Acton Free MICSS,

VOLUME XXV .-- NO. 13

ACTON, ONTARIO, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 1899.

The Acton Free Press -18 PUBLISHED-EVERY THURSDAY MORNING.

-AT THE-Free Press Steam Printing Office, strictly in advance. All subscriptions discou-tinued when the time for which they have been paid has expired. The date to which every subscription is paid is denoted on the address label ADVENTISING RATES—Transient advertisements, 10 cents per Nonparell line for first insertion, 8 cents per line for each subsequent to insertion. Contract Rates—The following table shows our rates for the insertion of advertisements for specified periods:—

| 1 YB. | 6 MO. | 8 MO. | 1 MO SPACE. $5.00 $90.00 $90.00 $7.00 $5.00 $90.00 $19.00 $0.00 $0.00 $18.00 $7.00 $0.50 $0.00 $0.50 $0.00 $0.00 inches inches inches inches Advertisements, without specific directions, will be inserted till forbid and charged accordingly. Transient advertisements must be paid a advance.

Advertisements will be changed once each month if desired. For changes oftener than snoe a month the composition must be paid for at regular rates. Changes for contract advertisements must on a the office by noon on Tuesdays. Accounts payable monthly.

H. P. MOORE

Editor and Proprietor

Susiness Directory.

MEDICAL. TOHN M. MACDONALD, M. D., C. M., SUCCESSOE TO

J. F. UREN, M. D. C. M. Office and residence-Corner Mill & Frederick Office Hours:--6 to 10.30 a.m.; 1 to 2 p.m., and

DR. F. J. R. FORSTER, SUCCESSOR TO

DR. A. S. ELLIOTT. Late resident Physician and Surgeon to Victoria Hospital for Sick Children, Toronto. OFFICE-Mill Street-lately occupied by Dr.

TR. DRYDEN, ETE, EAR, THROAT AND NOSE,

McLean's Block, Douglas St., near P. O., GUELPH. OFFICE Houns-10 .m. to 1 p.m. and 3 to 6 p.m SUNDAYS-10 a.m. to 1 p.m. DENTAL.

Houns -EVERY DAY FROM 9 TO 5.

L. BENNETT, L.D.S., DENTIST, T COGHLAN, D.D.S., L.D.S., DENTIST WORK CAREFULLY DONE. PRICES MODERATE. OFFICE OVER BROWN'S DATO STORE.

F M. BELL, D.D.S., L.D.S. BROOKVILLE. HONOR GRADUATE OF TORONTO UNIVERSITY. Work made Satisfactory. Prices Moderate. Visiting Days.—Monday afternoon, Campbellville; Tuesday, Acton, Office—Clark's Hotel; Friday, Rockwood.

LEGAL. McLEAN & McLEAN

Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries, Convoyancers Office:-Town Hall, Acton. WM. A. MCLEAN. JNO. A. MOLEAN

J. MACKINNON, BARRISTER, BOLICITOR, CONVEYANCER. OFFICE-Mill Street; in Matthews' Block

J. B. McLEOD, BARRISTER, BOLICITOR, CONVEYANCES. Main Street, Georgetown.

Money to loan at lowest current rates. R. J. McNABB, Clerk, Fourth Division Court County of Halon, Conveyancer, Agent Fire and Life Assurance to Estate Agent. Money to loan, etc.

OFFICE—Porryman's Block.

ACTON

ONT.

MISCELLANZOUS. OF GRONGBTOWN.

MISS WILLIAMS, -MUSIC Successor to Miss Laidlaw, is prepared to give thorough instruction in music—plane or organ—in theory and practice. For terms apply to Miss Williams at Mr. Jas. Matthew's residence sday evening of each week. ENRY GRIST. OTTAWA, CANADA. Solicitor of Patents, for Invention, etc.

Prepares Applications for the Canadian, American, and European Patent Offices, and for the Registration of Trade Marks. Send for pamphlet: Thirty-two years experience. TRANCIS NUNAN

BOOKBINDER, Wyndham St., Guelph, Ontario. (Over William a' Store.) Account Books of all kinds made to order eriodicals of every description carefully bound, uling aparty and promptly done

MARRIAGE LICENSES. H. P. MOORE, JESUES OF MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Private Office. No witnesses required. Issued t residence in the evening. Free Press Office, ACTON

MM HEMSTREET, LICENSED AUGTIONALS For the Counties of Wallington and Halton Orders left at the Faus Parss office, Acton, or t my residence in Acton, will be promptly at-ended to. Terms Ressonable.

