

Bank of Hamilton Georgetown Branch.

A General Banking Business transacted.
Correspondence Solicited.

Savings Department:

Interest allowed on sums of ONE DOLLAR and upwards from day of deposit to day of withdrawal. No formalities and no delays in drawing money.

Farmers' Business

Sold. Notes of responsible farmers discounted and money loaned for legitimate business purposes.

Our Collection Department

Has every facility for making prompt returns.

Sale Notes

Convenient and money advanced on account of sums at low rates of interest.

Travelers are notified that the Bank of Hamilton and its Branches issue Circular Notes of the Provincial Bank of Canada Limited, which can be cashed without charge or trouble in any part of the world.

HEAD OFFICE — HAMILTON

Established 1872.

Capital Paid Up — $1,000,750

Reserve Fund — 1,500,000

Total Assets — 17,000,750

JAMES TUNNELL, Cashier.

B. FORSYETH, AGENT,

Georgetown Branch.

CHAS. L. NELLES

The Big Bookstore, Guelph.

Christmas, 1901:

Books

Libraries

Fine Gift Books

Bibles, Books, Etc.

Yancy Goods

Fine Stationery

Our Store is one of the Largest in Canada and it will pay you to do your shopping at

CHAS. L. NELLES,

GUELPH.

The Action Free Press.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 1st, 1902.

LITTLE LOCAL BRIEFLETS

Which Caught the Eyes or Ears of Free Press Readers this week.

—Happy New Year to all.

—Municipal elections next Monday.

—Wasn't it a glorious Christmas Day.

—The Guelph Herald issuing the Mercury for 1902.

—The public schools will re-open on Monday, 6th January.

—The joys of Christmas this year seemed almost unlimited.

—We commence the second year of the new century this morning.

—The college students will return to their various institutions next Monday.

—Oakville Council spent $600.00 more than the appropriations made for 1901.

—The cordial greeting, "Happy New Year!" will be heard on all sides this morning.

—The hockey players have opened an open rink on Fairy Lake of Liberal dimensions.

—Every scholar who goes to school on Monday must present a certificate of vaccination.

—"Bright New Year, what brings you?" is a question all thoughtful readers are asking.

—The Faux Paus calendar goes out this morning. Subscribers generally will appreciate it.

—Be careful, that's my vaccinated arm," has been a very current exclamation
the past few days.

—There were more drunken men on the streets on Christmas day and evening than the people of Action have seen for years.

—Mr. W. H. Webb, of Butte, Montana, has kindly sent the Faux Paus a copy of the Standard's Christmas number of '70 pages.

—A meeting of the creditors of Ounsey & Co. has been called for Friday at 2:30 o'clock at the office of R. J. McNabb, avsignee.

—Saldon have more people enjoyed sleigh driving and outside enjoyment on Christians than ever to be seen last Wednesday.

—Spent the evening at the town hall and enjoy the cantata "Santa Claus Defenders" to be rendered by the scholars of the Methodist Sunday School on Christmas night. For two years the Christians entertainment had been provided by outside talent, but this year the programme was organized by the school, and was "admirably successful and meritorious as of those past years." The large audience fully appreciated the numerous numbers given as follows:

1 Selection by the Orchestra.

2 Chorus, "Glory to God in the Highest,"
the School.

3 Chorus, "Joy, Joy, Joy," the School.

4 Responsorial Scripture Reading, the School.

5 Words by H. L. Moore, Superintendent.

6 Solo, "Whalebone Night," Dallas Dempsey.

7 Reports of Secretary and Treasurer by W.
H. Sibbitt.

8 Chorus, "Joy Bells are Ringing," the School.

—The small-pox soon died out when the public became aware of the splendid precautions so promptly put into effect by our Local Board of Health.

—Now that Christmas is over, perhaps the best thing you can wish a fellow is that his digestive apparatus may be in beautiful working order again for today's feasting.

—Christmas day was glorious. Bright sunshine, merry sleighing, happy hearts and cheery faces prevailed during the joyous day. Houses of happy home relations were had town and country.

—Subscriptions have been pouring in from all over the world. Subscribers generally evidently desire to continue the year with their subscriptions paid in advance, in accordance with the Faux Paus system.

PERSONAL.

The service in the Methodist Church was conducted last Sunday evening by Rev.
Arthur Hagar. The services will be held in the evening next Tuesday.

—Mrs. George Young, the new teacher of the second department of Action Public School, and her sister, Miss Georgia Young, of Georgetown, were in town on Monday.

—Mrs. Maers, of Ohio, and her mother, have taken up their residence in Action with the hope of benefiting the health of the latter with our bracing northern temperatures.

—Mr. P. Bayers, Nassauwya, who has been confined to his house through illness
the past two months, was in town on Monday. Many friends were pleased to see him around again.

—Miss Minnie Holmes leaves next week to take a course at the Normal School, Action.

—Miss Maggie McQuen will act as substitute for Miss Holmes in her school at Morval, and after Miss Holmes completes her course, she in turn will go to the Normal.

