

FALLING HAIR

Dose this illustrate your experience? And are you worried for fear you are soon to be bald?

Then cease worrying, for help is at hand. You need something that will put new life into the hair bulbs.

You need a hair food, such as—

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR

It brings health to the hair, and the falling ceases.

It always restores color to gray hair. You need not look at thirty as if you were fifty, for your gray hair may have again all the dark, rich color of youth.

$1.00 a bottle. All drogues.

I am a hair by trade and have a great deal to do with your hair. I will do everything that you claim will help. I will give you complete satisfaction in my business. Write me.

March 22, 1898. MARY CITY, Mo.

Write for the Standard.

For more details, write to the address, Mrs. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Mass.

The Acton Free Press.

THURSDAY, JULY 10th, 1900.

The Young Folks.

YOUTHFUL MAYNAY.

"Mamm, I find I am not well." "I am very much better." "The best thing is to sleep." Neglected on the table.

Her simplet checks with roses red; Her eyes were resplendent; The crimson of my faith faded;— My darling had dissolved.

"I'm sorry, dear," I gravely said; "I'm sorry, dear, for your readings; The plain foglock holds it in; With no such good things."

She thoughtfully smoothed out her dress; This wicked little sinner;

"Then I'm not just now, I do; I'll wait till after dinner."

—J. Dennis Quill.

YOU MUCH FOR THE BUTCHER.

A colored man, Nelson, owing a butcher five or six dollars, and after trying in vain to collect the money, the butcher and a friend put their heads together the other night, and laid a plan. At midnight they called at Nelson's house, and he was taken by a loud rap on the window. "Who's there?" he called out.

"Thosell," solemnly replied the butcher. "You is, boy?"

"Yes, I want you."

"What for?"

You refused to pay your butcher, and I want to take you to the bottomless pit!"

"You is?"

"I am. Come forth at once."

"I'm comin'" replied the negro, as he got out of bed. "I cannot pay that six dollars as easy in any other way, and de ole woman is so mighty cross she glad to git away from home."

The butcher and his friend didn't wait for Mr. Nelson to come out.

BLESSINGS OF MONARCHY.

The unconscious humor of the Italian still lives. Last week a band of mice was sitting in Phoenix Park, led to him by a rat, and old, old, old, most gloriously individualized. "God bless the Queen, sir!" said he to my friend, who had just seated the old fellow. "By all means! Hand her, victorious, happy, & glorious!" "That's right, sir! I wish she came to Dublin every year, every month, every day, sir! Think of what's she done for the country; think of all the good she does to people. Why, look at me; here I am, as drunk as a lord, and never paid a penny for it." —London Daily News.

THE TREATMENT THAT FAILED.

"You have been suffering from sleeplessness," said the physician.

"You hit it the first time, don," said the worried-looking patient.

"I don't want to give you any sedatives if I can avoid it. It's a plan that works well sometimes. Just try to picture to yourself another person asleep. You then will feel through suggestion."

"Huh! It is the other fellow's fault that is worrying me. I not so confident that anyone like a busness going through a knot." —Indianapolis Press.

Borrowers are often like clouds which, though black when they are, are passing over us, when they are just as white as if they were the garments of God, thrown on in purple and gold along the sky.

THE MOTHER

with a nursing baby has two lives to support. Her flesh, strength, and vitality are taxed to the utmost, and must be maintained, or both will surely fail.

Scott's Emulsion

will keep up the mother's strength and vitality. It also enriches the baby's nourishment, and supplies the elements necessary for proper growth and development of bones, teeth, and tissue.

and fine, all vegetable. SCOTT & DOWNS, Boston, Mass.

GIVING AND GETTING.

One of life's paradoxes is, that he who gives gets. The way to success is by surrender. They who are most lavish of their own life are the ones into whose lap the world pours the richest treasures. Those who are giving, giving freely, and giving because they are giving. Those who withhold themselves, and in the withholding have grown less and poor. The fat and prosperous soul is the one which is liberal with itself, which offers itself as food and strength to every needy man and cause. There is no secret for greatness like the secret of living—constant and unceasing giving of self-best.

Not they who seek to get—to gather to themselves the world's best things, and find satisfaction—but they who boundlessly offer themselves in sympathy and service to the world, least little, deepest joy.

