

THIN HAIR

Lots of people have thin hair. Perhaps their parents had thin hair; perhaps their children have thin hair. But this does not make it necessary for them to have thin hair.

One thing you may rely upon—

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR

makes the hair healthy and vigorous; makes it grow thick and long. It cures dandruff also.

It always restores color to gray hair—all the dark, rich color of early life. There is no longer need of your looking old before you're old.

$1.00 a bottle. All druggists.

"A remedy for restoring color to the hair," writes Ayer's Hair Vigor. "It has always given the best satisfaction every way."

Dr. A. M. Ayer,
Aug. 18, 1900. Hammondsport, N.Y.

We will send you a book on The Art and Craft of Hair Care if you will send us a stamp.

Address, Dr. J. C. Ayer,
Lowell, Mass.

The Acton Free Press

THURSDAY, AUGUST 16th, 1900.

The Young Folks.

LOVE AND LAUGHTER.

Laugh, and the world laughs with you. Weep, and you weep alone. This is hell; but to be alone here below it is. It has trouble enough of its own. King, and the hills will answer; High, it is far up the air; The scolded bosom to the cold sound; But shrink from scolding ears.

God, glad and friends are many; He said and you lose them all; There are none to sealine your sealed kiss; But when you next drink life's gall; That is to say, the last pleasure—For a long and lonely train;

But only one sees all gleams—Through the narrow sides of pain.

PEACE AND HARMONY.

Fast, and your halls are crowded; Fast, and the world goes by; Since you have had your fill; But no one can help you; Laughter, and men will seek you; Grief, and they turn and go; They wait full measure of all your pleasure, But they do not want you!

Col. John A. Joyce

MISQUOTATIONS.

A writer in the Pall Mall Gazette has been making a collection of common quotations. The last I was reading, one to a large number of people who pride themselves on their stock of quotations, will come as something of a shock. In some cases the misquotations seem preferable to the correct readings. The following are some of the most common (the misquotations) given first as follows:

"Charity overflows a multitude of sins," for "Charity shall cover the multitude of sins."

"A little knowledge is a dangerous thing," for "A little learning is dangerous thing."

"He that makes assurance doubly sure," for "Make assurance doublet sure."

"Wounds are as gentle dew," for "Drop as the gentle dew," for "Drop as the gentle dew."

"The man that hath no music in his soul," for "The man that hath no music in himself."

"Fresh fields and pastures new," for "Fresh woods and pastures new."

"The evan taint of their way," for "The voiceless taint of their way."

SAVED BY A COLLIE DOG.

Mr. Robert Macdougall, one of the Meteorologists at the Royal Observatory, had a most exciting experience—when climbing that mountain, the other day. His only companion in ascent was a collie dog, to whom he says, he owes his life. While wandering on a snow-slide about one thousand feet above half-way station, Mr. Macdougall lost his footing, and, as the surface of the snow was very "hard," he was soon being whirled down the slope, at an alarming pace, sometimes head over foot, at others the reverse. It was at this juncture that the dog's sagacity came in. As soon as Mr. Macdougall began to slide, it caught his coat with its teeth, and greatly impeded the downward progress. The dog ultimately guided him to a place of safety, after the twin had slid down on the snow for nearly one thousand feet. Strange to say, neither observer nor dog was much hurt; and the former, breaking through the door of the half-way hut, lit a fire. Had he not been by a search party, half-asleep with the dog watching over him,

In a well-organized man passes born in the brain always survive those that emanate from the heart.

LANGUID

children are sick children. Their inactivity and sober faces are not in keeping with robust childhood. They lack vitality and resistive power, and are very susceptible to colds and contagious diseases.

Scott's Emulsion

brings new life to such children. It enriches the blood; it restores health and activity; it gives vigor and vitality to mind and body.

SCOTT & SONS, New York.

IT WAS ONLY ICE.

"Iron mites are hot places to work in, but the men have lots of fun with me in their hard work," said a retired iron master to a Star reporter yesterday.

"The other day I took a walk through several miles over in Pennsylvania that I am interested in. As I was going through one of the superintendents asked me to walk and see a little fun. I did so, and I will tell you about it.

"A new black had come to work that morning and the men were about to initiate him into the mystery of the business. When it was so late, there was no water, that the men started their hoses down the camp, the firemen having to produce myriads of sparks which the men tried to avoid.

"The new comers had been told that he was in danger of being seriously burned and that if he felt a spark anywhere about him the only way sure of getting him self was to jump into a big tub of water, which stood a few feet away.

"Finally one of the big trip hammers came down with great force, and as it did so one of the men sneaked up behind the newcomer and dropped a small pile of loose coal on his back. You never saw such a commotion and fury as life."

"What sort of what had been done, he took a run and jump heading into the vat of water. This was perfect, and around and outside the circumference, throwing the earth toward the center, and then wet it down again.

Hundreds have justified to the good Dr. Pitt's have done them."

"The man who thinks that he can get along in his religious life without the Church needs to be educated for self-control."

"The Indian Pueblo, Dr. Pitt's, taught, but younglings suffered by severe punishment and colds may be treated by Dr. Thomas' Electrolyte Oil. Group, whooping cough, bronchitis, in short all afflictions of the throat and lungs, are relieved by this sterilizing preparation, which also remedies rheumatism, pains, sores, bruises, piles, kidney difficulty, and is most economical.

Thoughtlessness of the rights of others is the direct result of selfishness, inasmuch as it is the life of the nation.

"Keep the head cool and the towels are usually advised to follow the usual course of treatment. If the boils do not regularly once a day use Dr. Pitt's Pills. They are easy to take, and do not grip, weaken or sicken." Price 10c.

