LITTLE LOCAL BRIEFLETS

Which Caught the Eyes or Ears of Free Press Reporters this week?

—Aah Wednesday—oest Wednesday.

—Drover Holmes is shipping two cars of stock this week.

—Knox Church anniversary services will be held on Sabbath, Feb. 25th.

—Actor Cornet band will give a concert in the town hall on Friday evening, Feb. 25th.

—Baptist Major School, of South Africa, will occupy the pulpit of the Methodist Church next Sunday evening.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Murray, of Erin, entertained about forty young ladies and gentlemen from Aton last Wednesday, a delightful time was past.

—Tidings from local correspondence and well-wishers, letters regarding the proposal to establish a market here are unavoidably crowded out this week, but will appear in next week's paper.

—The Burlington Gazette has passed its first milestone and last week entered upon its second volume. The Gazette shows evidences of progress and prosperity and is a very worthy representative of Burlington.

—The annual meeting of the Aton Branch Little Society will be held in the new Baptist Church to-morrow evening at eight o'clock. Rev. Wm. Walsh, rector of the Anglican Church, Brampton, will deliver the annual address.

—A patriotic concert under the auspices of the Sons of Columbia will be given in the town hall on Monday evening, Feb. 25th.

—First-class talent, including Miss Jessie McMillan and Miss Harvey, will take part.

The entire proceeds, less expenses, will be devoted to the Patriotic Fund.

—Diagonal is "the better part of business." The discreet merchant does not depend upon his powers of speech to attract custom, but upon the up-to-date, well-prepared advertisement, which speak convincingly to an ever-increasing clientele. The merchant who advertises in Diagonal gives constant evidence of this character.

—No feature has for years attracted the crowds or pleased them as his vibrant Major School. He is certainly a wonderful personage. For over two hours each evening he held his audience spell-bound. His Bauday address on mission work in Africa was greatly enjoyed.

—A zealous pastor under the auspices of the Sons of Columbia will be given in the town hall on Monday evening, Feb. 25th.

—First-class talent, including Miss Jessie McMillan and Miss Harvey, will take part.