Also money to loan on the most favorable sums, and as the lowest rates of interest, in sums of $500 and pwards.

SUBSORIBED STOCK CAPITAL $195,000. THE WELLINGTON MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY Established 1840. GUELPH, ONT

I NEUBANCE on Cash and Mutual plan. Any communications forwarded to my address, nor telephone 58, will be promptly attended to. JOHN TAYLOR, Agent, Guelph

EUTON Machine and Repair Shops HENBY GRINDELL Proprietor

A BE well equipped with all the machinery necessary to execute all repairs to machinery, and agricultural implements, and to do all kinds of steam-fitting horse-shocing and general blacksmithing. Woodwork repairs performed in a satisfactory, manner. We can repair any machine and filing done.

Acton Saw Mills, and Wood Yards. JAMBS . BROWN

MARUPACTURER AND DRALER IN Lumber, Lath, Shingles, Wood, Etc. li kinds of wood in stock and promptly delivered to any part of the town at reasonable prices. Hardwood and slabs out stove length always on hand.

Envelopes!

We received during August 600,000 Envelopes bought TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION-One dollar per year very low and we will sell them extra cheap. If you want a box of Envelopes go straight Day's Bookstore.

Day has the envelopes to please you and his prices are the lowest.

Day sells cheap.

Waters Bros. Pictures

Frames

Waters Bros.

WATERS BROS..

WYNDHAM STREET. Guelph.

Speight & Brady

DYNAMOS, ELECTRIC MOTORS, WATER MOTORS, GASOLINE AND GAS ENGINES. BRASS & IRON CASTINGS TO ORDER.

Repairing Promptly Done. Georgetown, Ont.

CASH PAID

PRODUCE FARM

Onlons Poultry Eggs Pork -Apples Wanted-

AIKENHEAD PRODUCE CO. G. PARSONS, Manager. Cor. Mill and Main Sts.

(Opposite Clark's Hotel.) ALMA

LADIES' COLLEGE Opens tor Nineteenth Year

September 7th Parents are reminded that the best conditions for the mental, moral and social training of their daughters are to be found in a residential school like Alma College, St-

Thomas Ont. For full information address Rev. R. I. WARNER, Prin.

St, Thomas, Ont.

Stock of

Suitable for All Classes. Prices Reasonable. Stovel

Has a splendid line of School Children's Shoes, Ladies' Street Shoes, Misses' Walking Shoes, Men's Working Boots, Men's Dress Shoes, Men's Boots and Leggings for Tan-Full line of rubbers for Fall wear.

ALL EXCELLENT VALUE. Stovel Does all kinds of Custom Work and guarantees his own work.

Stovel

Makes a syecialty of REPAIRING. Stovel is clearing out at 50c. per pair.

las a line of Boys' Strong Boots which At AGNEW'S OLD STAND. NEXT TO MELVIN'S BARBER SHOP

Mail and Business Practice Is the most interesting and practical course of study in Bookkeeping and Accounting for boys and girls leaving Public and High Schools.

Shorthand and Typewriting, special facilities. Individual Tuition, no classes formed. Parents are invited to investigate. Fall term will commence Monday, Aug 28.

QUELPH Business College and Shorthand Institute

AGENTS WANTED—For "The Life and Achievements of Admiral Dewsy," the world's greatest naval hero. By Murat Halstead, the life-long friend and admirer of the nation's idol. Bigrest and best book; over 500 pages, eight by ten inches; nearly 100 pages halftone illustrations. Only $1.50. Enormous demand. Big commissions. Outfit free. Chance of a life-time. Write quick, The Dominion Company, 3rd Floor Caxton Bidg., Chicago quality and prices. CALL AND SEE OUR NEW LINES WANTED—Several bright and houset persons to represent us as Managers in this and close by counties. Salary 2000 a year and expenses. Straight, bone fider no more, no less salary. Position permanent. Our references, any bank in any town. It is mainly office work conducted at home. Reference, Enclose self-addressed stamped envelope. The Dominion Company, Poetry.

OLD TIME, OLD FRIENDS, OLD LOV. There are no days like the old days-The days when we were youthful!

