LITTLE LOCAL BRIEFLETS

Which Caught the Eyes or Ears of Free Press Reporters this week

-Elections to-day.

-This is Conception Day.

-Christmas is rapidly approaching.

-The roads are badly drifted in many places.

-The movement of grain continues very backward.

-There were no idle snow shovels in town on Monday.

-It looks very much as if sleighing for Christmas is assured.

-A large number of the electric light poles have been erected.

-The stone work of the new power house is about completed.

-Chewing and smoking in the lobby of Guelph Post Office has been prohibited.

-A number of the farmers of this section will attend the fat stock show at Guelph to-day.

-Received the bill heads all right. I am well satisfied with them." - J. M.
Ballinat.

-The vote in the rural sections is likely to be smaller than usual to-day owing to the drifted roads.

-The ministrations of Rev. Mr. Scott of Hespeler, in Knox Church on Sunday was very much appreciated.

-Sunday night's big snow storm is characterized the biggest on record for the first week in December.

-Some people think they'll sell their corner lots if there are any more snow storms like that of Sunday night.

-Halton Sunday School convention for 1899 will be held at Milton on Thursday and Friday, 2nd and 3rd February.

-The attendance at the Public School on Monday was cut down to less than one half the average. The storm did it.

-Rev. H. A. Macpherson will press anniversary services at Erin next Sabbath.

Rev. Bowles will preach in Knox Church.

-Rev. Father Reilly holds divine services in Georgetown this morning and in St.
Joseph's Church, Acton, at 7.30 this even-

-The Baptist Sunday School will hold their annual entertainment on Thursday evening the 22nd of December. Particulars later.

-Mr. J. J. Lawson is putting on the finishing touches to a fine new brick home he has erected for his brother William near Milton.

-Mr. W. Williams is getting settled in his remodeled house at the store. The family will be very comfortable in their new home.

-A number of the workmen at the Acton Tanning Co. had a holiday on Monday owing to repairs being made to one of the boilers.

-Mr. W. B. Reynolds, electrician, was called home to Stayner on Tuesday to superintend the installing of a new dynamo in the power house there.

-St. Albans Sunday School will hold their entertainment on Thursday evening, 22nd December. A pretty Christmas Carol is in preparation.

-The annual holiday entertainment of the Sunday School of Knox Church will be held on New Year's evening—January 2nd. Deafite particulars will be given later.

-B. Agnew, of the Domineck Hotel showed his bags at the Provincial Fair Stock Show in Brantford last week and has them at the Guelph Fair Stock Show this week.

-Loyalty—Between Knox Church and the postoffice a gold brooch set with three rubies, "Bind us with cords of love," by leaving with Miss Cameron who prised the brooch and a keepsake.

-Our question is to whom does it go?
The answer comes from the street crossings still an unbroken one. Good natured and able-bodied citizens deplored them; half closed the street opposite their premises of Monday.

-W. A. McRae, of Acton, has been appointed minister on the Board of Education for the District of Guelph.
He is a man of great ability and experience.

-The organ of C. G. Jackson was exhibited at the meeting of the Methodist Church at Acton on Saturday last. It is a most beautiful instrument.

-W. D. McRae, the Druggist, has some thing to say to you. See his advertisement in the front page.

-A MANAMED SMITH

Had a terrible cough. People said he was going into consumption. As a matter of fact, he was already in the early stages of that terrible destroyer.
He had seen enough to make him Cough and Cough! Our old doctor thinks it's a healthier climate in Canada for him. At 50 cts. and $1.00 a bottle, if he can't get along with the druggist he will refund your money.

THE NEWS AT HOME.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS.

EVERTON.

Any farmer who allows a stray animal to remain about his premises and gives no public notice of it through a newspaper, does what is hardly fair to the owner, owner, who may spend many days driving about the country looking for the stray animal.
This may be prevented by prompt advertising.

How They Do It in Newmarket.

Some boys are in the habit of strolling on the street corners in the evenings and passing remarks on people go by. The Inspector laid an information for half a dozen for misconduct and four of them called on Col. Lloyd. As a result of the interview they paid $1 fine and 50c costs.

The Disciples' annual entertainment will be given Thursday evening, 22nd inst.

MILTON.

The County Council wound up its business for the year on Tuesday, 29th Nov.

The official nominations were made last Thursday.

The county has been full of politicians this week from cabinet ministers to the rank and file.

The contract of carrying the mail between Milton and Hornby and Decatur has been awarded to Mr. Thomas Bradley, of this town, at $140 per annum.

Monday morning, 21st ult. about one o'clock, nightwatchman Dowis saw flames bursting from the finishing building of Hoff & Roeder's tannery. He at once gave the alarm, and the firemen were soon on the spot. Owing to the building being saturated with oil the firemen had considerable difficulty in subduing the flames. Insurance $3,500, total loss, $6,000.

There is no doubt that the fire was an incendiary one, as there was no stove or fire about the building.