How young men and young women secure greatest success! Simply by offering themselves on the star of the world's everyday needs. Launched of life, full of character, honor of the honorable, love of all, will onward toward the young person who unselfishly labors to serve man through commonplace days and weary nights... Its ways humble and high, by nature insignificant and great; give up your best talents to all whom you can by any means help, and reward in time and eternity is certain—forward.

WHEN CLARENCE'S TURN CAME.

The late Sir Frank Lockwood was defending a man accused of swindling in an eloquent personal attack of his much-injured client as an angel of light. When Sir Frank had finished his speech his client whispered that he wanted to shake hands with him. "When first I met you," said the man, "you were paying your bill," said the client. "I grumbled, but since I have been listening to you I have come to the conviction that the money was well spent, and I apologize. That half-grown lad of yours has done me good. It is many years since I have experienced the luxury of having a good time."

"Oh, that's all right," said Sir Frank finally, "but you take my advice and go out of resort." Sir Edward Clarke, the man on the other side, is just going to speak—"Now New York.

Write for the Standard.

For more details, write to the address, Mrs. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Mass.

The Old Reliable Remedy for Diarrhea and Dysentery.

Grandma Mrs. Thos. Sherlock, Arnprior, Ont., recently wrote:

Used It.—"My little girl, three years ago, was taken ill with diarrhea and dysentery, and we thought we were going to lose her when I remembered that my grandmother always had Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry to help her in similar cases. I gave a bottle and gave it to the child, and after the third dose she began to get well and slept well that night. She improved right along and was soon completely cured."

Misfortune is never unusual to us, but for such do always see that every cloud is an angel's face. Every misfortune that he has precisely the trials and temptations which are the "hardships of life." Those who have not experienced the agony cannot understand it. My trial was to sit in the bladdar, I used a kind of medicine after another without getting the slightest relief. I thought I would die of course, and death would have been preferable to the torture I was undergoing.

Five months ago I was persuaded to Dr. Arnold's English Toxic Pill's trial. Before I had used three doses the stone was dissolved, and expelled without the least pain. Since then thoroughly cured, thanks to Dr. Arnold's English Toxic Pill, which did for me what no other medicine the market could do."

A. Brown.

Dr. Arnold's English Toxic Pill's, dissolved and expelling the stone, kills the germs to which its presence in the bladder is due, thus preventing the formation of others.

Dr. Arnold's English Toxic Pill's are sold by a druggist, large box 75c, small box 25c, or sent postpaid on receipt of price by The Arnold Chemical Co., Limited, Canada Life Building, 44 King Street West, Toronto.

Puddy—Are you in favor of single tax? Doubt—I, further than that, I would have to tax it.

Hunger is the best sauce,

Yet some people are never hungry. Whatever they eat has to be forced down. There is, of course, something wrong with these people. By taking Hood's Harpeps a short time they are given an appetite and then they enjoy eating, and food carries them. If you find your appetite failing, just try a bottle of Hood's. It is a true stomach tonic and every dose does good.

A sense of fulness is as much a mark of rising ideal as of failing performance.

The best family cathartic is Hood's Pills.

Hill—Are you giving any attention to music now? Jill—I can't help it; we've got eight piano in our flat.

If you are a dyspeptic, take Petty's. If you have a headache, take Petty's. If you have a toothache, take Petty's. If you are nervous, take Petty's. If you are weak, take Petty's. Petty's will take the sick well.

Leave room in your mind for the thoughts to come up to breathe.

Hegel's Yellow Oil.

Can be used externally or taken internally. It cures cuts, burns, bruises, contracted cords, stiff joints, painful swellings, quinsy, sore throat, etc. It is a regular family medicine chest. Price 25c.

To travel is not the privilege of the rich, but of the imaginative.

A Room for Horses.

English Sitzin Liniment removes all hard, soft or matted things or blisters from horses, blood, scald, swelling, etc. It cures hives, scabs, ulcers, water blisters, scalds, etc. They do not grip, weaken or tickle. Small and easy to take. Price 5c.

It is the man who keeps his eyes open to whom opportunity comes.

They Are Not Violent in Action.—House persons, when they wish to cleanse the stomach, resort to Epsom and other purgative salts. These are speedy in action, but serve no permanent good. Their use produces insatiable chills, and if persisted in they injure the stomach. Nor do they upon the intestines is a beneficial way. Parmalee's Vegetable Pills answer all purposes in this respect, and have no effect on the heart.