Capital Authorized..... $1,000,000 Capital paid up........... 700,000

Guelph, Branch We are now issuing Money Orders payable at par at any branch of Chartered Bank in Canada, excepting the Yukon District, at the following rates:—

HIGHEST CURRENT RATE OF INTEREST paid on sums deposited of $1 and upwards. Interest allowed from date of deposit to date of withdrawal and paid or compounded half

. Advances made to responsible farmers on their own names at the lowest curren rates. No charge made for collecting sales notes if payable in Guelph.

A general banking business transacted. A. F. H. JONES,

Three Things

Th se lines of goods most seasonable at this time of the year. Linoleums Now is not one day too soon to put it You will soon have the stoves to attend to and now will save all the extra Lamps complete now. Seven casks of lamps were just opened last week. All the newest styles. Lastly Our third thought is what interests you very much, and that is PRICES. We buy

Not much profit in waiting until half the dark evenings are over. Our steck is most middle-man's profit to pay. May we supply you? John M. Bond & Co.

CUBLPH Motto; "Satisfaction." HARDWARE

W. BARBER & BROS PAPER MAKERS, GEORGETOWN, ONT

MAKE A SPECIALTY OF

Machine Finished Book Papers HIGH GRADE WEEKLY NEWS.

The paper used in this journa is from WM. BARBER & BRO.

Everton and Eden Mills,

The place to go for the ..Best Flour..

Bran, Middlings, Chop Feed, &c., for sale. Chopping every day at Everton mills and every Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday Always buying wheat. No credit.

Henry Hortop.

Main Street PLANING MILLS

ACTON ONT. John Cameron,

Architect and Contractor. Manufacturer of Sash Doors Frames Mouldings in all styles DRESSING. to order on short notice.

and MOULDING Wall assorted stock on hand at prices to su

JOHN CAMERON

Proprietor

Two Kinds of Men

There are two kinds of men to be found everywhere those who are obliged to dress roughly while at work and those whose occupation involves no difference in attire. For the laborer we have heavy, substantial boots: for the business man comfortable. sensible shoes; for the boys and girls good knockabouts, and for the ladies the latest novelties in footwear. OUR FALL

STOCK is now coming in and embraces goods sure to please our customers as to style, any idea of. It's a little hard sometimes."

WILLIAMS.

When humankind were pure of mind And speech and deeds were truthful; Before a love for sordid gold Became man's ruling passion, And before each dame and maid became Blaves to the tyrant fashion ! There are no girls like the good old girls-Againt the world I'd stake 'em !

As buxom and smart any clean of heart As the Lord knew how to make 'em! They were rich in spirit and common sense A ploty all supportin'; They could bake and had taught school to

And they made the likilost courtin'! There are no boys like the good old boys-When we were boys together! When the grass was sweet to the brown, baro foot

That dimpled the laughing heather; When the pewee sang to the summer dawn Of the bee in the billowy clover, Or down by the mill the whip poor-will Echoed his night song over.

There is no love like the good old love-

The love that mother gave us!

-- gloams ---

Of beaven away off yonder.

We are old, old men, yet we pine again For that precious grace-God save us! So we dream and dream of the good ol times. And our hearts grow tenderer, fonder, As those dear old dreams bring soothing

-Rugene Field

Select Family Reading. Budley Barrington s

resson. Milly Barriogton was only 18 when she came to live at Holly Lodge. Very young to be married, said the gossips of the neighborhood, still younger to assume all the cares and responsibilities of a household. And there were not lacking doleful prophets who declared with eyes rolled up and months drawn down that Mrs. Barrington never would "get on with the old gentleman." "He is so fastidous," said one. "So difficult to suit." said another.

declared a third. But to their surprise -perhaps a little to their disappointment - Milly and her father-in-law were the very best of friends from the very first moment in which they looked upon each other's face.

Milly was anxious to learn, so eager to comprehend the inns and outs of the great, roomy old house, so ambitious to excel every housekeeper in the neighborhood, that the old gentleman said with a smile to his son : "Don't let your little wife undertake too much, Dudley." And Dudley Barrington answered with

"There's no danger of that, sir. The broidered rest. Then why do you practise ladies of Holly Lodge have always been first-rate housekeepers you know. And if a woman is at work she isn't spending

Mr. Barrington's keen blue eyes regarded his son sharply for a moment. "Do you think Millie is addicted to either of those pernicious practices ?" he

They come natural to all women, don' they ?" said Dudley, sbrugging his shoul-"Not at all ! said his father, Dudley was really worthy of such a jewel as Millicent. So the weeks went on, and Milly stood bravely to her helm, until one bright, October day the oll gentleman, chancing to pass the low kitchen window, where the vines made a screen of moving shadow. looked emilingly into where his daughter in-law was at work. "Have you a glass of milk for me, little girl," said he.

