THE NEWS AT HOME.

Mostly of a Local Character, and every Item Interesting.
At the Town Courts.

A tennis match with a team from Guelph Tennis Club was arranged to be played on the courts in the park here on Tuesday afternoon. The Guelph team defaulted, however, and the game did not come off. A match with Elora is on the tapas for the near future. Anton Tennis Club has two excellent courts now.

A Good Crop of Apples Forecast.

Mr. George Miller of Burlington Park in the service has been making a tour of the apple districts and says that crop all over the province will be good, except in Grey county and more particularly the northern part of it. Plums will be in general a light crop through on Lake Ontario and around Orillia there will be a good yield. Peaches will be most plentiful than usual.

No Country Experience for Him.

"I think it would be a good plan to send Willies up into this country to his son's nest after a month," suggested Willie's father in his home in Toronto the other day. "He's never been on a farm, and I think he would rather a novel experience for him." "You're right," interrupted Willie. "I'm going all out to get him, and I'm not going anywhere where they have threshing machines. It's bad enough when it's done by hand."

Action Junior H. H. C. at Hillside.

Last Saturday afternoon the Action junior baseball club, the Beavers, journeyed to Hillside to have a game with the seniors of that place. The match was called at about four o'clock and before the commencement it was decided to play only five innings, and at the end of that time the score stood 9 to 17 in favor of the Beavers. The playing was creditable to both teams and the Action team proved themselves to be worthy opponents.

BALLINAFAD.

The crowd of the three-things club is here once more.

Mr. Fred Nease opened the season by threshing his wheat on the new farm he purchased this spring last week.

A number from here attended the firemen's garden party in Georgetown last Friday evening and reported a good time.

The death of Master Wilton Hiles, aged thirteen years, son of Edward and Margaret Hiles, of this place, took place last week while visiting at Weston. Wilton went to Weston to spend his holidays with his brother, Wesley, and while there took very sick, and underwent an operation. He died following a fever for four weeks, which was a favorite with all who knew him and will be missed by his schoolmates. His parents and their family have the deepest sympathy of the community.

Mr. Nicholson, of Orangeville, spent last Sunday at Mr. G. Campbell's.

CHEWSONS CORNERS.

Miss McTavish are the guests on the road this season with their threshing machine. They threshed for Mr. Colin Kitching on Monday. We predict for them a very successful season.

With fine weather the annual garden party on Wednesday night will do but be a grand success as the committee have worked hard and have secured the best talent available. A fuller report will appear next week.

There was a very pretty wedding at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cleave, Elora, on Wednesday, 26th inst., when their oldest daughter Miss Mary A. Cleave was married in marriage to Mr. James Dorn, of Elora. At 80 p. m. the bridegroom dressed in a suit of his own, which was handsomely adorned for the occasion. The bride was handsomely costumed in silver gray crepe trimmed with white silk and valenciennes lace. Miss Grace Cleave, sister of the bride, made a graceful attendant and was prettily attired in white polka dotted muslin trimmed with blue silk ribbon. Her body had not been recovered." Mr. Fred Radpath was about twenty-one years of age and an only son. His mother, Mrs. McTavish, of Toronto, accompanied Mrs. Dorn to the wedding. The bridegroom is a successful architect and engineer, having studied architecture at the University of Michigan and the Royal Institute of British Architects. He is a member of the Royal Architectural Institute of Canada, and has won several prizes in architectural contests.

Victory is the Third Gold Medal.

The first golf match in the history of Acton was played in the links of the Golf Club last Saturday afternoon between the Brampton Golf Club and the local club.

Although the weather was new, considerable interest was taken in the result of the match and a respectable number of spectators were on hand to watch the game, which was very closely contested. Action won by one hole up in the fourth.

The stone work of the Warren Block is about completed and the carpenters are setting the joist. Mr. Henry Hill, Brampton, the contractor for the brick work, will commence his contract in a few days.

Official notice was given a few weeks ago cautioning children from visiting Fairlawn Cemetery unaccompanied by their parents. The practice is continued and during the past week monuments have been tampered with. Severe punishment is likely to follow any further trespass.
