EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Ottawa Free Press says: "If the course of his remarks on Mr. Pitt's resolution, the member for Halton, Mr. Headon, said that it was probably the last time he would have the opportunity of speaking in Parliament on the subject."

The Ontario Government has decided to organize a Labor Bureau for the diffusion of necessary information to mechanics and working men generally respecting the labor market, the settlement of disputes as to wages, hours of work, etc. This Bureau will no doubt prove of great value to the laboring classes.

The bill passed by the Provincial Legislature, providing for the regulation of the width of wagon-tires, is an important one. It will prohibit all vehicles which shall carry a burden of 2000 pounds (loaded with three less than that) inclusive. It cannot be denied that narrow-tires are largely responsible for many of the many road accidents on some of our highways. They cut right into the roadway, where a wide tire would run smoothly over the surface. The new act does not come into force for a year.

The tendency of the times with reference to subscriptions is evidenced in the following paragraph which appeared in last issue of the Toronto Junction Leader and Recorder: "The Fifty Cent subscription rate has proved a failure, in view of advancing prices of subs. We, therefore, propose to raise postage, etc., we, beg to give notice that no subscriptions to The Leader and Recorder will be accepted at less than one dollar per year in advance, or $1.50 when not so paid, on and after May 1st, 1920. We have given the Fifty Cent rate a trial for two successive years, and we frankly confess it is a failure. The experiment has at least given us a large amount of valuable experience, but the experience has been purchased at too great a cost."

The hopeful sign shown by the session's work on the liberal side is the position of John R. Barber, M. P. P., in choosing the line of action to be taken by the Canadian Pacific Railway Company to live up to its agreement and the activity of G. F. Graham, M. P. P., against the attempt to turn Young Street into a railway right of way. The member for Halton and the member for Brockville were true to the best interests of the Liberal party. Justice is politically good politics. It would be well for the country, the Government, and the Liberal party [Mr. Graham and Mr. Barber took the hit in their seats] on more questions and if there were more Liberals like them to do the same—Toronto Telegram.

A leading writer in the daily press suggests the following methods of improving the roads throughout the province: Acquisition of State Roads; Government appropriation for the construction and maintenance of country roads; authorizing County Councils to pass by-laws regulating width of tires on wagons and carts, according to schedules laid down by the Legislature; doing away with the necessity of obtaining the consent of the township council before the county council can take over a township road; making provisions for favorable arrangements with the railways for the carrying of gravel and stone; Government loans to municipalities for road or street improvements at the lowest rate of interest, with repayment extended over a term of years.

The annual report of the Postmaster-General has been received. The following particulars respecting the business of our post offices of our County will be found interesting:

There is no reason why business in Hamilton is $114,270.21. In this department the business of Acton, Georgetown, Milton and Oakville is remarkably close in the several amounts. The postal revenue in each of these towns is also similar in the several amounts, being over $2000 each in each case. Georgetown leading by a few hundred. The salaries, commissions and allowances to the several postmasters are also a study.

The zealous friends of the politicians in this good county of Halton will be very clear about engaging in the usual and corrupt practices in future elections. In the past members of Parliament elected by both the popular vote and by the ballot have been unseated for their corrupt acts. Until the trials last week, however, the fines and sentences imposed have evidently not been so serious as to result in deterring a repetition of the offences against the Act. In future, no doubt, the mailed will regard in a more serious light and the gravity of the offence in the eyes of the law and of right thinking people will begin to be fully realized. When the corruption of the electorate is likely to be followed by disfranchisement for only a decade, those who a few years ago confidently foolishly did so can sit back and assume the right.

The dues imposed in this case were clearly within the power of the election law, and the imposition of them will never please electorate in Halton in the days to come.

The most extensive fire that has ever occurred in Canada took place in Hull and Ottawa last Thursday, and entailed the annihilation of some three thousand homes.

Spring
and
Summer Weakness

Lord Roberts' Forces Under Gen.
Hamilton are Marching Northward—A Big Battle Expected.

CANADIANS BEHAVING LIKE VETERANS.

As spring advances a weaker and delicate body seems to sit on the strong and delicate alike. The circulation is sluggish on account of the exhausted nerve forces, and the heart is poor in quality and deficient in power. The blood is thin and watery, the pulse is slow and weak, the respiration is rapid. There is a general running down of the system. The stomach is disordered and the appetite poor, the bowels are sluggish, the liver becomes fatigued and there is a lack of energy and ambition which renders work of any kind a burden. It is not strong drugs or purgatives which are required, but a quiet rest and a quiet diet to strengthen that is required but a food to nourish the nerve centers and enrich the blood.

VERY INTERESTING.

Read the large advertisement of Thomas O'Brien, Esq., of Ottawa, in this issue. The advertisement deals with Carpets and Home Furnishings, a very timely topic now that the season has fairly arrived when every household is so much occupied with the spring housecleaning. This firm has one of the largest and most complete showrooms in the city of Hull, of 16,000 thousand inhabitants were the Roman Catholic Church, the sulphite mill and two or three hundred small houses and stores extending in a strip fringe around the eastern, northern and western boundaries to Hull. The bare stone walls of the dozen mills and warehouses of the Eddy Co. remained standing.

The fire was started in the kitchen of the Eddy Co. and spread rapidly to nearly all the buildings in that vicinity were of frame—it was only a few minutes with the prevailing high wind, when a large tree was in the fire field's grasp.

"Contributions of cash, clothing, food and household goods are pouring in from all parts of the country, and a well-organized relief committee is dispensing relief to the twelve thousand homeless people.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS.

Mr. James Waldis, blacksmith, one of Milton's old residents, died last week after a prolonged illness.

If Milton gets the coveted carpet factory from Port Hope the town will have to pay Port Hope $400 fine.

HEART PALPITATION.

A QUEBEC LADY RELEASED FROM GREAT SICKNESS.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the best in the five departments at the Junction.
