LITTLE LOCAL BRIEFLETS

Which Caught the Eyes of Many of Free Press Reporters this week.

—Summer has come.

—June roses and June weddings.

—Strawberry shortcake is popular this week.

—It is reported that wages are being increased at the tanneries.

—The public schools close for the long summer vacation from tomorrow.

—A young man from South Ontario passed through Acton on Tuesday to the Model Farm, Guelph.

—Sports services will be held in St. Joseph's Church on Friday and Saturday evenings of this week.

—The sacrament of baptism will be administered in Knox Church next Sunday at the morning service.

—District No. 11, Lawn Tennis Association, consists of Acton, Milton, Georgetown, Guelph and Brampton.

—All the justices of the peace in the county made only seven convictions during the quarter ending June 1st.

—Rev. J. A. MacLachlan, M. A., will preside at the closing exercises of the parsonage in the Methodist Church next Sunday at the morning service.

—Rev. J. A. MacLachlan, M. A., will preside at the closing exercises of the parsonage in the Methodist Church next Sunday at the morning service.

—A large number of Yacht Club subscriptions expire with the present month, renewal in each case will be much appreciated.

—Children who visit Fairview Cemetery unaccompanied by their parents are liable to get into trouble. This is forbidden by cemetery rules.

—Guelph City Council has been filled with accounts agreeing some $2000 for damages to private property by the publicans on Pretoria night.

—Next Sunday is review day in the Sunday Schools. The various schools will welcome the attendance of parents and friends of the scholars.

—The House of Holland garden party at Guelph last Friday night was quite a success. The address of Rev. H. A. Macpherson was much enjoyed.

—Mr. A. O. Beardmore has kindly forwarded the five Urge tickets for $10 to all them in their price list at the garden party next Tuesday evening.

—The evening service of Knox Church has been withdrawn for next Sunday evening to permit the congregation to hear Rev. Mr. MacLachlan's farewell sermon.

—A meeting of all interested in the philanthropic work of providing free hospital treatment of consumptives among the poor of the province, will be held in the Council Chamber this evening, to perfect the organization recently effected.

—There may be a smaller and more despicable type of meanness than that of throwing broken glass in the street to cause a bicycle tire puncture, and indirectly to injure the feet of the barefoot bairns, but it has not been catalogued yet.

—The mines must be delighted with the very excellent results displayed at our church service. The choir of the Methodist church really excelled themselves this day evening. The other choirs are also improving. —Georgetown Herald, Acton Co.

—Those who contumaciously purchasing immovable property of any description, for their comely place should direct from the old reliable granite and marble dealer, J. H. Hamilton, Guelph, Ont. All expenses allowed to purchasers. All work and material warped, competition denied.

THE NEWS AT HOME.

Mostly of a Local Character, and every item interesting.

A certain minister during his discourse upon a recent Sabbath morning said: "In each blade of grass there is a sermon." The following day one of his flock discovered the good man pushing the lawn mower about his yard, and paused to say: "Well, parson, I'm glad to see you out with your sermon's shovels."

Public School Examinations.

The annual examinations in Action Public School take place to-morrow afternoon. The principal and staff unite in extending a hearty invitation to all parents and friends of schoolchildren. The departments will be open to the public. The High School Entrance candidates go to Georgetown next Wednesday for the examinations. Action Public School will send a class of twenty-one.