Millie brought the milk promptly. "See, paps," she said, triumphantly pointing to the table, "what a baking have done to-day. Three apple pies, three loaves of bread, a pan of biscuit, a cake and a dozen plum terts !" "Bravo," said Mr. Barrington. "But, Milly, why are you baking? Where is Hannab?" "Hannah wanted her wages raised, said Milly rather soberly, "and Dudley asked. "In itself, as an abstract thing. "Yes, papa," Milly answered with some hesitation. "But I'm a little tired this morning. I rose and swept the house through before breakfast so as to have time for the baking." "You are a good little girl," said the father-in-law. "But we muen't let you work too hard." "Papa," said Milly, with downcast lashse and a deep pink shadow creeping over her cheek, "I've been thinking for some Milly. time that-that"-

He wants to know what everything for," said she. "He thinks two shillings is too much for ribbon, and he says hat ought to be had cheaper than five shillings each, and he declares its all nonsense to buy kid gloves when cotton will do as well And I do need another has since my best one was spoiled by the rain but I don't like

"Do you mean to say," said Mr. Barrington, leaning his elbows on the sill "that ance every week ?" prettily arched brows. "Dudley says women don't know how to use money and that a wife should always receive every half-penny she spends from her husband so kind to me-I am so ashamed to have him think me extravegant, and I really need so many little things that men baven's and laid it on the window sill. "Here, little girl," he said, "you have patted her head and answered with a touch carned the contents of that a dozen times of serosem Milly reached up to kiss bim through the Herald.

Mr. Barrington took out his pooket-book

AS THE CHILDREN THINK. she said.

He only patted her cheek in reply. "Dudley don't know what a treasure be has got," he pondered as he kept ou his walk up to the front verandah where a great obestnut tree was showering it's blooms over the steps and the balmy supshine slept on the painted floor. "He is making a Circassisu slive out of that dear little woman." And he took his book and stretched him self comfortally out in the hammock for his evening's reveries. It was the next day that his son came t him in the library, where a little fire of logs had been kindled, for a chilly northwest rain had blown all the maple leaves away, and the sun-hine was obscured in driving clouds.

"Well, my boy," suid his father kindly; "you are off to the city, I suppose !" "Yes, sir," said Mr. Barrington, Jr., a tell straight, handsome young man, with a brown complexion and sparkling eyer. "And before I go perhaps you had better give me a check if it's convenient." "A check ?" said his father. "For what

"I'm about out of ready cash," said Dudley carelessly, "and a little spending money would come in very handy for current expenses."

"I need a summer suit, air, said he, "mnd"-"Yes, yes," nodded the old gentleman.

"Ab! And what are you going to buy?

"And how much do you pay for a summer suit now ?" "Oh, six or seven pounds," answered Dodley. "Bix or seven pounds!" coboed Mr.

Barrington. "Ien't that rather vague?" "A fellow never knows exactly," explained Dudley. "Ah, but you ought to know ' interrupted the old gentleman. "And now I am on the subject, you buy your clothes of Poole don't you? Aren't there chesper places?" Dudley ignored the question and said :

"I've a little bill at the cigar shop to settle, and there are some new books should like to read." "Just send in the bill to me," said the old gentleman. I'll pay them." "The bootmaker, sir." "You must try and not be too extravagant with your boots. Young men have so many fictitious wants nowadays. But as I said before, let all the bills be sent to me. And as for spending money, here is enough for the present." He drew out belf a soveregn and handed it to his son. Dudley started at it in

"Did you ?" "It isn't agreeable to be put on such an allowance," went ou Dudley charply." "I'm not acoustomed to it." "Not agreeable, sh?" said his father comfortably adjusting his feet on an em

"I expected a check, sir," said he, some what discomfited.

the system with your wife?" "I give her all that she needs to spend, said Dudley, coloring up. "And I have given you all that you

I am a man !" said Dudley. "And she is a woman!" retorted hi father. "I am the manager of your warehouse, and I claim my honest remuneration as such," oried Dudley. "I am no beggar.