The Hornby Methodist Church which had been undergoing a renovating for three weeks, was reopened on Sunday. The sermons were preached by the Rev.
John Kay, of Oakville, chairman of the District.

NASSAGAWEYA.

Mr. Peter Black, of Nassagaweya, lost one of his horses last week from some unknown disease. His loss is a heavy one as it was a fine horse.

Rev. Dr. Scoville and Evangelist Zimmerman, of Nelson, are conducting special services in the Ebenezer church. We hope their labors may meet with success.

Thanksgiving day passed off very quietly here. There were quite a number of hunters out and a good many bears and porcupines were shot and bagged.

Messrs. Samuel and George Agnew, brothers, finished a good season's threshing last week. They will be running the thresher again on Wednesday evening.

The oldest settlers cannot remember such a snow storm as this season of the year as experienced on Sunday afternoon and evening. The snow fell till it was about twenty inches deep on the level.

Dr. L. H. Wilson, D. D. S., Mr. Wilson and their son, of Armade, Michigan, left on Monday for their home, after spending a month with relatives in Nassagaweya.

Mr. Thor Wilson, of Knatchbull, intends moving up to his farm in Erin this week.

The election today will be lively.

GEORGETOWN.

The Scotch supper in the Presbyterian Church on Monday night of last week was a grand success. Everything was Scotch.
The programs were Scotch music, by the orchestra and piano, Scotch songs and recitations. The supper of course must be haggis, while pudding and all the Scotch cookery.

The anniversary services in the Methodist Church on Monday night were congregational especially in the evening, when the church was crowded to the doors. The Congregational service was withdrawn in the morning and the Baptists and Presbyterians in the evening. These pastors were present and took part in the service. The Rev. Dr.
Badgley, of Victoria College, preached two excellent sermons and the collections amounted to $115. Miss Powell, of Toronto, sang solo in the evening and the choir gave fine anthems both morning and evening.

The Rev. T. H. Rogers, B. A., preached his farewell sermon in the Congregational Church on Wednesday evening. A large congregation listened to the reverend gentleman's last words of counsel.

At the Epworth League on Monday night following Mr. Rogers also gave a farewell address to the young people of the Methodist Church.

The long-wished-for, and more, has come and the question now is what to do with it.
The wheels were all right on Sunday with some of our visitors, but the next morning found several unfortunate who had a hard road to travel.

Next to the great snow storm the abounding topic is the election. "To be or not to be"—on the winning side—"is the question."

The long-wished-for, and more, has come
and the question now is what to do with it.
The wheels were all right on Sunday
with some of our visitors, but the next morning found several unfortunate who had a hard road to travel.

As Mr. Barber had a large vote at home before, the principal interest again centers on that side in these surroundings.

The annual convention of the Lepre Mission for the Province was held last Friday in the Congregational Church. A number of delegates from Toronto and Guelph attended. The Rev. Mr. Neil, of Toronto, and the resident minister took part in the evening session. Address was also made by Mr. H. C. Hobson, of the Chinese Mission, and Mr. G. F. Smith, of the Chinese Mission, and Mr. A. H. Lee, of Trinity English Church, Toronto, were present and gave a most satisfactory account of the organ's accomplishment under skilled players. The sacred soles by Miss Davidson, of Penetanguishene, and Mr. E. J. Loy, of Toronto, were of very high merit, while the classical choruses by the church choir were rendered in a manner highly creditable.

Mr. Fred Barber last week had an order placed by the firm of G. & J. Moore, of Guelph, to make a new organ for the church of St. Catherine, which is to be installed in the church of St. Catherine, Acton. The organ was delivered and was so pleased with its capacity, ease of operation, and tone that an order was given. This is the first organ manufactured by this firm of Guelph.

COMING AND GOING.

Visitors to and From Actors and Various Other Personal Notes.

The Faun Passes invites all its readers to contribute to this column. If you have friends and relations who are holidaying far off, you have friends visiting you, drop a card to the Faun Passes.

Mr. Edmon Smith, of Hamilton, visited Action Island last week.

Miss Holmes and Ada Holmes visited Milton friends a few days this week.

Miss Tina McQueen returned on Friday after a seven weeks' visit with Kincaidson friends.

Mr. George Vincent, whose condition was very critical a week ago is gradually recovering.

Mr. Will McNabb, who has been in the hospital at Toronto for several weeks, will return home this week.

Referring to Rev. Mr. McLauchlan in the Guelph Mercury says: "On Sunday Rev. J. A. McLauchlan preached Epworth League sermons at Dublin St. church.
The audience at the morning service was good but the storm in the evening prevented many from being present. Mr. McLauchlan gave two excellent sermons which were highly appreciated."

By means of the telephone it is now possible for one person to talk to another who is 1,000 miles distant. After one has been conversing over such a length it is only fair to say that "he talked at great length."

Mr. Matthews is selling single harness at a great reduction for the next month.
