LITTLE LOCAL BRIEFLETS
Which Caught the Eyes or Ears of Free Press Reporters this week

Cool weather, isn't it?
-Dominion Day—a week from to-morrow

The Rev. William Robertson, of Morrison, preached in Knox church last Sabbath.

Every subscription in the advance to the Free Press plan, and all our subscribers appreciate it.

A very good yesterday evening portion of the British dominions celebrated Her Majesty's Jubilee.

Our fire ladders really presented a handsome appearance in their new uniforms on Monday evening.

The masons are at work on the foundation for the new double dwelling of Messrs. Robertson Bros. on Maple St.

Make no other engagement for to-morrow evening; but go with your best friends to the Garden Party in the Park.

Single fares are offered over the railways for Dominion Day. Tickets are good to go on the 30th inst. and return on the 2nd July.

The carpenters have commenced operations on Mr. George Mulholland's new front to his residence, on the first line Easting.

A large number of the Free Press subscriptions expire with the present month. Prompt renewal will be much appreciated.

A very fine basket of Wilson strawberries from the garden of Mr. Thos. C. Moore, was sent to the Free Press office on Monday.

A number of the companions of the late Thos. Wallace and John Owen, in Guelph, are arranging to erect a monument to their memory.

The kind act of Acton Cornet Band in mustering to lead the Volunteers and Firemen's parade on Monday evening is appreciated by all concerned.

Complaints have been sent in to the Provincial Board of Health from Oakville that a slaughter house has been opened near the Public School. An investigation will be made.

A large number from this section will attend the Farmers' Institute extension to Guelph on Saturday. The low rates 50 cents, and 30 cents for children are quite an attraction.

The entertainment given to the town hall last Thursday evening by the Willis Stock Company was thoroughly enjoyed by those who attended. The event deserved a larger house than assembled.

James Richardson, a G. T. R. freight conductor fell from the top of his van, when his train was in the yard here, and injured his thigh one day last week. He was taken to his home in Toronto.

The Milton Reformer reports an interview with Mr. H. Swackhammer, who exhibited the prospectus of 'Acton Sole Leather Tanning Co.' Milton was referred to as a very desirable point for a tannery.

THE NEWS AT HOME.

Middlesex Examinations.
The usual municipal examinations in connection with Acton Public School will be held on Thursday afternoon next, 30th inst.

The Priests and teachers will be pleased to have the parents and friends of their pupils visit the school during the afternoon. The school will close this afternoon for the long summer vacation.

The New Baptist Church Site.
A collar has been excavated and the stone is being laid down for the foundation for the old house on the street property, corner Mill and Willow streets.

A Rose Cottage tenanted by Mr. A. McNabb, Mrs. Jennie B. Cameron has rented—her handsome residence, Rose Cottage, to Mr. Arch. McNabb for a term of years.

Deposits of $1 and upwards received. Interest allowed at current rates and added to principal every year, when pass-book receipts issued for large sums.

J. P. BELL, Agent, GEORGETOWN, ONT.

THIS WEEK 21 YEARS AGO.

Reminiscences gleaned from the columns of the Free Press of June 21st, 1877.

In turning the files of the Free Press of twenty-one years ago, the local news in the copy for June 21st commanded our attention, and we concluded that a number of the events recorded there might be reproduced to day with interest to our readers.

The following gleanings will be presented: The appearance of the first of the new crop of wheat, the first of the new crop of wheat, the first of the new crop of wheat.

The first of the new crop of wheat, the first of the new crop of wheat, the first of the new crop of wheat.
