATTIEN, June 8. - Admiral Sampson's fleet achieved a glorious victory at the bombardment of Santiago on Monday. From dawn until eleven o'clock a terrific bombardment was carned on. Then the dinner. At noon the bombardment began Iowa. It was directed at Morro Castle, but flew wide. The second tore one of the batteries to splinters. There were ten American froncisds in line formation, passing back and forth from Port Cabrears | Mr. Forbes. on the west, to Port Aguadorer, on the east, and not a yard of coast escaped the shells of the fleets.

The loss on the United States side, the Santiago reports say, is not definitely known, but is believed to be trivial. The Spanish acknowledge that a great deal of damage was in flicted on the Spanish orniser Reina Mercedes, and they say Morro Castle shows great gaping breaches

Later in the day, it appears, the landing of United States troops was effected. The details sent in indicate that the American gunners are experts, that the aim was direct and the effect disastrons to the Spaniards. Yet it is stated that rain and fog interfered with the defenders of the forts, so that they could not get a good shot at the American ships. Spanish reports as usual claim a victory for their own side. On the Pacific there seems to have been some lively fighting. The insurgents are reported to have closed in on Manilla and driven the Spaniards back with heavy

Meantime there is no nows of the fall of Santiago or the capitulation of the Spaniards in the Philiapines.

. An inquest was held Wednesday night. Evidence was given as to the finding of the body, and the husband of the deceased, Geo. Sherrington, a pensioner, testified that he was employed on the John Wilson farm, 1st concession, Trafalgar, and had last seen his wife alive on Thursday, when she appeared to be in good spirits. She had not been healthy lately, had been struck by lightning six years ago, had had weak spells and since then occasionally fits. Dr. Wickson, who made an autopsy of he body, testified that it was that of a well servant finds giving tongue and terrifying nourished middle aged woman. There were no marks of violence. The organs dog which any person finds straying were all healthy except the liver which was between sunset and sunrise on any farm enlarged to about one-third more than its proper size. There was green matter in the stomach, which on being chemically tested, proved to be Paris green. Death was caused by arsenical poisoning. The jury's verdict was that the deceased had died from the effects of a quantity of Paris green, administered by herself .- Champion at Montreal.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY. This Highest Court of the Presbyterian Church In Session

MONTREAL, June 8 .- The annual meeting f the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of Canada opens here to-day. The meeting is creating a good deal interest from the fact that the gathering is expected to be the largest church parlisment since the union some years ago. There will be over four hundred lay and olerical delegates, yet there does not appear to be any burning questions to come up for

The election of moderator will, of course be of interest, and leading Presbyterians state that the choice will be between Rev Dr. J. Bryce, of Winnipeg, and Rev. Dr Torrance, of Guelph, The place of menting will be Knox Church, Dorchester Street.

PROHIBITION MEANS SOMETHING How a Noted Liquor Firm is Dealing With the Plebisoite--it Fears the Success of the Vote.

The Dominion Alliance Executive officers are considerably exercised over the fact that a circular has been sent out to various charitable institutions by Hiram Walker & Sons, Limited, the big firm of distillers at Walkerville, which says:

"The impending vote on the question of total prohibition, brings us face to face with the possible destruction of our business. Should the plebisoite favor such a radical measure all our resources will be required for self-defence. Under these oircometances it is but natural and prudent that we should husband our resources as we feel compelled to discontinue entirely for the time being the subscriptions which we have been accustomed to give the numcrous charitable and other objects throughout the Dominion. We take this step with sincere regret and only from the conviction that we are menaced as never before with the confiscation of all that we possess.
