SUSPICIOUS COUNTRYMEN

"The danger of being 'foo gait' is not a new thing," said a man in the Detroit Free Press. "I have seen an old man from the country, whose reading had made him a little suspicious of every people, who was a great deal more suspicious of the people of this city than he was of his own."

"You are a suspicious man," said a man in the Detroit Free Press. "I have seen an old man from the country, whose reading had made him a little suspicious of every people, who was a great deal more suspicious of the people of this city than he was of his own."