There is not a penny that I ask for that do not carn." "That is Millicent's case exactly," said the wise old advocate, "She does the work of the house and does it well. She is an economist in every sense of the word. Is it right that she should receive merely her board and clothes? Is she not entitled to a regular allowance to spend as as she pleases? Do not think me a meddlesome old fogy, my son," he added, rising and placing his hand kindly on his son's shoulder. "But I've been observing all these things, and I merely wanted to give you a personal application of this miliates one to have to beg humbly for the money that one has honestly earned-to be called upon for an account of every penny.

one wishes to spend. Don't put your wife into such a false position as this. Treat her as one of the firm of Barrington & Dudley stood still a moment, pondering, and then said, carnestly :

"I will, sir. You are right !"

And Milly was delighted that very day to receive a check for an ample sum of money from her husband. "Is it all for me?" she cried, with gli tering oyes.

"Yes; all of it," Dudley answered laugh money? "Look it up in your deak, dear," he answered, "and spend it for your needs as they occur.' "But I never had so much before al at one time!" exclaimed the amazed "No, you never had, more shame to me, acknowledged Dudley. "But I have come to the conclusion, Milly, that you are no child to be given a few shillings at a time.

You are my housekeeper and deserve your regular selary. I shell give you £5 for your own personal expenses at the begining of every month, and you shall economise it as you choose. The household expenses, of course, will be paid out of the "Oh, Dudley, I never felt so rich in my life!" she said. "Now I can dress like the other women and give a little money to the church and help the poor and feel inde.

pendent ! And I can lay by a little, too. Dudley, every month! Oh you shall see what an excellent manager I can be.' Dudley Barrington looked at his young wife, with a sharp prick of conscience at his heart. Why had he never made her so innocently happy before? Simply because it never occured to him. And Milly ran eagerly to her father-in "Papa," she cried, "I am to have £5 month all for my own self and never to give an account of a single penny of it bim and said :

unless I rlease It is Dudley's own offer. Isu't be kind?" And Colonel Barrington smiled and Mother-Your penwipper has never been used as all. Little Johnny-Don't need it; my new pants are black. an oppressor. Gracie-Mamma, what does Santa Claus io after Christmas? Mamma-Why, he recollects toys for the following Christmas. Gracie-Ob, I know! He takes the papers and watches out for burgain sales. A certain schoolmaster, who used a round souff box during the week and a square one on Sunday, was acconstomed to point to his anuff-box when the examiner came along and asked the class what was the shape of the world, a little fellow the sugar was his. The widow pleaded for answered: "Round during the week and | the little that was much to her, but the equare on Sunday.

Donald, aged ten, was a minister's son. One morning when his mother was getting | this demonstration, the man turned, and him ready for school he was quite cross, and said: Ob, hurry up! When you wash me you just remind me of paps preaching | Am I right or not? If you say I am not, I -you just go on and on, and never know | wil give back the sugar. If you say I am, when to stop!" Helen, who is three years I am entitled to it, and I'll keep it." younger, and very fond of her paps; thought to come to the rescue, so she said: "I like to hear papa preach.

Visitor-Well Tommy and how are you getting along at school? Dudley looked at his father in smaze-Tommy (aged eight) -First-rate. I min't > though I can stand on my head, but I have to put my feet against the wall. I want to do it without being near to the wall at take it from you as she has no redress." A fly had fallen into the inkwell of a certain author who writes a very bad and inky hand. The writer's little boy resoued plece of paper. After watching him intently for a while, he called to his mother : "Here's a fly, mamma, that writes just like papa."

Sister-There! You have candy all over your new suit. What will mamma Little Brother--Well, mamma won't let me have any fun in these clothes till I get em spoiled. Mamma-Mercy on me! What does all this racket on Sunday mean? And you've | honestly. Take it and buy some sugar for got all your dolls out, too! Little Dot-You said we might play

Mamma-Do you call all this gable and aughter church? Little Dot-No, mamma, church is just over and the folk are going home. Baid the Sunday-school-teacher, "All grieved, puzzled look that hurs the mother's little children who lie, or steal, or don't go heart, but opened her eyes. to church, or fight will go to the bad place when they die." Little Charlie burst into tears. "But you wun't go there, dear," continued the teacher, kindly. "N-n-no, I all my little friends will."

