LITTLE LOCAL BRIEFLETS

Which Caught the Eyes or Ears o
Free Press Reporters this week.

The first day of "Windsor".
The Lenten season opened yesterday.

One-sixth of 1900 has run through the hour glass.

Good evening! Have you reviewed for the Free Press?

Songs of Canadian patriotic Concert next Monday evening.

Last Thursday's big snow fall has given very good sleighing since.

Put the Patriotic Concert in your plans for next Monday evening.

After two or three weeks of windy weather spring will begin to be evidenced.

Action Concert Band invited your partrouge at their concert to-morrow evening.

Action citizens want a market, the Free Press will help agitate for it—Oakville Star.

There is a greater depth of snow now than at any previous date the present winter.

Miss McCollum revisited at St. David's Church, Campbellville, last Friday evening.

The flag has been flying on the town hall since Tuesday in honor of the capture of Crows.

Rev. H. A. Macpherson preached in the Presbyterian Church at Union last Sunday afternoon.

Secure a ticket for the Patriotic Concert Monday night at Gurney & Co's. or Kenney Bros' stores.

Owing to the patriotic concert on Monday night the drama's meeting will be postponed till Tuesday evening.

The business of the Canada Cleve Works is booming. Orders up to date aggregate $10,000 more than the time last year.

Mr. Wm. Hemmest has been appointed local agent for the Norwich Union Fire Ins. Co., the old and successful English Company.

Owing to the anniversary services in Knox Church next Sunday the evening service of the Methodist Church will be withdrawn.

Milton with a population of about 1400, has seven lawyers, all in actual practice. Least this you can—Milton Reformer. Poor Milton.

A sleight-of-hand young people drove over from Corwain Tuesday evening to spend a few hours at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Terton. Their most enjoyable time was spent by all.

Mr. H. H. Moody, author of the book "The Canadian Church," delivered, for a couple of weeks, His Lecture on Church Life, well received last Sunday by Rev. J. A. Macpherson, M. A., and next Sunday Rev. H. A. Macpherson will preach.

Mr. Macpherson, of Woodstock, has been in Ontario during the past two weeks investigating with a view to the establishment of a cemetery here. Much solicitude would be of genuine benefit to the farmers within a radius of five miles.

To Those About To Marry.

Young men or old men who intend to marry will be pleased to learn that the new Marriage Act is made quite simple by applying to H. P. Morris, issuer of marriage licenses, at the Free Press Office. Call a few days before the ceremony and have the master "captained." Private office. All business strictly private and confidential.

At residence in evenings.

THE NEWS AT HOME.

Monty of a Local Character, and every item interesting.

Rev. Mr. McAlpine at Guelph.
Rev. W. H. McAlpine, B. A., spent several days last week assisting Rev. Mr. Merrill, Guelph, in special services. The Guelph Herald says of him: "Mr. McAlpine's presentation of gospel truth is strong, clear and effective, and his singing adds greatly to the enjoyment of the service."

A New Idea For Socials.

A new novel idea for church socials, and that too, of its usefulness we give the method. Every who attends is required to earn a dollar in some extraordinary way, and on that evening when they have earned it, the expenses are often funny, ingenious and very interesting, frequently showing new schemes for labor and profit never dreamed of before.

Anniversary Services in Knox Church.

The fourth anniversary services of the present church building will be observed in Knox Church, Saturday, Feb. 25, with fitting services. Dean A. H. Thompson, with his organ, will be the soloist.

Arrangements were made for the annual anniversary services to be held on the anniversary of the consecration of the church. The services will be held at the new Methodist Church, on the opening service was held in the new Methodist Church, outside of the little Society whose object was the spread of the scriptures.
