The Young Folks.

NEVER!

Never utter a word of slang. Never shut the door with a bang. Never say once that you don't care. Never say you are not well. Never lose your temper. Never give a liquor touch. Never wickedly play the spy. Never, oh never tell lies. Never your parents disobey. Never at night neglect to pray.

WHY HE WAS IN PRISON.

An old whitewasher stood before the court as a witness. The lawyer for the defendant tried to confuse him.

"Are you James Miller?"

"Yes."

"Are you the James Miller who was sentenced under mitigating circumstances for robbery?"

"No."

"Are you, perhaps, the Miller who was sentenced to two years' imprisonment for theft, then?"

"I am not that Miller, either."

"Were you ever in prison?"

"Yes; twice."

"How long the first time?"

"One afternoon."

"One afternoon? And the second time?"

"You must make a truthful statement, for you are a sworn witness. If you were in prison for so short a time, what did you do?"

"I whitewashed a cell for a lawyer who cheated his clients."

The lawyer did not ask any more questions on that subject.

DON'T PUT SALT ON THE WALKS.

The following, taken from an exchange, will be useful to citizens of Acton as well as of many other towns: "It is a fact not generally understood that salt destroys a cement walk in shorter time than anything else known. The salt eats into cement and destroys the original surface, leaving it rough and uneven. It is claimed by those in a position to know, that this is responsible for the poor condition of a number of walks. Residents sometimes sprinkle salt on them in winter to slow the ice. In the spring they find the surface eaten away, and blame the man who laid the walk. Fine sand will answer the purpose as well, and leave the walk unimpaired."

THE YOUTH'S COMPANION FOR 1900.

The regular issue of the Youth's Companion for October 19th is the annual Announcement Number, and contains a full illustrated prospectus of the contributors and contributions already engaged for 1900. The list of writers embraces many of America's most famous soldiers and sailors, while statesmen, scholars, travelers and gifted story-writers of both sides of the Atlantic will vie in the enrichment of the Companion's pages during the new year. New subscribers who send their subscriptions now will receive free this year's November and December issues from the time of subscription.

THE GOOSE DID IT.

The Watertown Times says that the spectacle of a horse grazing in a front yard while a goose kept him from straying by holding the halter, did not attract as much as it would if the goose had not been a "hallo's goose," weighing about twenty pounds.

Is the baby too thin? Does he increase too slowly in weight? Are you in constant fear he will be ill? Then give him more flesh. Give him more power to resist disease. He certainly needs a fat-forming food. Scott's Emulsion is just that food. It will make the baby plump; increase the weight; bring color to the cheeks, and prosperity to the whole body. Thin children take to it as naturally as they do to their milk.

IN A POWDER MILL.

The danger buildings of a powder mill are themselves so constructed that not a nail head or iron in any shape is exposed, and the roofs are made slight, so as to give easy vent to explosion. The garrets of such mills are covered with canvas, and the workers are hooded, so that they cannot carry knives or matches, or indeed anything, and are made of non-inflammable material. Even the buttons must not be metal. No one is allowed to go about with trousers turned up at the bottom, because they are liable to catch fire. The most careful attention is given to the charge of gunpowder is fraught with danger. The entrances to danger buildings are protected by boards placed edgewise, so that when the door is open nothing in the shape of dirt can work in. This also serves as a check to any one who might thoughtlessly proceed to enter without having first removed his boots and put on the oversalls that are kept just inside the door. Doors are made to open outward, so as to enable them to escape the more readily, and on the approach of a thunder storm the works are stopped and the operatives repair to the different watch houses scattered over the 800 acres covered by these extensive works.

Every week the machinery is inspected, and the repairs as to its condition are promptly made. In the case of danger buildings needing to be repaired it must first be washed out before a hammer or other iron tool is admitted to it. When artificial light is required, as when working at night or in dull weather, the lights are kept outside, being placed on the window sashes. In the case of the works magazine, which is surrounded with water, no light of any kind is ever permitted near it. These are only a few of the precautions against accidents at the works. They are sufficient, however, to show how lively must be the sense of danger. Men in powder houses are always arranged plan of escape in their minds and at the least unexpected noise have not hesitated to plunge into the canal.

THE FUTURE OF COPPER.

Electrical engineers are at present very much exercised over the future of the copper supply of the world. Experiments are being conducted with a view of finding some metal as suitable for electrical purposes but so far nothing has been discovered that can replace copper. In the meantime the price of copper has gone up and investors who have bought shares in copper mines are making big profits. The impetus the gold mining industry has received in Canada should soon be reflected in copper mining. Recent discoveries of copper on the north shore of Lake Superior and the Georgian Bay are very promising and there is no reason why Canada should not soon rank as a big copper producing country. The Superior Gold & Copper Co., Ltd., is opening up some valuable copper properties on Lake Superior, with a show-up, it is said, equal to the Calumet & Hecla that has paid over sixty millions in dividends. Messrs. Corrie & Kitley, Brokers, Toronto, are making a special offering of shares in this Company and will send any information asked for.

THE GOOD HEALTH

Promised by Paine's Celery Compound.

Nothing Vague or Indefinite About Results.

There is nothing indefinite about the kind of "good health" that is promised by Paine's Celery Compound and that is so strongly vouched for by letters that come from our best people. Paine's Celery Compound among other blessings gives firmer and stronger nerves, perfect circulation, complete digestion, clear complexion, sweeter breath and more regular bodily functions. These blessings are always secured by Paine's Celery Compound when other remedies fail.

It is foolish and criminal to neglect daily aches, pains and the unmistakable symptoms of dangerous disease, when it is well known that a few bottles of Paine's Celery Compound will completely banish every trouble and give a condition of health that guarantees a long and happy life.

Every man or woman whose nervous strength is overtaxed, or whose life is a constant struggle with rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica, or any other ailment, will soon feel the invigorating and vitalizing effects of one or two bottles of Paine's health-giver, and see his or her health improve after the first dose of this greatest of all remedies.