A MANXMAN'S CALL TO DUTY. The Hon. J. K. Ward, of Montreal, a Manx-Canadian, sends to the Witness bis copy of the leading Isle of Man paper containing the following :-"I see from this week's "Christian World" that there is a paper carried on on the very in "In His Steps." It is the Montreal "Daily Witness," and is said to be the only one of the kind in the world. That can hardly be said to be a very creditable thing for the Christian Church. Can any one doubt that such a paper must be an enormous force on the side of purity, righteous- America. ness, and every good and noble cause? I can imagine few greater blessings that nice. Study not how you can spend the Just imagine what it would be to have in to take your money from you; the more this island (the Isle of Man) a newspaper absolutely free from personalities, stories will be. Keep on earning money; If you of petty scandal, betting news, and adver- stop earning, your fortune will shrink as tisements of anything that could be to the your arm does when you don't excerise it. landlord cannot pluck. Like virtue, it is moral detriment of the people. I am See that your head isn't lame; it doesn't its own reward. It shows the beneficent aware for such a task a mun of enormous matter about your legs. Learn to know side of that law by which time once lost courage and faith would be needed. But good people from bad. Take care of your can never be restored, for a holiday once if such a man did arise in our midet it money; it isn't half as hard to carn it as it enjoyed can never be entirely last .would be such a cell to duty to all Christ- is to take care of it. Be sure not to put all Toronto Globe. ish people as has hardly ever come to us your money eggs into one basket. Be reyet. He would have great difficulties to fight with, but I wonder what right any of us would have to call ourselves followers of Jesus if we did not stand by him and see bim through. Surely this is no mere utopian dream. It ought to be perfectly feasible. If our Christian profession is:

large portion of the Church members, were to be governed by the rule "What would Jeens do?" they would make it quite possible for such a paper as the one described as existing in Montreal to live and flourish among us." Christ begins his work with the individual, making a new man, and out of that new greature, all other good things are to reality and not a sham; if all, or even a come for others and for society at large Reformation must begin with ourselves."

-Rev. D. Inglis, B. A., in Mona's Herald," Isle of Man. AN OLD JOKE UNEARTHED. An old document unearthed in the Crown Lands Department, Toronto, contains the fervent petition of Elias Jones, of Ningara, an old soldier of 103 years of age, in 1867 for a small pittance from the Government for himself and his aged wife. The petition is addressed to Sir John Macdonald and a characteristic note on the back of the yellow document shows the statesman's love of fun. At the time the petition was sent to Sir John Macdonald the Sandfield Macdonald Government was managing the affairs of the province and Hon. Stephen Richards and Hon. Matthew Crooks Cameron the portfolios of Commissioner of Grown Lands and Provincial Secretary respectively. Bir John forwarded appeal to Hop. M. C. Cameron, with inscription endorsed on the back:

My dear Cameron-I think between you and Richards you could vote this old buffer a gratu-You as a Tory and R. as Reformer. It is not known whether the "old buffer".

received the pension or not. MISTAKING THE OPERATION. A very shortsighted old gentleman going into one of our large towns for the first time and coming from the heart of the country, seeing a man digging, he went to ong and narrow grave ?" But the man took no notice. loser he said: My man, for whom diggest thou thi

THE WIDOW'S MITE. The man who has no pity for the fatherless and widows fortunately fillds little sympathy in this land. The life of Henry A. Wise records the discomfiture of such

There was an auction sale in the little house, and one after another the widow's few possessions fell beneath the hammer. Presently the auctioneer took up a large bowl which happened to be full of sugar, and the poor woman anxious to save it; contents, hastened into the next room to find something in which to put it.

Just as she returned the auctioneer cried, "Sold !" and the purchaser insisted that mau was obdurate, and murmore of judignation arose from the crowd. Angry at his eye rested on Mr. Wise.

"Mr. Wise," said he, "you are a lawyer "My friend," replied Wise, in his gent-unpleasant responsibility upon me. Had Soon as he begins I lay down and go to you not better decide the matter for your-"No." replied the man, curtly, "I know hear it."

avod redto cit to emos as allew es griob the sugar is yours. The widow cannot "Aba!" oried the man, turning to the and Wil sam are themselves twins .spectators. "What did I tell you? "Stop!" thundered Wise, whose manuer at once changed. "I've advised you at > these people. It remains for me to tel you that I charge you $5 for my advice. and I demand immediate payment. It you trifle in this matter of payment with me, you will most certainly regret it." The man turned scarlet and fumbling in bis wallet, produced a $5 bill. The crowd silent as Mr. Wise walked up to the widow and said : "This money is mine. I have carned it your fatheriess children."- Youth's Com-

DONT'S. "Don't do that, dear."

