

Bad Coughs

"I had a bad cough for six weeks and could not sleep until I tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Only one-fourth of the bottle was used."

L. Hawn, Newington, Ont.

Neglected colds always lead to something serious. They run into chronic bronchitis, pneumonia, asthma, or consumption. Don't wait, but take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral just as soon as your cough begins. A few doses will cure you then.

These sizes: 16 oz., enough for an ordinary week; 32 oz., just right for a month; larger sizes, $1.50 each. Send for our free booklet "How to Cure Coughs and Cold." Price 25 cents.

CUPID'S MISTAKE.
"He used to fool us, but now he's all right!"

"Can't you see—she's stupid?"

"That he had lost his heart!"

"What's the use?"

"He'll never find another girl!"

"For though I have a stupid, I hope that you have two!"

MRS. CLEVELAND'S DEMOCRACY.

A lady who knew Mrs. Cleveland quite well has at the Grand Central Station in New York recently, fairly taken down with a cold.

"You look like a real old-fashioned Santa Claus," she said to Mrs. Cleveland. "Oh, no, not quite that," was the reply, for I have no love in my purse; they are filled with fruit that I am taking to the place where I am now staying, because they are very fond of these particular things and they don't have out there."

When Mrs. Cleveland had left the train, her friend thought that she would give pleasure to the brakeman by telling him that she had entertained an angel on board.

He said, "Did all you see that lady on the platform with all those parcels?"

"Yes," says he, "what of her?"

"That's Mrs. Cleveland." The man refused to believe her. He could not believe that the wife of the ex-president, almost struggling with paroxysms, would be traveling alone in an ordinary day coach. Such simple democracy passed his belief! —Very truly Yours! Home Journal.

CAT VERSUS TROUT.

A member of the Sullivan County club caught half a dozen trout one day last summer, and carried them to his cottage, intending to take them to the city. He turned the water into his bathtub, and the trout seemed to thrive as well there as they had done in the stream.

The afternoons of the last disappeared. The trout, thinking it had jumped out, looked all around the room, but no trout was to be seen.

Next morning two more were gone, and the servant was closely questioned. There were more disappearances, and the fisherman was so much concerned that he took a place outside the bathroom window and proceeded to watch.

Pretty soon the family cat entered, perched on the edge of the tub and, waiting its chance, struck violently into the water with its paw and brought up the remaining trout.

Now think about Your Health.

In the warmer weather of spring you should be strong and robust health, your blood pure and your appetite good. Other days you may feel weak and languid.

Don't let your body get fatigued. Fully stretch the blood with the blood bath, and then wash the blood with Hood's Gasparilla and thus "prepare for spring." This medicine makes rich, red blood and gives vigor and vitality.

A rolling gait gathers remorse.

Modesty is the best policy.

MIRROR, SCALES, ETC.

There was a man. And his mirror said "sallow skin." And the scales said "losing weight." And his friends did wag their heads as he passed by. But being a prudent man he forthwith swallowed daily certain pleasant doses of Scott's Emulsion.

Then his mirror said "ruddy face." And the scales sunk beneath his weight. And his friends looked upon him with amaze.

(Note.—This is no fable—but is true history).

We'll just tell you if you like.
