

BALD SPOTS

With help, a bald spot grows smaller. It keeps spreading until at last your friends say, "How bald he is getting."

Not easy to cure an old baldness, but easy to stop the first thinning. Easy to check the first falling out. Used in time.

AYER'S Hair Vigor

It stops falling, promotes growth, and takes out all dandruff. It always restores color to faded or gray hair, all the dark, rich color of early life. You may depend upon it every time. It brings health to the hair.

11.00 a bottle. All druggists.

I have used your Hair Vigor and am greatly pleased with it. It has made my hair grow again and has started to grow again. I have used it for several months and it has done me good. I have used it for several months and it has done me good. I have used it for several months and it has done me good.

Write the Doctor. If you send a photo of the bald spot, we will send you a bottle of the Vigor free of charge. Write to J. C. Hill, 1000 St. James Street, Montreal, P. Q.

The Young Folks.

THE CANADIAN WINTER.

Of snowflakes! What frolic on the snow! Oh! for all those who had been with me! Here comes a race for every wind that blows! And starting of the flag that over the snow! Much less the children of their father's home! When challenged by a snowflake of snow! They ran the race of King's badge notes. The laurel of our lady of the flowers.

—H. M. McLean, in Canadian Magazine.

HEAVY RESPONSIBILITY.

The "peculiar difficulties" which beset the young man, involved, have inspired many an anecdote.

"It's a point on the 'Owl Country' side," said a frazzled-looking individual to the editor of a weekly newspaper in a large town, "I've been 'told' you'll take it off me."

"What is your address?" inquired the editor.

"That depends entirely on you, sir," responded the man with a cheerful smile.

"Depends on me!" echoed the editor.

"What do you mean?"

"If you take the job of point, sir, my address will still be 'Owl Country' side," replied the man, "but if you don't take it, my address will be 'Owl Country' side, but if you don't take it, my address will be 'Owl Country' side."

STRANGE DISCOVERY.

Nature has a beautiful habit of adapting herself to circumstances and conditions, wherever that is possible. If she is checked and hindered in one direction, she tries to become more vigorous in another.

An English author says that a man of middle age, with a weak constitution, found one of his eyes affected, as he thought by reading small print at night and applied to a famous oculist for advice. The doctor examined him very carefully and pronounced his impression from the other eye—the right one.

"None whatever," was the reply.

"Still," said the oculist, "it is very important for you to preserve the sight of your left eye, inasmuch as you have never exercised your left eye since you were born."

Worms dangerous.

Don't forget it, mother—worms are dangerous. They stick the life out of your child. The only safe and reliable remedy is Dr. Low's Pleasant Worm Syrup.

When we love it is the heart that judges. For internal or external use Hayward's Yellow Oil cannot be excelled as a pain reliever and soothing remedy for all pains.

The direction of the mind is more important than its progress.

Milburn's Hitting Headache Powders are easy to take, harmless in action and sure to cure any headache in from five to twenty minutes.

What the conversation wanted in wit was made up in laughter.

Doctors now agree that consumption is curable. The things, if taken together, will cure nearly every case in the first stages; the majority of cases more advanced; and a few of those far advanced.

The first is, fresh air; the second, proper food; the third, Scott's Emulsion of cod-liver oil with hypophosphites.

To be cured, you must not lose in weight, and, if thin, you must gain. Nothing equals Scott's Emulsion to keep you in good flesh.

IN ONE WORD.

A few words are sometimes more telling than a long harangue. So thought Miss Pheny Grey, who remarked that, "for her part, she couldn't see how folks fell to sleep away their words, in many a case, and she said her mother Light, with which she lived, were indeed a saving last. Elizabeth, however, was not wise in her opinion, while Miss Pheny knew just where to save her choice words. "Light" her "harangue" were seldom regarded as such by her, and she was frequently obliged to "keep a tight rein on her tongue, lest she should say something to anger him."

On one occasion Elizabeth bought a load of wood sheep, from a man who had the reputation of being rather sharp. It proved—as Miss Pheny forwarded her brother that it would—most unprofitable; but having said her say once, she was not a person to retrace it.

