THE NEWS AT HOME.

Monthly of a Local Character, and every item interesting.

Hypermilt Match on Saturday: A local match which promises to be an exciting contest will be held on Saturday afternoon between the Ramblers of Toronto, and Acton. The Ramblers are composed of the St. Lawrence's of last season re-organized, and composed a strong team. The game will be called at 2:30 p. m.

Militia Appointments—10th Battalion: The following appointments were gazetted last Saturday, affecting the 10th Battalion, No. 2 Company—Provisional Second Lieut. H. Matthews having failed to qualify his name is removed from the list of officers of the active militia; to be second lieutenant provisionally, Sergt. Alfred Morrison, vice Matthews, retired; No. 6 company, to be "signals, Second Lieut. Joseph Graham Lauson, from No. 1 company, vice Schultz, retired.

Rev. Mr. McAlpine in Knox Church: Knox Church pulpit was occupied on Sabbath evening by Rev. W. S. McAlpine. Being "resident" in Georgetown, Mr. McAlpine has not had opportunity for getting acquainted with the other congregations in town since his settlement over the Baptist church here, and this exchange was consequently appreciated. His sermon, based upon St. Paul's reference to the Olympian games and the Christian race, was well thought out and contained many practical hints relative to the attainment of vigorous spiritual life. Rev. Mr. McAlpine preached in the Baptist church, Georgetown.

An Expert's Advice: "Early to bed, early to rise, don't get tired and advertise this to the world," subscribed for business by Robert C. Ogden of the firm of John Wansmaker, when addressing the Merchants' Association in New York. He further said: "A great deal of advertising fails because the advertiser gets discouraged. Advertising to be successful should be continuous. The advertiser must have courage. Most men are afraid to lay beyond a certain point. Having placed what they deem sufficient they should not fail to put on an extra $5.00 if necessary or they may lose the benefit of the whole. If a man has not the money to advertise he might as well go out of business."

How the Yankees Soar: Mr. John A. Ewen, whose letters to the Globe from the seat of war are among the most interesting, says of the speeches at the Queen's Birthday celebration at Tampa, Florida: "The chairman, Col. Wylie, is what is called a silver-tongued orator; that is to say, he talks about 'this boundless country whose silver feet are laved by the golden waves of the Pacific Ocean, and whose gold-like hair is washed in the scintillating billows of the Atlantic' without the least consciousness that that sort of thing has passed into the book of jests, but I could see no indication that it awakened any humorous thoughts in the mind of his hearers. When he mentioned the Dewey name would be placed by the historian far above those of Nelson or any other of the sea dogs of old, the English newspaper men just looked at each other and grinned."

Sunday in the Methodist Church: The seat of Conference being in Guelph this year a considerable number of the members of the congregation went to the city to enjoy the Sunday services. But those who remained at home had a feast of good things spiritual. Rev. R. J. Treleavan, of Bradford, occupied the pulpit and his sermon both morning and evening were able and eloquent, and highly edifying to the congregation. At the morning service the text was Zeph. 8: 17, and the points emphasized were God's presence, power, purpose and pleasure. The text of the evening discourse was Eph. 5: 1-16, "Be filled with the Spirit." Results of being in possession of the Spirit's Power were shown to be: 1, To have life; 2, to have fullness of life; 3, to be filled with divine abiding love; 4, to be filled with genuine Christian service; 5, to be filled with Christian liberty; 6, liberty from the world, liberty of liberality; 7, loyalty to Christ and to His church; 8, To be filled with power. These points were given most interesting and practical application. The sermons were powerful and of a most bold character, and Rev. Mr. Treleavan's visit was much enjoyed.

His Eighty-ninth Birthday: Our honored and earliest living settler celebrates his eighty-ninth birthday today. On the 9th June, 1810, Ann Hall, Esq., first saw the light of day at St. Andrews, Quebec, 43 miles north of Montreal. Mr. Hall came to Acton 65 years ago this service, and settled on the farm, on Main Street, bordering the north-westerly limits of the present corporation boundaries, still in his possession. He had purchased his property two years before from the Canada Company. When he came here there were but two houses in the new settlement, one of which is still standing in the rear of the residence of D. Henderson, M. P., Bower Avenue, the other was on the site of the residence of Mr. Adam Cook, Main Street. This Free Press, outlandish with much pleasure the session of Conference at Guelph during the past week; and to all appearances his venerable and honored presence will be spared to the community for years to come. Mr. Hall's reminiscences of events in the early days of Acton's history are always listened to with genuine interest by the rising generation. His personal interest in church and municipal matters have always given him a place as one of the most esteemed and respected residents. The people pulpit was filled in the morning by Mr. G. W. Wall in the evening by Mr. J. Reid, Freshwater, of Ossipee. In the evening Mr. Hoeking preached well in the Methodist pulpit. Friday is the date of our Township Sunday School Convention and will look forward with pleasant anticipations. Among the speakers are Revs. Golden and Macpherson of Acton, Rev. S. Rogers, Georgetown, and Rev. J. A. Oranston, Rockwood. The singing will be a treat, as well as hearing the Edges Mills choir we are to be favored with Messrs. Jackson and McAlpine, Rockwood, and Mr. M. Tollock, Speedville. We are sorry to say we have a typhoid fever case in the village. J. Smallhorn, Jr., is the patient.

