LITTLE LOCAL BRIEFLISTS

Which Caught the Eyes, or Ears of Free Press Readers this week

Nineteen hundred.
Indifferent lighting yet.

New for another year's business.

Bom blizzard weather this week.

Well, the election, and the agony over.

The holiday entertainments are pretty well over now.

The new council will meet for organization next Monday at 8 o'clock.

A fine new library has just been selected for Knox Church Sunday School.

There was quite a batch of weddings during the Christmas and New Year's holidays.

Hilton Sunday School Convention in Action, Thursday and Friday, 1st and 2nd February.

Found on the street, a key ring and chain, with several keys. Lover may have it at office.

The election is over for another year. Good men have been elected and good men suffered defeat.

In the snow which fell New Years Night had accumulated where it fell there would no be excellent sleighing.

The first meeting of the new School Board will be held on Wednesday evening, 17th inst., at seven o'clock, for organization.

The long session of the Public School for 1900 commenced yesterday. There are 191 teaching days before the summer vacation.

Our old friend and former citizen Richard Hamilton, was elected as Councilor in Erin Village on Monday at the head of the poll.

The annual meeting of the Expressing Agricultural Society will be held in the town hall, Georgetown, on Wednesday, the 10th Jan. 1900, at 1 p. m., to elect officers and receive the treasurer's report etc.

The Pass Paxos has arrived with Hergt, Moore and Gould and occasional correspondence descriptive of their voyage experiences on the field and environments at the seat of war in South Africa. Both have previously written for these columns and their letters while on other expeditions have been read with interest.

The annual meeting of the Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist Church, met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John McNaughton, on the 21st of December. President, Mrs. James Moore; Vice-Pres. Mrs. Jennie Smith; Secretary, Mrs. Duncan McDonald; Treasurer, Mr. John Agnew.

On New Year's morning the Xmas Decorating boys decorated their many parades in town with a pretty calendar, which all seemed to appreciate. It is printed in seven colors, on card intended to resemble in color and texture the new Khaki uniforms adopted by the British troops in South Africa. The glorious old flag "which has bravely 'thousand years' the battle and the brawns" occupies a prominent position. The carriers are very graceful for the general tokens bestowed and regular delivery of the home paper through storm and sunshine during the past year.

LAST ACT OF 1899'S COUNCIL.
