LITTLE LOCAL BRIEFLISTS

Which Caught the Eyes or Ears of Free Press Reporters this week:

Todays shower were very refreshing.

Another week of torrid weather has passed.

Cool shady places for holiday outings are now being sought.

Fifteen and twenty minute services were the order last Sunday.

Rev. Father Kenny is arranging for a grand garden party to be held on Tuesday, 20th inst.

Between this midsummer torridity and humidity, we are long on sulphur and short on plaudity.

Quite a number of citizens complete visiting the Paul American Expedition during the next few weeks.

George Stovel has built a new work room at the rear of his shop on Mill Street and will shortly put in a new shop clock.

Mr. R. Holmes, draper, shipped car of hugs yesterday. The car, at the splendid price paid, $7.10, was worth twice as much as a car of horses.

The Free Press received last week a dainty sample of Indian mohairies, rips and laces, from Miss Gertrude Hawke, home of Windsor Place.

Mr. J. E. Field has opened temporarily a wholesale warehouse in the Holsten store and is shipping large orders of blankets, bunting, woolens to the Northwest.

Two boys have obtained permission from Mr. McAndrews—Obey to be the accompanied on the west side of his farm, and sores are taking advantage of his generous action.

The 46th annual Communication of the Grand Lodge of Ancient Free and Accepted Masons of Canada is in session in Hamilton. Barrister McElroy, W. M., is attending from Walker Lodge, Acton.

Mr. H. D. Coutts, head master George Town High School, writes: Editor Free Press: "The marks of Miss Ethel Cole, Aclon, Aclon, which were given us as 404 should have been 810. Will you kindly make the correction?"

Knox Church Sunday School will hold their annual picnic to Ildwyl Park near Hespeler, next Tuesday. The trip will be by train to Hespeler and then by electric car to the park. Eighty fare for adults and children has been arranged.

Gulph and Duddell will pull over the tug of war over which there was a dispute on Dominion Day at the home of Scotland games. The contest takes place this evening at six o'clock, is the best two in three galls, and for $300 a side in the park. Gulph.

Wanted—A young man for farm work.

Yearly engagement at good wages, etc. Able. Apply immediately to N. F. Moore, Lakeside Farm, Acton.

I desire that all my friends and former customers should know that I have returned to Acton and will be prepared in a few days to fill in缺 for customers made boats and shoes and repairing in the best manner. G. Brown, Mill St.

T. P. Buntley's special, will be in Action, Thursday, August 1st, one day early, at Agnew's Hotel. If you have any defect in your eyeglass it will pay you to call and see him. Examination free. Call early or you may make appointment at A. T. Brown's Drug Store.

Those who contemplate purchasing monumental or other any description for their family plots should order direct from the oil calcite granite and marble dealers J. H. Hamilton, Guelph, Ont. All expenses allowed to purveyors. All work and material warranted, competition failed.

THE NEWS AT HOME.

Mostly of a Local Character, and every item interesting.

Worker of a Life Saving Medal.

On Wednesday afternoon of last week Johnny Abram, son of Mr. James Abram, Church street, was playing at the mill dam and in throwing a stick to a dog was overbalanced and fell into the pond. He was deep water, unable to swim, and was in danger of drowning, and had actually gone down the second time, when Master Hubie Agnew, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Agnew, came to the water and his brother, Hubie is a good swimmer but it takes considerable courage and presence of mind for a nine year old boy to undertake so dangerous a task. His little comrade died a life saving medal should be secured.

Farewell to Dr. Kelly.

Last Thursday evening the jubilant friends of Dr. and Mrs. G. Y. Kelly, to the number of twenty-five, assembled on the lawn at their late residence, Frederick Street, to spend a social hour in their prior to their removal to Hamilton. It is a frequent gathering of kind words of farewell given by Rev. Mr. Steve Nicklin, W. T. H. Hart, Rev. J. M. Hayes, Mr. J. McLean, and others.—Rev.

Father Kenny presided with his usual grace and dignity. Dr. and Mrs. Kelly and family left on Friday for Hamilton.

The Dr. intends taking special courses at Chicago or New York, and possibly in Germany.

Boy Lost Temporarily.

The Gladys Herdman, wife of G. C. Clark and son of Mr. and Mrs. Clark, of Guelph, while making some purchases in Mr. P. Anderson's store, corner Wyndham and Macdonell Streets, about half past two in the afternoon, his little son wandered away. About five o'clock he was seen on the Elora Road near Gowdy's grocery, but to questions asked him gave no information to enable the enquirers to discover who he was or where he came from. Finally the little fellow was taken in charge by Miss Tracy, who took him home, gave him a bath, dressed him, and notified the police department about the "absent child." Information of the whereabouts of the child was diligently searched.

A Former Actor Much Appreciated.

Mr. Richard N. Thirlfall, who has for a number of years conducted a successful drug and book business at Tecumseh, removed a few weeks ago to Ingersoll, where he will have a larger field for business, values of the community for most successful and happy career.

Retires says: "In the removal of Mr. N. Thirlfall, druggist, to Ingersoll, Knob Church, Tecumseh, has lost a valuable helper. At the time of his departure and for many years previous, he occupied the position of Headmaster, Secretary of the congregation, and member of the Board of Managers. In all these positions he had the esteem of the entire congregation. Before his departure, his fellow-workers in the Sabbath School presented him with an appreciative address, accompanied by a handsome half-track and chair. His Sabbath School class also showed their esteem for him by an address and token of remembrance in the form of a good chain." The Young Paris wishes the esteemed son of all success in his new home.

The Herald of Mackness.

Published weekly in Elora, in last issue of the Herald of Mackness.

Speaking of the Action Fire Brigade's garden party, the Free Press says: "Georgetown Fire Brigade deflated by the tug of war team, were not able to win, but they did not intend to come."

The action of the fire brigade is contrasted to the Action Brigades, which went to Georgetown last year in full strength, but were beaten by the firemen of the town.