SPEYSIDE: Messrs. Tebo, Wedge and DeForest of Nassawaga, have got into trouble. It appears that Joseph H. Gardiner, of Speyside, had left a collar, and secured the three above named gentlemen with having taken the animal. Obliet Bradley got on to their trail and on Sunday located his quarry a few miles above Bradford, where, with their families, they had gone into camp in tree gully fashion. On orders of the chief the camp was broken up and a start made for Milton, the whole outfit arriving here Monday evening. The stolen horse was with them. They were all locked up and will appear before Mayor Dies at ten o'clock Saturday forenoon.—Champion.

GEORGETOWN: The Council takes of passing a by-law to limit the riding of bicycles on the sidewalks. Mr. Joe. Gane, who was elected to the Council rendered account by the death of Mr. Teat, met with the Council last week, and has been installed in the various committees. The Council is purchasing 200 feet of paragon hose for the Fire Company at 90 cents a foot. The fire underwriters want an automatic fire alarm system put in. Rev. G. A. Mitchell, B. A., and Dr. L. Bennett attended the Conference session at Guelph during the week.

Rev. W. S. McAlpine, of Acton, preached an able sermon in the Baptist Church last Sunday evening. Rev. Mr. McAlpine preached in Knox Church, Acton. Rev. Ralph Poff, of St. Clair, Mich., has been the guest of Georgetown friends the last week. The public school scholars are busy preparing for their concert on Dominion Day. Nearly 200 will take part. We'll put our High School guards against any in the province for hunky. They are very attractive at present. The work of ex-Reeve Barber, so faithfully performed several years ago, is now bearing rich fruit.

NASSAWAGAWEYA: The Epworth League of the Ebenezer Church held their Anniversary on Sunday, 29th inst. The Rev. W. B. Smith, of Toronto-University, preached the formal sermon and directed the services. The church committee did their part well in the decorations of the church. The text for the morning was taken from Matthew 26th chapter and last clause of the 26th verse, "Lo I am with you always, even unto the end of the world." The consecration service in the evening was led by the Rev. John Marshall. The Cornish League joined with Ebenezer in the evening service. All through the services were very much appreciated.

Mr. Blacklock, near Campbellville, raised a fine tank horse by black and ticks last week and on Thursday evening gave a social dance to the young people who assisted. The services of the Ebenezer Church were withdrawn last Sunday, owing to illness of the pastor. A number of the congregation attended the Conference at Guelph. The Rev. Dr. Sloan and Mr. John Marshall attended Conference last week. A very pleasing event took place last Wednesday afternoon, at the residence of Mr. David Tolton, Waterloo Street, Cornish, when Miss Alice Tolton, was attended in a pale blue dress, trimmed with chiffon and pearls. Miss Hattie Tolton, the maid of honor, was similarly attired. The wants of the groom were carefully looked after by Mr. Geo. Scott, of Brampton. The newly married couple will take up housekeeping in Nassawaga. Mr. John Kitching, of Corwin raised the best run on the farm on Friday afternoon. The sides were captivated by Messrs. Dan Jones, of Moffat, and Peter McKelvie, of Corwin. The farmer was the victor; the stonew work was done by Messrs. Wallace, of Paolin, and the frame work by Mr. Jobe Black, of Paolin. The size of the barn is 50x88 feet and 20 foot post. When finished it will be one of the finest in the township.

The farmers are busy putting in their turnip seed. The fall wheat crop in this section promises to be excellent. The fruit crop promises to be a good one in this section. The movement of grain from Owen Sound and Midland is almost entirely stopped, for the reason that the elevators at Montreal are so full that more cannot be taken in. The trouble is that the shipping companies cannot get the grain out fast enough. The cry is for more shipping accommodation. TOURNE A GOLD IN ONE DAY: The late Senator Brown Quinte wrote: "All I regret is that I did not live to see this day."

—BUILDER AND STRENGTHENER. That is the Team—An Ottawa Lady Applies to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. 'Among my friends in Ottawa and the vicinity who have been benefitted and 'way or another by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, the Journal has learned the case of Mrs. Gliboritz, wife of Mr. T. V. Gliboritz, of Hintonburg. Mr. Gliboritz keeps a grocery at the corner of Front Ave. and Cedar Street, and is well known to a great many people in Ottawa as well as to the villagers of this suburb of the Capital. Mrs. Gliboritz states that while in a "run-down" condition during the spring of 1897, she was greatly strengthened and built up by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Speaking of the matter to a Journal reporter, she stated that while able to get about at the time she was far from well; her blood was poor, she was subject to headaches, and felt tired after the slightest exertion. She had read at different times of cures effected by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as a builder and strengthener, when any of her friends are weak or ailing.
