St. Catharines Fire.

The pin-up of St. Joseph's High School last Thursday in Warren's grove was an enjoyable affair. The attendance was very large and all present enjoyed themselves. The ladies provided abundance of good things and the school did everything ample justice. The base ball match was an attractive feature of the afternoon. To Rev. Father Penny much credit is due for the success of the event.

Annual Addition of Books to Library.

A meeting of the Friends of the Library was held on Saturday afternoon at the Friends' Hall. Mr. W. H. Campbell, who is on the board of trustees, presided. The annual addition of books to the Library was discussed when upon motion the book committee was instructed to go to Toronto and make the selection to go there. The committee will go to the city to-morrow and about the end of the month a fine list of new books will no doubt be open to the readers of the Free Press.

A Painted Yule.

Rev. Mr. Christie, who came from Toronto on Saturday to spend a few days at Acton Islands, met with a rather anxious heart that evening at the home of his friend, Mrs. Thomas Weston, River Street. She was about to descend the stairs, when up a step, she slipped and fell headlong to the bottom. By the fall she sustained a painful gash over the right eye, which required several stitches, and her face and body were badly bruised. She is slowly recovering from her injuries.

Marvin House of Knows Church.

The Marvin House and fifth anniversary services in connection with the ordination and induction of the pastor, Rev. H. A.