"There must be a better way," she said "and I must find it." nails, she said: "Suppose you take these know that ," blubbered Charlie; "b-b-but | boards, laddie, and make a chicken coop."

in the table or chair and being called to | -Christian Herald. order by " Johnnie, don't." "Don's make so much noise !" gave way to "Why not take your dog out for a scamper, then he can be quiet when inside." You see, she had found the better way. We love our babies, yet samelines as the imaginary one described | throughtlessly hurt then .. Study their ways, mothers, and spare "don'te." HOW TO GET RICH . Everybody wants to know how to get rich. This is the way to do it, according to Mrs. Hetty Green, the westbiest woman in "Be careful of your health. Save your pencould come to any community than the money you have earned, but how you can presence of such a paper in its midst. | earn more. Watch the people who want

God is present in nature as a worker. The heavens declare his alory, and the firmament showeth his handiwork." The rolling wave, the murmuring brook, the mountain peak, and the lowly valley, each and all proclaim his glory. Earth's vast continents, coesne, lakes, and rivers, its changing climes and seasons, its variety of products, its myriad creatures, the regularity of ite laws, and the harmony of every operation of that power by which it is held together, display his excellence. As every turn we meet a smiling or a frowning God. you'd like some ice cream, Miss Wildhones -Presbyterian. MEDITATING A PRACTICAL JOKEI "Jim." said one of the two young men from behind the suburbs, who were taking their first ride on a lake steamer and had been watching with interest the seesaw motion of the welking beam, "the next time this end comes down grab hold of it and stop is." "What for ?" asked Jim. "To plague the engineer."

FEW MEN ORIGINAL. -Did you ever notice how few people are original in things they say and do? For instance, one man makes a fortune out of a simple thing; immediately hundreds of others try is, this is human pature. While it is gratifying to be the "first man" to bring out an idea, the great mass must contented to follow their leaders. There is one line that is always original, however, and that is the business of Bradley Garretson Co., Limited, of Brantford Ont., because they continually bring on publications, to suit the times and sessons thus their agents are kept steadily at it and occupation is more honorable, healthful, lucrative, or offers half as many opportuni ties for promotion. It is a life school. Many men and women in Canada to-day testify to the truthfulgess of his oluin, in fact it is conceded on all hands, tust one year's experience with this firm is worth more to any young man or woman, than two or three years at college, from an

PRICE THREE CENTS THE CRICKET IN THE CORN.

When the lilles droop and die And shrivel into shrows, .

The cricket's in the corn. And far into the night, An atom clad in rusty black,

He sings with all his might, Bo lonesome is the tiny tune, So plaintive and forl orn, : I cannot help it weep to hear The cricket in the coru.

lest tone, "you put a very deliest; and twine, a son and a daughter, on the 12th of August last, Dan was so over joyed that he at once rat down and we to to his brother William, in Muhigan, to Llong him of the event and rather growing over it. When what your opinion is going to be and 1. William received the letter he reglied that want you to give it so this wh 1. crowd out. Dan was, no further should in raising a family than hims If, as two days before "Then," said Wise, "I advise you that the presentation to Dan, he, William, had become the bappy father of twins slip. It

THE IRISH CONDUCTOR A little black-eyed and nimble-tougued rish street our conductor in Dublin went gentlem'n, au mek room for a leddy phwat's standing." A big aurly-looking man, who was occupying space enough for two said sullenly: "We can't sit any closer." "Can't yez?" retorted the little conductor. "Begorra, you niver wint cortin."

thio." It is needless to add that room was made "on the roight" for the lady. A MOTHER STORK'S DEVOTION. Among many stories of the affection of dumb creatures for their young, this from a German paper is peculiarly pathetic:-"As Nenendorf the lightning strack the gable end of a barn where for years a pair of storks bad built their mest. The flames soon caught the nest in which the helplers When the boy came with hammer and brood was piteously acreaming. Tho mother stork now protectingly spread out her wings over the young ones, with whom better than simlessly pounding the nails | have saved herself easily enough by flight."

