

Bank of Hamilton Georgetown Branch.

A General Banking Business transacted.

Correspondence Solicited.

Savins Department.

Interest allowed on sums of GNE DOLLAR and upwards from day of deposit to date of withdrawal. No formalities and no delay in drawing money.

Farmers' Business.

Solicited. Notes of responsible farmers discounted and money loaned for legitimate business purposes.

Our Collection Department.

Has every facility for making prompt returns.

Sale Notes.

Handled and money advanced on account of sums at low rates of interest.

Travellers are notified that the blank of Hamilton and its Branches have Circulated a new Circular Letter of Credit which can be cashed without charge or trouble in any part of the world.

HEAD OFFICE — HAMILTON
Established 1872.

Capital Paid Up $1,095,750

Reserve Fund 1,500,000

Total Assets 17,071,750

JAMES TOWNSEND, Cashier.

B. FORSAYETH, AGENT,
Georgetown Branch.

1902 WALL PAPER

DECORATIONS.

The new season finds us with more Wall-Paper than ever.

1000 rolls in Stock.

W. ERSKINE will show you samples.

Buy front that will be up-to-date.

Room Moulding to match.

CHAS L. NELLES,
WALL PAPER.
GUELPH.

The Acton Free Press.
THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 20, 1902

LITTLE LOCAL BRIEFLETS

Which Caught the Eyes or Ears of Free Press Readers this week.

The few men are doing a thriving business.

Mr. N. Patterson recently purchased the livery business of Johnstone & Son.

The boys have commenced playing marbles again. Spring is surely coming.

The Guelph Advertiser has been sold to Mr. G. W. Miller, of Toronto, for $2,500.

Mr. David Williamson offers for sale her brick house and five acres on Main Street.

A good sized stock has been received at Brown's and will last this winter. The mill will commence operations in a week or so.

Mr. William McRae has been appointed agent for the Standard Life Assurance Company of Edinburgh, the strongest life office in the world.

Mrs. Mayor Dike, of Fort William, who was born with her brother, very interestingly addressed the Methodist Sunday School on Sunday afternoon.

G. A. Pannabecker recently put in new boxes throughout his hardware shop. Mr. Pannabecker is doing a very lively hardware trade.

The public generally is invited to the Pethow League home socials to be held at the residence of the Misses Nelless next Tuesday evening. Admission 15c.

About a score of young folks formed a sleighing party and visited the home of Mr. William Garney, Erie, last Friday evening. A most enjoyable time was spent.

Secretary J. L. Warren reports the membership of Halton Farmers' Institute still growing, and that it is in advance of the large membership of last year.

Mr. Isaac Boyd, who was run down by a vicious dog in his barn yard a week or ten days ago, is slowly recovering from the effects of the injury he sustained.

The anniversary services of Knox Church will be held on Monday next March. Rev. J. A. H. Dickson, of Galt, will preside and preach and sermon.

His Honor, Judge Gorham, has invited the Magistrates of the county to meet him at the court house, Milton, next Wednesday to confer on matters of interest in the administration of justice.

"Miss Amy, what is the best way of killing time in the winter time?" said a young man who possesses a fine driver and confides to his young lady, one moonlight night last week. Miss Amy—"Blah! Blah!"

It is rather a real coincidence that two of the ne'er-do-well young men who pulled in the bags of war at the Fair here last fall have since died.—Mr. Swankhamer, of Galt, will preside and preach and sermon.

His Honor, Judge Gorham, has invited the Magistrates of the county to meet him at the court house, Milton, next Wednesday to confer on matters of interest in the administration of justice.

"Miss Amy, what is the best way of killing time in the winter time?" said a young man who possesses a fine driver and confides to his young lady, one moonlight night last week. Miss Amy—"Blah! Blah!"

—A good poor cook and other wood stove also pipes for sale cheap.—B. A. Scott.

WINTER ORDERS FOR SPRING DELIVERY.

J. M. Hamilton's Electrical Manufacturing Works at Guelph are now taking orders for Granite and Marble Monuments to be set up in the spring, at reduced prices. With the splendid new electric and pneumatic machinery this establishment is able to execute far more and better work than hitherto, and in order to keep the machinery running all winter very low rates are being given for work ordered now. Call at the works or drop a card to J. M. Hamilton, Guelph.