"One cold day Elizabeth came into the living room and found Miss Pheny sitting in front of the fire-place, in which some of the logs of her purchase were cheerfully crackling. There was no such steady, comfortable blaze as he had been accustomed to see.

"Well, Pheny," he said, with an attempt at gaiety, "are you so well?"

"The house was built by my great-grandfather, and my great-grandfather was a very good man, and my great-grandfather was a very good man, and my great-grandfather was a very good man."

"Well, Pheny," said Miss Pheny, drawing her shawl a little closer about her, "it is a very good man, and my great-grandfather was a very good man, and my great-grandfather was a very good man."

"Faith, ma'am, and the shores of Old Ireland is not wrong."

HIGH COLORED.

Prevention, even when indulged in from patriotic motives, is not only improper but dangerous.

The house was built by my great-grandfather, and my great-grandfather was a very good man, and my great-grandfather was a very good man, and my great-grandfather was a very good man."

"I suppose, Mr. O'Connell, that you are not accustomed to this dish in your country?"

O'Connell's Highland pig was tooled.

"Lobsters is it, ma'am?" said he.

"Faith, ma'am, and the shores of Old Ireland is not wrong."

ONE ADVANTAGE.

People who have found themselves "stuffed" will appreciate the following, borrowed from the New York Weekly.

Two traps were preparing to spend the night in the "Tavern" on the pier which had been left for some reason by the roadside.

"I say, Mike," said the first one, as he crawled in, "this ain't quite so warm as a palace cap."

"No," said Mike; "but there's inside room."

Better stop that cough now with a few doses of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup than let it run on to end perhaps in bronchitis, pneumonia or consumption. It's a wonderful long-acting remedy that cures the worst kinds of coughs and colds when others fail.

BEYOND COMPARISON.

There is Nothing in the World so Superior in Curative Value as With Dr. Von Stan's Pineapple Tablets for Dyspepsia.

Vegetable pills are the most valuable constituents in the pineapple. Having the digestive juices of the human system, no other article or product has the power to digest all kinds of food, except vegetable pills. The general health would be benefited by the use of these pills every day, but hardly one person in a thousand could do so because of the trouble and expense of getting them when out of season.

Dr. Von Stan's Pineapple Tablets have all the virtues of the fruit; they are equally made up of the pineapple's pulp and juice. They cure dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. Box of sixty tablets, 25 cents. Sold by A. T. Brown.

STRANGE APPLICATIONS.

The Salvation Army has in London a bureau of information where ladies may obtain—gratis and through the usual employment agencies—any kind of work. It is a bureau of information where ladies may obtain—gratis and through the usual employment agencies—any kind of work.

Strange applications come to the office. One lady recommended her departing servant as "clean, tidy, honest, sober, truthful and a good worker." Wondering why and where she should put under these conditions the bureau found that a terrible bad temper was the cause of the separation.

"But strangely enough," said the chief, "it happened that a lady had just applied to us for a servant with a bad temper, believing that such girls make the slightest household life."

500 ACRES FOR MY HEALTH.

Mr. M. Begner, of Kootenai, Mich., says: "For seven years I had suffered from biliousness and constipation. I tried all kinds of cure but got no relief until I used Dr. Agnew's Liniment. One application did more for me than any remedy I had ever tried. I have been such a sufferer that I would willingly give my 500 acres of land with the return of my suffering from these troubles." 33 cents. Use Dr. Agnew's Liver Pills for Liver Ills. 20 cents.

How to be Healthy in Winter.

Winter is a trying time for most people—especially so for delicate ones. Colds, a gripe, and pneumonia find their easy victims. Do you catch cold easily? It shows that your system is not in a condition to resist disease. You will be fortunate if you escape pneumonia.

Nature is always fighting against disease. The right kind of medicine is the kind that helps Nature by toning up the system and enabling it to resist disease. Such a tonic is only found in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. By building up the blood and strengthening the nerves, these pills reach the root of disease, restore health, and make people bright, active and strong.

It is never other people's opinions, that dispense us, but only the desire they sometimes show to impose them upon us against our will.