A SENATORIAL SLANDER. Two ladies visiting in Washington during one of the sessions of congress went to the capitol to hear the proceedings in the United States senate. Most of the galleries being filled, they apparented the doorkeeper of the senstor's gallery, where admission is by card. As they did not possess this passport, the doorkesper sug-

HOLIDAYS. No man can be thoroughly depraved so long as he takes a holiday. It is something the thief cannot steel, the tax collector cannot appraise, the portly usprer cannot shave and the avaricious

The following dislogue is reported from Brome after the defeat of the Boott Act

Rummy-"Well, how do you feel now ?"

Temperance worker-"Oh, I feel pretty much as Lazarus did at the rich man's by the brewers' money on pink saucers.

HERE'S A GOOD TIP, GIRLS. Wille Wishington-Those clouds are beautiful, aren't they ? So soft and fleecy, white, resting on that pinkish western sky Clorinda Wildhopes-O, how lovely | For ill the world like a lot of vanilla ice cream

Willie-Um-er-um-er-um; think business strictly private and confidential At residence in evenings.

few days before the ceremony and have the matter explained. Private office. All

How to Dye Them So That

CARPET RAGS.

They Will Never Fade.

Fast Diamond Dyes. There are some twelve fast and special colors for cotton. while for wool there are about thirty. It is impossible to get satisfactory colors on both wool and cotton with the same die although the makers of some chesp dies, that are able to make only a few colors, claim their dyes will color both cotton and wool. A trial soon sho we by ruined goods the falsity of such claims. Use nothing

-THB-CANADA

Guelph.

Waters Bros.

Artists' Goods

Manufacturers of

DON'T PAIL TO SEE Geo. Stovel's

MILL ST. - ACTON.

J. SHABP, Principal.

for Thought.

direct from the makers so that you have no "His ideal is so impossibly high," money foolishly or gossiping."

And in his secret soul he wondered said it was all nonsense keeping a gir when I was so fond of housework. So she has gone." "But are you fond of housework?"

"That I should like to ask you for little money," faltered Milly. "Money I" he schood in surprise. Does n't Dudley give you all you want?" Once more Milly hesitated.

Dadley doesn's give you a regular allow-"No, papa," said Milly, lifting her And I can tell you pape, because you are law.

"Very kind indeed !"- Chicago Times

The man looked up and said :

ong and narrow grave?"

"Go on, you silly old fossil! I'm laying educational point of view, and financially, the unhappy insect and dropped him on a your persistent request, as I can prove by yelled its approval, but suddenly became

"Why mamma, I'll soon be Johney Don't," and the baby's sweet face had gested that they procure one from any senato. "But we do not know any senator." "Well, that is much to your oredit," said the door-keeper. "Pass right in, ladies." money you get the more such people there liable. That's the gol lon rate of business. THE STILL HOUR. sun bespeakes his praise. Day exhibits his splendor. Night displays his beauty. The lightning's flash, the thunder's roar, the air's balmy fragrance, the redelance of shrubs, the sparkling dewdrops, the gorgeous rainbow, the melody of the birds, the make big money. In fact, no other "My man, for whom diggest thou thi it is all that can be desired.

And distant hills are softly blue With shadows from the clouds, And chilly is the dowy dusk, And white with mist the morn, listen for a little volce-Upon a billook all day long

A wandering urinstel-so they say-

When Mrs. Daniel Wheeler, of Hill sburg, Out , presented her husb and with a pair of ringularly happens that the fathers, Dan into the our and oalled out in his peculiarly penetrating voice: "Wan't seat on the roight! Sit closer on the roight ladies an

Johnnie was delighted. That was so much | she was burnt alive, although she might Rommy-"And how is that ?" Temperance Worker-"Ob. as though had been licked by the rich man's pupples."

Clorinda-How nice of you to suggest it. Whatever put such a delightful idea in your TO THOSE ABOUT TO MARRY Young men or old men who intend to marry will be pleased to learn that the new Marriage Act is made quite simple by applying to H. P. Moore, issuer of marriage licenses, at the FREE PRESS Office. Call a not fade, one should be sure to get the but the Diamond Dyes that have been

To color wool or cotton rage so they will used in millions of homes for the l twenty years.

· Whose fortune was lals song, Among the silken tassels died When days were bright and long, And in the nearest living thing His soul again was born, In waning Summers still to sing A cricket in the corn . - Minna Irving. TWINS ALL ROUND.