

TIME IS LIFE

The father is gone for the doctor. The mother is alone with her suffering child. Will the doctor never come? Whenever the croup is croup in the house you can't get rid of it quick enough. It's too dangerous to wait. Don't make such a mistake again—it may cost a life. Always keep on hand a dollar bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

It cures the croup at once. Then when any one in the family comes down with a hard cold or cough a few doses of the Pectoral will cut short the attack at once. A 25 cent bottle will cure milder colds; the Soothing Syrup is better for a cold that hasn't yet hung on.

"About 15 years ago I was near death from consumption, but was cured—while there I have kept Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in my pocket and carried it with me all the time."

—G. D. MANN, Boston, Mass.

Write the Doctor. If you have the best doctor in your city, send him a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

Dr. G. A. Ayer, Lowell, Mass.

The Young Folks.

THE MOTHER'S HOUR.

Little figures rolled in white, Mallow slow and bright. Little hands up raised in prayer, Holy face sweet and fair. All the work and play and fun For the happy day are done. All the little faults confessed, All the trouble set at rest.

Childhood, sweet as dawn and flowers, Drifts through many changeful hours. But one hour, the mother's own, Admits belong to her alone.

When she sees such sunny looks, Safe and cozy in her bed;

Then the world may do its worst, God and she have had their first;

And her laurels are folded fair In the tender Shepherd's care.

Angels bend above the room Where the dimpled darling bloom

In their lovely innocence, Wearing every vest of grace.

From the little ones who dwell, Where the mother guards them well.

God and the above stand, They are safe on every hand,

Kneeling for these at the throne, They are here at God's close.

And each child's tender bower blossoms in the mother's hour.

—Baby Beatty.

You always think of a pretty baby as plump and chubby. Scott's Emulsion gives just this plumpness; not too fat, just enough for the dimples to come. Babies like it, too.

What do we live for, if it is not to make life less difficult to each other?—George Eliot.

An all-round family remedy, one that always should be in the house for an emergency. Dr. Petty's Pills discount anything in the market. They are so small a child can take them with ease yet one's a dose.

If we make religion our business, God will make it our blessedness.—H. G. J. Adams.

PILL-DOSED with nauseous, big purpose, prejudiced people against pills generally. Dr. Agnew's Liver Pills are revolutionizing the pill demands—they're so pleasant to swallow, so easily digested, so easily absorbed, to taste for doses. Biliousness, Sick Headache, Constipation, Hepatitis. Works like a charm.—55.

Holiness is the best answer in the world, but the world croaks.—John Newton.

It's so pleasant to take that children cry for it; but it's death to worms of all kinds. Dr. Low's Worm Syrup. Price 35c. All dealers.

It will costs something to be religious; it will cost nothing to be not so.—J. Mason.

Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Physiary Cordial increased from drops to tablets to the professed as thoroughly reliable for the cholera, dysentery, diarrhea, colic, rheumatism and similar complaints. It has been used successfully by medical practitioners for a number of years with gratifying results. If suffering from any similar complaint it is just the medicine that will cure you. Try a bottle. It sells for 25 cents.

NOT COD-LIVER OIL, but Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil. They are not the same; far from it.

Scott's emulsion is cold-liver oil prepared for the stomach. Let cod-liver oil alone if you need it. When your physician orders toast, do you breakfast on flour?

Our cod-liver oil is hard to take and hard to digest. A man that can keep it down, can save wood. He thinks he is sick; he is lazy.