—Mr. R. B. Wilson, Campbell and Miller
Apple Barber, daughter of Ephraim Barber, will, 21 Con. St., Erin, will make New Year's memorable in the history of our family by being united in holy wedlock this afternoon.

—Every number was interesting and the audience manifested their appreciation by repeated applause. Perhaps the most impressive event of the evening was the presentation of the framed diplomas to the following graduates from the primary class:
Edward Hart, Elsie M. Bauer,
Hazel Moore, F. Wardle, David Jaques,
George A. Reid, David Jaques,
Monroe, Shirley F. Watson and Ernest G.
Worrell. The accomplishments of these graduates in committing to memory that Lord's Prayer, the golden text, and the names of the books of the old and new Testaments, reflects much credit on their teachers, Mrs. Jas. Moore and Mrs. Jas.
Smith. The reports of the Headmaster and Treasurer showed encouraging progress during the year. The annual whist this year will be omitted, but a Hun-day School banquet will be provided at some date before spring.

—Warren—Experienced lady glove makers. Good wages to good people.
Apply to Preston Gloves Co., Preston.

—Young—On Main Street, between Mill and Church Street, Action, on Monday, 50th Dec., a black knitted shawl. Order now for same at Faux Paus office.

SEASONABLE CHRISTMAS GIFTS.

Blanks from 50c up, buckles, snow shoes, boating gloves, single sticks, full, Whitey's exercise, etc., cameras, photo outfit and sepia prints, view albums from 10c, up, albums of views of Action and vicinity, natural history subjects, the churches of Action, etc., from 25c up; outfit for all pastimes supplied. Anything not stock promptly procured. Leave your orders early.

W. BRAKE,
At Faux Paus's.

TO CURE A GOLD IN ONE DAY.

Take a Laxative Balsom Quinine Tabl. cure a cold in one day. No Cough. No Hay. Tabl. to cure.

W. Gentry's signature on each box.

THE NEWS AT HOME.

Mostly of a Local Character, and every Item Interesting.

Father and Mother Gone Now.

Our readers will remember the sad news

last February of the sudden death of Mr.

Duncan Kiloff, an esteemed farmer residing on his farm on the second line, Action.

On Friday last Mrs. Kiloff breathed her last after a long and peaceful illness.

She was a daughter of the late John

Hopwood, and was in her fifty-fourth year. Her husband, Mr. Duncan Kiloff, was a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hopwood.

He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hopwood, and was a son of Mr. and Mrs.

John Hopwood, and was a son of Mr. and Mrs.

John Hopwood, and was a son of Mr. and Mrs.

John Hopwood, and was a son of Mr. and Mrs.

John Hopwood, and was a son of Mr. and Mrs.

John Hopwood, and was a son of Mr. and Mrs.

John Hopwood, and was a son of Mr. and Mrs.

John Hopwood, and was a son of Mr. and Mrs.

John Hopwood, and was a son of Mr. and Mrs.

John Hopwood, and was a son of Mr. and Mrs.

John Hopwood, and was a son of Mr. and Mrs.

John Hopwood, and was a son of Mr. and Mrs.

John Hopwood, and was a son of Mr. and Mrs.

John Hopwood, and was a son of Mr. and Mrs.

John Hopwood, and was a son of Mr. and Mrs.

John Hopwood, and was a son of Mr. and Mrs.

John Hopwood, and was a son of Mr. and Mrs.

John Hopwood, and was a son of Mr. and Mrs.

John Hopwood, and was a son of Mr. and Mrs.

John Hopwood, and was a son of Mr. and Mrs.

John Hopwood, and was a son of Mr. and Mrs.

John Hopwood, and was a son of Mr. and Mrs.

John Hopwood, and was a son of Mr. and Mrs.

John Hopwood, and was a son of Mr. and Mrs.

John Hopwood, and was a son of Mr. and Mrs.

John Hopwood, and was a son of Mr. and Mrs.

John Hopwood, and was a son of Mr. and Mrs.

John Hopwood, and was a son of Mr. and Mrs.

John Hopwood, and was a son of Mr. and Mrs.

John Hopwood, and was a son of Mr. and Mrs.

John Hopwood, and was a son of Mr. and Mrs.

John Hopwood, and was a son of Mr. and Mrs.

John Hopwood, and was a son of Mr. and Mrs.

John Hopwood, and was a son of Mr. and Mrs.

John Hopwood, and was a son of Mr. and Mrs.

John Hopwood, and was a son of Mr. and Mrs.

John Hopwood, and was a son of Mr. and Mrs.

John Hopwood, and was a son of Mr. and Mrs.

John Hopwood, and was a son of Mr. and Mrs.

John Hopwood, and was a son of Mr. and Mrs.

John Hopwood, and was a son of Mr. and Mrs.

John Hopwood, and was a son of Mr. and Mrs.

John Hopwood, and was a son of Mr. and Mrs.

John Hopwood, and was a son of Mr. and Mrs.

John Hopwood, and was a son of Mr. and Mrs.

John Hopwood, and was a son of Mr