LITTLE LOCAL BRIEFLETS

Which Caught the Eyes or Ears of Free Press Reporters this week

-Merry Christmas.

-Get your stockings ready.

-Four days until Christmas.

-Halton has two custom offices vacant at present.

-Our merchants are enjoying a brisk Christmas trade.

-Don't forget your Free Press subscription for 1899.

-Send the Free Press the names of your holiday visitors.

-Sleighbells for Christmas will add gusto
to the holiday pleasure.

-The Free Press' Christmas wishes are found on the first page.

-What shall the present be? is an oft thought query this week.

-The public school examinations yesterday were well attended.

-The electric light poles on Mill Street are being put up this week.

-The Lord loves a cheerful giver. And for that matter who doesn't? -Puck.

-Acton's hooky club has arranged and have a rink arranged on Henderson's pond.

-Special Christmas services will be held in the various churches and Sunday Schools next Sunday.

-Mr. F. Harris, manager for R. Noble, advertisers for large grain to be delivered at Acton elevator.

-A private bank has been opened in Eric under the management of Mr. R. P.
Richardson, of Grand Valley.

-The boiler and engine for the electric lighting system, have arrived from the works of Godde & McCulloch, Galt.

-The pitch holes in the roads have been hard on the cutter shafts. A number have been reported broken the past week.

-The first regular meeting of the Council falling on Christmas night, the meeting will be held on Tuesday evening, 27th inst.

-Spend Christmas evening at the Methodist Sunday School entertainment.

The "Message of Peace" Cantata is worth hearing.

-Send the Free Press a Christmas gift to a distant friend. If you are a subscriber you may have the extra copy for 75 cents.

-The roof of the new power house is completed and work is now in progress on the interior. The walls will be painted in the spring.

-The principal thing the merchants who advertise in the Free Press complain of at present is their inability to wait upon the crowds.

-It is a good time now for the man who thinks of taking some pledge to begin to look around him. January 1st 1899, is nearly here.

-A New York paper says: "Is beer a luxury?" In a good many cases it is a luxury that the customer's family can't very well afford.

The boys and girls are having jolly times these days hanging on the sleighs of good-natured farmers and others. But there's danger, be careful.

The new Imperial Penny Postage comes into force on Christmas Day. Then you may send a letter to Calcutta, India for two cents, built up cost you three cents. It is a great saving.

-I never could see what delusion come in," said Uncle Elwin, "when a man goes in time hunting 'de right kin' of a rabbit's foot so he might be devoured, 'jes' as easy as not to make four dollars a week."

The winter term of the Guelph, Bucknell College and Shorthorn Institute will commence on Tuesday, Jan. 2nd. For full information as to rates of tuition &c., write or call upon the Principal, Mr. J.
Sharp.

Mr. T. J. Day, of Guelph, informs the Free Press that the entire stock of 100 copies of the original Constitution Bible advertised in the Free Press the past week has been sold out and cannot be supplied.

Mr. George Neuman, Manager of the Ontario Fire Insurance Company, was in Guelph yesterday, and on his return will call on the members of the Guelph Chamber of Commerce.
