LITTLE LOCAL BRIEFLETS

which caught the Eyes-on-Hair of Free Press Reporters this week.

— Next Sunday is St. Patrick's Day.

— The milliners are getting ready for their openings.

— Rev. J. M. Haiger, M. A., presided at Waterloo last Sunday.

— About five inches of snow fell yesterday afternoon and evening.

— Bunday's ice storm made havoc of many sheds and fruit trees.

— Attend the Bible Society meeting this evening in the Methodist Church.

— The Free Press is doing the country printing and advertising this year.

— Mr. Henry Davis has sold to Edward Butler his dwelling on Young Street.

— Halton county has forty-five graduates of Toronto University in Arts and Medicine.

— Mr. M. P. Harry, Rockwood, is shipping turkeys at the G. T. H. station here this week.

— The storm on Bunday-thinned the attendance in the various churches, especially at night.

— Meers, Greenan & Co. have opened a grocery department in their store in J. D. McKee's old stand.

— You may say and believe that the backbone of winter has been broken, but don't you buy any money on it?

— Mr. Wm. Van Every, representing the Royal Templars of Temperance, is in town in the interests of that growing society.

— The stock of logs at Brow's Mill is steadily growing. There is nearly 1,000,000 feet of timber in the yard now.

— The Methodists Bunday School orchestra and a number of friends will attend a tea-meeting at Elizabethtown, Mass., next Monday evening.

— Reeve Williams gave judgement in the Bunday vs. Bills sheep-worrying case last Friday. Verdict went against Mr. Bill's dog and was assessed $5 damages and costs of the court.

— Hon. Mr. Birtwhistle, the Provincial Secretary, lost his office, the Peterborough Examiner, by fire last Thursday. His loss was some $35,000; with $30,000 insurance. The Examiner, like the Phoenix, will soon rise from its ashes for Mr. Birtwhistle's enterprise is a characterless.

— Those who contemplate purchasing material or work of any description for their comfort, should call direct from the old reliable dealers and make dealer J. H. Hamilton, Guelph, Ont. All expenses allowed to purchasers. All work and material warranted, competition damped.

WE LEAD — COME TO L. M. NELSON & CO'S FOR BARGAINS.

TO THOSE ABOUT TO MARRY

Young men or old men who intend to marry will be pleased to hear that the new Marriage Act is made quite simple by applying to H. C. Moore, Justice of the Peace, at the Free Press Office. Call a few days before the ceremony and have the matter explained. Private office. All business strictly private and confidential. At gildands in evening.

Mrs. Cohen, of Woolstock, is the proud mother of triplets. The little people came a few days ago. This is the second time Mrs. Cohen has given birth to triplets. She got the Queen's bounty for the first set. They died however. There are two other children in the family.

THE NEWS AT HOME.

Mostly of a Local Character, and every item interesting.

The Free Press & Water Supply.
The thaw this week has been appreciated by those who were short of water, and those who have been unable to get water. Some farmers have not only had to draw their stock a couple of miles to water but have been obliged to haul water that distance for domestic use. There have been more wells dry in this section this winter than in forty years before.

Joe's Tales About Town.
Outsize paper, daily or weekly, are all right if you want them, but it is the weak local paper that advertises your business, your schools, your church, your name, your societies, sympathies with you in any affliction, especially in your poverty. In itself it is your weekly house paper that you are interested during the year, and which you do not find in the daily paper.—Press and Printer.

Two Fine & Larger Destroyed.
On Friday Mrs. Lydia Triller, of Guelph, wife of the late Mark Triller, appeared before Magistrate Macdonald and Father of Oakville, charged by License Inspector Haynes with selling liquor without license. Your honor, of course, will be interested to know that he was licensed to sell beer, ale, porter and stout, and informed that he was not fortified and would be destroyed as provided by the License Act.

Good Sings and a Drap. Grade Tea.
Here's the way the Scotch Black folks announced their soda for Tuesday night, in the Milton Champion: "Gran' soda gathering at old John Scott's house on the big bras, o'd the 'moontain,' about Town o' Milton, on Tuesday night, 12th March, at eleven o'clock, to help the Minister an' fous o' the U. V. King. A night wi' the wild Scotch sungs, a drap. grade tea, o' cakes an' haggis, and the comforts that'll git you through the wab o' flannel. Come on, then!"

Courageous City Of Boys.
Last evening in the Petrie swimming baths two young ladies got beyond their depth and were soon in a position of jeopardy. Albert Claude Hamilton, the twelve year old son of Ald. Jno. H. Hamilton, happened to be near by and he promptly went to their assistance. The lad had forgotten all about the incident when on Monday evening the girls called at his home and presented him with a beautiful gold ring as a token of their gratitude. Three sons of Ald. Hamilton now possess a souvenir given them in appreciation of their bravery and coolness in saving life.

A pretty good record for our family. Guelphian.