We are spending thousands to make Petty's Pills known. Our money proves our faults. A trial will secure yours.

The art of life is to know how to enjoy a life and endure much.

Lax-Liver Pill cures biliousness, sick headache, dyspepsia, sour stomach, water brash, colic, etc. It cures biliousness and swelling of the liver. It is a sovereign remedy for all coughs, colds, hoarseness, pain or soreness in the chest, bronchitis, etc. It has cured many when supposed to be far advanced in consumption.

Bitter, sitziness, words that touch the heart then dollars that touch the pain.

To PAYENT Good Ideas may be secured by ourself. Address, THE PAYENT RECORD, Baltimore, Md.

Human nature is so constituted that all shall and judge better in the affairs of other men.

Where others fall, there Dr. Petty's Pills prove their power to cure.

The great secret of eloquence is to be in earnest.

The Horse—nubest of the horse creation—when suffering from a colic, always, deserves as much benefit as its master as a like protagonist, from the healing, soothing action of Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil. Lameness, swelling of the neck, stiffness of the joints, throat and lungs, are relieved by it.

If we grow, shall not we not grow?

For The Overworked.—What are the causes of despondency and melancholy?

A disordered liver is one cause and a prime.

A disorderly liver means a disordered stomach, and a disordered stomach disturbance of the nervous system. This brings the whole body into subjection and the vital forces also all over.

Parmalee's Vegetable Pills are a recognized remedy to stale state, and will follow their主人.

The best way to live is to cast away troubles and contentions which cannot be ended by fretting. In justice to the requirements of the present, you should not look back and make yourself wracked over things that cannot be undone.

Dr. Low's Worm Syrup is a safe, sure and reliable worm expellant. Acts equally well on children or adults. He says you can get Low's.

This flies, flowers crawl, the body disease—character plane is immortal.

Hegel's Yellow Oil cures burns, blisters, sores, wounds, cuts, frostbites, chillblains and stings of insects, burns, scalds, contusions, etc. Price 25c.

It is but the littleness of man that makes greatness in trifles.

Milburn's Shaving Headache Powders cure the worst headache in from five to twenty minutes, and leave no bad effects. One powder 5c, 8 powders 10c, 10 powders 25c.

Happiness does not consist in things, but in thoughts.

Dr. Petty's never fails to give relief, and they cure if given an honest trial.

Our greatest glory is not in never falling but in rising every time we fall.

Bob McCready.

Above is a splendid portrait of Bob McCready, one of the best football players in the country. He is a member of the University team, and is a credit to the school and to his Alma Mater.

He is a splendid specimen of robust Canadian manhood, but strong as he is, he knows what it is to suffer from dyspepsia. He is seriously afflicted with this complaint, and is compelled to give up football.

The moment is the one weak spot in his career.

He was a champion at football, and a fine player.

He is a fine example of what can be done with a man who has lost his

strength.

He is a fine example of what can be done with a man who has lost his

strength.

He is a fine example of what can be done with a man who has lost his

strength.

He is a fine example of what can be done with a man who has lost his

strength.

He is a fine example of what can be done with a man who has lost his

strength.

He is a fine example of what can be done with a man who has lost his

strength.

He is a fine example of what can be done with a man who has lost his

strength.

He is a fine example of what can be done with a man who has lost his

strength.

He is a fine example of what can be done with a man who has lost his

strength.

He is a fine example of what can be done with a man who has lost his

strength.

He is a fine example of what can be done with a man who has lost his

strength.

He is a fine example of what can be done with a man who has lost his

strength.

He is a fine example of what can be done with a man who has lost his

strength.

He is a fine example of what can be done with a man who has lost his

strength.

He is a fine example of what can be done with a man who has lost his

strength.

He is a fine example of what can be done with a man who has lost his

strength.

He is a fine example of what can be done with a man who has lost his

strength.

He is a fine example of what can be done with a man who has lost his

strength.

He is a fine example of what can be done with a man who has lost his

strength.

He is a fine example of what can be done with a man who has lost his

strength.

He is a fine example of what can be done with a man who has lost his

strength.

He is a fine example of what can be done with a man who has lost his strength.

</