If you are a dyspeptic, take Dr. Pitt's.

If your head aches, take Dr. Pitt's.

If your head aches, take Dr. Pitt's.

If you are nervous, take Dr. Pitt's.

If you are weak, take Dr. Pitt's.

Pitt's will make the sick well."

When a man has no resources of character within himself you cannot permanently prop him up from the outside.

CASTORIA IN ENGLAND.

Englishmen in all quarters of the island are training carrier pigeons for purposes of systematic transmission of messages. At the Crystal Palace a pigeon post has been established, and it is said to be working perfectly. Numerous clubs have sprung up, which carry on regular communication with continental points by means of these "postmen of the air."

It is recalled that one of Lord Rothschild's pigeons brought to England the first news of the battle of Waterloo, and that large use was made of such birds during the siege of Paris.

The self-satisfied and self-righteous man cuts off all his best opportunities for growth and improvement.

Dr. Pitt's never fail to give relief and they cure it given an honest trial.

Edith has "the little sprit of courage," which gives a real flavor to everything she says not have. She enjoys what she does not have.

"Don't you wish you were going to the ashore?" asked Marcella.

"I would like it," said Edith, but I'm glad I'm going to grandpa's. I always have a good time there."

"Wouldn't you like to have a new dress like Mary's?" said Jessie.

"Yes, but I like mine just as well."

The answer.

A nagging gate and a door that sticks, costs more to use than it does to fix.

Travellers' headaches are quickly relieved by Milburn's Sterling Headache Powders. They do not upset the stomach or weaken the heart. Price 10c and 25c at all dealers, or by mail. The T. Miller Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

The self-satisfied and self-righteous man cuts off all his best opportunities for growth and improvement.

Dr. Pitt's never fail to give relief and they cure it given an honest trial.

Edith has "the little sprit of courage," which gives a real flavor to everything she says not have. She enjoys what she does not have.

"Don't you wish you were going to the ashore?" asked Marcella.

"I would like it," said Edith, but I'm glad I'm going to grandpa's. I always have a good time there."

"Wouldn't you like to have a new dress like Mary's?" said Jessie.

"Yes, but I like mine just as well."

The answer.

A nagging gate and a door that sticks, costs more to use than it does to fix.

Travellers' headaches are quickly relieved by Milburn's Sterling Headache Powders. They do not upset the stomach or weaken the heart. Price 10c and 25c at all dealers, or by mail. The T. Miller Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

The self-satisfied and self-righteous man cuts off all his best opportunities for growth and improvement.

Dr. Pitt's never fail to give relief and they cure it given an honest trial.

Edith has "the little sprit of courage," which gives a real flavor to everything she says not have. She enjoys what she does not have.

"Don't you wish you were going to the ashore?" asked Marcella.

"I would like it," said Edith, but I'm glad I'm going to grandpa's. I always have a good time there."

"Wouldn't you like to have a new dress like Mary's?" said Jessie.

"Yes, but I like mine just as well."

The answer.

A man must be a poor creature when you can measure his worth to the world in dollars and cents.

There are two kinds of silliness—the silent and the talkative. Silent silliness is supportive.

Anxious Mothers find Dr. Low's Worm Syrup the best medicine to expel worms. Children like it.

Tanys leaves spread freely among wood and ferns are a protection against insects...

Coughs and colds that otherwise seem powerless to relieve are promptly cured by Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. Try it, and it will convince you of its efficacy by curing you of Price 25c.

City Cousin—I see the farm house next to this is closed. Why is that?

Rural Relative—Mrs. Hayford, who lives there, has gone to the seaside for the summer.

—The says it's cheaper than staying on the farm and there's no protection.

—Fresh fields and pastures new.

The even tenor of their way.

—For the voiceless taint of their way.

SAVED BY A COLLIE DOG.

Mr. Robert Macdougall, one of the Meteorologists at the Royal Observatory, had a most exciting experience—when climbing that mountain, the other day. His only companion in ascent was a collie dog, to whom he says, he owes his life. While wandering on a snow-slide about one thousand feet above half-way station, Mr. Macdougall lost his footing, and, as the surface of the snow was very "hard," he was soon being whirled down the slope, at an alarming pace, sometimes head over foot, at others the reverse. It was at this juncture that the dog's sagacity came in. As soon as Mr. Macdougall began to slide, it caught his coat with its teeth, and greatly impeded the downward progress. The dog ultimately guided him to a place of safety, after the twin had slid down on the snow for nearly one thousand feet. Strange to say, neither observer nor dog was much hurt; and the former, breaking through the door of the half-way hut, lit a fire. Had he not been by a search party, half-asleep with the dog watching over him,

In a well-organized man passes born in the brain always survive those that emanate from the heart.

Nice Worm Medicine.

Mr. Wm. Graham, Bishopsgrove, Ont., writes: "I have given my boy Dr. Low's Worm Syrup, and find it is an excellent worm medicine. It is nice to take, and does not make the child sick." Price 25c.

We seldom lack money—for our children, but we do not lack necessities.

Pitt's Pills are small—more units—but one is a dose, and every dose contains 100 mg.

Doan's Kidney Pills completely and permanently cure gout.

The majority of men are like animals—they take "fright" and are reassured by trifles.

Regular action of the bowels is necessary to health. Liver Tonic Pills are the best general cathartics for family or general use.

Price 25c. Any druggist.

It is natural to destroy what we cannot possess, to deny what we cannot understand, and to want what we don't.

For a clear complexion, take Dr. Pitt's.

They never fail to clear the skin.

Thousands of ladies swear by them.

SCOTT & SONS, New York.

Mr. J. A. Speight & Co.

ACTON.

Mr. J. A. Speight & Co.

ACTON.