Another Painfully Injured Fingers. Mr. Carl Williams, who has played a winning game of Lacrosse throughout the season as a player on the Crescent lacrosse club, has suffered intensly during the past week from injuries sustained by his right index finger. The finger was injured in the Waterloo game, and each successive match gave it additional bruises, until last week it became so painful and swollen that Mr. Williams was unable to work or sleep. The severe treatment of the doctor gave relief and the injured member is now doing fairly well.

Provincial Sunday School Convention. The annual convention of the Provincial Sunday School Association is being held at Galt this week.
