The Acton Free Press.
THURSDAY, DECEMBER 6, 1900.

LITTLE LOCAL BRIEFLY.
Which Caught the Eyes or Ears of
Free Press Reporters this week.

-Very bad roads during the week.
-Coal has been a scarce article here this fall.

-Municipal election matters are very quiet.
-It will be the last Christmas of the century.

-Does your subscription expire this month?
-People generally would like to see something new.

-Study the Christmas announcements of our merchants.
-Arrange to secure all the children a happy time on Christmas.

-The Free Press to the end of the year free to all new subscribers.
-Christmas is coming in rapid order. Only two weeks more to Tuesday.

-Monday and Tuesday looked very much like a spell of Indian summer.
-Mr. J. D. McKee, Douglas, expects to get settled in his new store in the Warren Block early next week.

-All municipal cases are now due and payable. Collector Graham has a gentle reminder for delinquents in another column.

-Messrs. Johnston & Co., furniture dealers, have a special announcement in this issue of the novelties in their line for Christmas.

-The streets at the present time are in a very bad condition and some groaning are almost sure for pedestrians to pass. -Glasgow Mercury.

-Newmarket Council is changing the street lighting system from gas to incandescent electric lights, the same as Acton's. They will have 84 lights on the street.

-An iron carboy of sulphuric acid on a load going to the hardware store here yesterday about noon and the contents dashed John Street for about fifty yards.

-The Methodist Sunday School orchestra and several vocalists and speakers will take part in the annual Christmas concert at Congregational on the 16th inst.

-Owing to change of date Mr. McCarty's lecture on "The Social Side of Farm Life" will be postponed until the 20th inst.

-Would you like to have a part in the tribute of the citizens of Acton to the memory of General W. J. Moore, who departed at Waterloo on the 6th Nov. while serving his Queen and Country? If so, send your contribution to the Free Press.

-G. D. Pringle, Guelph, has a unique novelty in his show window for the Christmas season. He has a chimney and a real chimney sweeper who will go down the chimney and clean it until Christmas.

-The street is sometimes blocked with children and even the big folks are attracted.

-An interesting event for the coming holiday season is the annual Christmas concert at the Methodist Church. Twelve of the school to the number of about 240 drove to Georgetown, and they had a jolly time indeed. This year the drive will be to Rockwood, and the date has been fixed for Friday, 29th December, if the weather is suitable.

-F. V. Smith, eye specialist will be in Acton, Thursday, Dec. 6th, one day only, rooms at Agnew's Hotel. If you have any defect in your eyesight it will pay to call and see him. Examination free. Call on Dr. W. J. Moore.

-Those who contemplate purchasing moments of work or any description for their country plots should order directly from the old reliable and useful dealer J. H. Hamilton, Guelph, Ont. All expenses allowed to purchasers. All work and material guaranteed, competition desired.