TOOURE A GOLD IN ONE DAY.

Take a taxation from your neighbour. All the gold in the world is false to our eyes. G. W. Green's signature on each box. No.

THE NEWS AT HOME.

Mostly of a Local Character, and every item interesting.

Hull And Fractured Her Waist.

Last Wednesday as Miss Ada Franklin, daughter of ex-Councillor Franklin, who holds a position as stenographer and typewriter in the city, was going down Grant Street, she slipped on an icy spot and fell heavily on her left arm fracturing two bones in the wrist. Miss Franklin came home next day and her injury was progressing favorably.

Debut of a Pair of Skaters.

The Rev. C. A. Macpherson commanded a series of three sermons on the subject of "Prohibition" in Knox Church last Sunday evening. His topic was "The Arguments that are being used against Prohibition," and after finishing the arguments which were being used by those who are in favor of prohibition will be discussed, and the series will conclude with a third on, "What should be the attitude this church should take in relation to the question?"

Hockey Match To-morrow Night.

Hockey's Hockey Team will try conclusions with Georgetown to-morrow night. The last match was won by Action, and as the team will go down in much stronger condition victory is again confidently looked for. The team will line up as follows: Fred Ryder, goal, Jim Smith, point; Frank Molinari, cover point; Joe Boyd, Ed. Ryder, Harry Wilson, and Jack Arthur, forwards. Action will be well represented by our citizens. Every evening in town was engaged last week for the match.

GOALIE UNPLUGGED.

The golfers are looking to get at their favorite game again. In fact, one of the most "infatuated" devotees of the game might have been seen the other day at noon practising his big driving shot, when the mercury was flirting with zero points.

—Through the blowing out of a valve at the power house was disabled on Monday evening, and electric light users were consequently not supplied with current. Repairs were promptly made and everything is in good order again.

—Mr. Horst, carpenter at the Action Co., worked under the guidance of their Excellencies, the Earl and Countess of Minto, having the following objects:

1. To locate the graves of Canadians who have lost their lives in South Africa in the service of the Empire since the hostilities commenced in 1899. 2. To obtain subscriptions for the purpose of valuing as much information as possible concerning the same.

—Mr. Horst, carpenter at the Action Co., worked under the guidance of their Excellencies, the Earl and Countess of Minto, having the following objects:

1. To locate the graves of Canadians who have lost their lives in South Africa in the service of the Empire since the hostilities commenced in 1899. 2. To obtain

subscriptions for the purpose of valuing as much information as possible concerning the same.

—Mr. Horst, carpenter at the Action Co., worked under the guidance of their Excellencies, the Earl and Countess of Minto, having the following objects:

1. To locate the graves of Canadians who have lost their lives in South Africa in the service of the Empire since the hostilities commenced in 1899. 2. To obtain

subscriptions for the purpose of valuing as much information as possible concerning the same.

—Mr. Horst, carpenter at the Action Co., worked under the guidance of their Excellencies, the Earl and Countess of Minto, having the following objects:

1. To locate the graves of Canadians who have lost their lives in South Africa in the service of the Empire since the hostilities commenced in 1899. 2. To obtain

subscriptions for the purpose of valuing as much information as possible concerning the same.

—Mr. Horst, carpenter at the Action Co., worked under the guidance of their Excellencies, the Earl and Countess of Minto, having the following objects:

1. To locate the graves of Canadians who have lost their lives in South Africa in the service of the Empire since the hostilities commenced in 1899. 2. To obtain

subscriptions for the purpose of valuing as much information as possible concerning the same.

—Mr. Horst, carpenter at the Action Co., worked under the guidance of their Excellencies, the Earl and Countess of Minto, having the following objects:

1. To locate the graves of Canadians who have lost their lives in South Africa in the service of the Empire since the hostilities commenced in 1899. 2. To obtain

subscriptions for the purpose of valuing as much information as possible concerning the same.

—Mr. Horst, carpenter at the Action Co., worked under the guidance of their Excellencies, the Earl and Countess of Minto, having the following objects:

1. To locate the graves of Canadians who have lost their lives in South Africa in the service of the Empire since the hostilities commenced in 1899. 2. To obtain

subscriptions for the purpose of valuing as much information as possible concerning the same.

