THE NEWS AT HOME.

Mostly of a Local Character, and every item interesting.

A Word For Our Good Looks. A large manufacturing firm in Brautford wrote the Faxz Passs the other day for sample copies. After receiving them the following note was sent us. "Copies of the FREE PRESS to hand. They are certainly very creditable, but not a bit more GEO. ROACH, JOHN PROCTOR, A. T. WOOD, than we expected, for the Acton Fare Parss has for years enjoyed the distinction of being the best printed newspaper in the Dominion." We appreciate such kind H. M. Death of Mr. Henry Bauer. After many weeks of suffering Mr. Henry Bauer died of cancer on the evening of Dominion Day at his home on Arthur Street, in his fifty-sixth year. Mr. Bauer has been a resident of Acton the past ten years, and has been with his family provident and respected citizens. Quiet and friendly in disposition every person had a kind word for him. He will be much missed by his family and neighbors. A o principal every year, whether pass-book is brought in or not. > The Queen Cityb Too Much for Acton. A baseball match played here between the Queen Citys of the Island League and the home team, on Saturday, July 2nd, resulted in the defeat of the home team by a score of 8 rans to four. The home team ontbatted the visitors but on account of some unfortunate errors were unable win. This is the first defeat the Acton club have suffered this year. The game was fast and very interesting throughout and was not won until the last inning. The score was as follows:

Queen Cily,...8 Batteries-Olcott and Ryder-Scott and Crews. Umpire-J. J. Ward. It is expected the Y. M. C. A. team from Galt will play here next Saturday.

More New Postage Stamps. A new issue of Canadian Postage stamps event of the fire last Wednesday in an was made from the Post Office Department on the let July. It was found that the lack of a figure indicating the denomination on each stamp caused confusion among English-speaking people, while among the wholly French the new stamps were unin telligible. Hence a new series has been issued, which remedies the deficiency The maple leaf designs at the two bottom corners have been replaced by the Arabic figures representing the denomination, while the centre oval enclosing the Queen's head has been made slightly larger. In the last issue the 15, 20 and 50 cent denominations were never issued, but they will be included in the new issue. Of the passing variety, the sixes and tens will be the rarest as fewer were made of them than of the others. The special delivery stamp was also issued on July 1. The bride presented a charming the garden of Mr. Joshua Norrish, Lake appearance in her wedding robes of cream oashmere trimmed with lace chiffon and ribbons, carrying a beautiful shower bouquet of cream roses. Her little niece Miss Pearl Moore, of Guelph, attended her as maid of honor and wore a pretty gold necklace, a present from the groom. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. A. McLachian, M. A., pastor of the Methodist Church, assisted by Rev. J. J. Redditt, of Brampton, uncle of the bride. The guests were confined to the relatives of the family and included : Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Moore, Principal of St. George's School, Guelph : Mr. and Mrs. Joe M. Moore, of the Herald Georgetown; Rev. and Mrs. J. J. Redditt; Brampton; Mr. and Mrs. John Ausman of the Toronto World; Miss Shirley Willis, of Aurora; Mr. Herbert McKerihan, Toronto, and Rev. and Mrs. J. A. McLachlan. After the ceremony a sumptuous wedding repast was partaken of in the dining-room, and the young couple left for Toronto by the 10.15 train. The numerous and handsome bridal tokens manifested the popularity of this worthy young couple. They have both been residents of Acton since childhood, and to them are extended the heartiest congratulations of the entire community.