—Mr. Horst, carpenter at the Action Co., worked under the guidance of their Excellencies, the Earl and Countess of Minto, having the following objects:

1. To locate the graves of Canadians who have lost their lives in South Africa in the service of the Empire since the hostilities commenced in 1899. 2. To obtain

subscriptions for the purpose of valuing as much information as possible concerning the same.

—Mr. Horst, carpenter at the Action Co., worked under the guidance of their Excellencies, the Earl and Countess of Minto, having the following objects:

1. To locate the graves of Canadians who have lost their lives in South Africa in the service of the Empire since the hostilities commenced in 1899. 2. To obtain

subscriptions for the purpose of valuing as much information as possible concerning the same.

—Mr. Horst, carpenter at the Action Co., worked under the guidance of their Excellencies, the Earl and Countess of Minto, having the following objects:

1. To locate the graves of Canadians who have lost their lives in South Africa in the service of the Empire since the hostilities commenced in 1899. 2. To obtain

subscriptions for the purpose of valuing as much information as possible concerning the same.

—Mr. Horst, carpenter at the Action Co., worked under the guidance of their Excellencies, the Earl and Countess of Minto, having the following objects:

1. To locate the graves of Canadians who have lost their lives in South Africa in the service of the Empire since the hostilities commenced in 1899. 2. To obtain

subscriptions for the purpose of valuing as much information as possible concerning the same.

—Mr. Horst, carpenter at the Action Co., worked under the guidance of their Excellencies, the Earl and Countess of Minto, having the following objects:

1. To locate the graves of Canadians who have lost their lives in South Africa in the service of the Empire since the hostilities commenced in 1899. 2. To obtain

subscriptions for the purpose of valuing as much information as possible concerning the same.

—Mr. Horst, carpenter at the Action Co., worked under the guidance of their Excellencies, the Earl and Countess of Minto, having the following objects:

1. To locate the graves of Canadians who have lost their lives in South Africa in the service of the Empire since the hostilities commenced in 1899. 2. To obtain

subscriptions for the purpose of valuing as much information as possible concerning the same.

—Mr. Horst, carpenter at the Action Co., worked under the guidance of their Excellencies, the Earl and Countess of Minto, having the following objects:

1. To locate the graves of Canadians who have lost their lives in South Africa in the service of the Empire since the hostilities commenced in 1899. 2. To obtain

subscriptions for the purpose of valuing as much information as possible concerning the same.

—Mr. Horst, carpenter at the Action Co., worked under the guidance of their Excellencies, the Earl and Countess of Minto, having the following objects:

1. To locate the graves of Canadians who have lost their lives in South Africa in the service of the Empire since the hostilities commenced in 1899. 2. To obtain

subscriptions for the purpose of valuing as much information as possible concerning the same.

—Mr. Horst, carpenter at the Action Co., worked under the guidance of their Excellencies, the Earl and Countess of Minto, having the following objects:

1. To locate the graves of Canadians who have lost their lives in South Africa in the service of the Empire since the hostilities commenced in 1899. 2. To obtain

subscriptions for the purpose of valuing as much information as possible concerning the same.

—Mr. Horst, carpenter at the Action Co., worked under the guidance of their Excellencies, the Earl and Countess of Minto, having the following objects:

1. To locate the graves of Canadians who have lost their lives in South Africa in the service of the Empire since the hostilities commenced in 1899. 2. To obtain

subscriptions for the purpose of valuing as much information as possible concerning the same.

—Mr. Horst, carpenter at the Action Co., worked under the guidance of their Excellencies, the Earl and Countess of Minto, having the following objects:

1. To locate the graves of Canadians who have lost their lives in South Africa in the service of the Empire since the hostilities commenced in 1899. 2. To obtain

subscriptions for the purpose of valuing as much information as possible concerning the same.

—Mr. Horst, carpenter at the Action Co., worked under the guidance of their Excellencies, the Earl and Countess of Minto, having the following objects:

1. To locate the graves of Canadians who have lost their lives in South Africa in the service of the Empire since the hostilities commenced in 1899. 2. To obtain

subscriptions for the purpose of valuing as much information as possible concerning the same.

—Mr. Horst, carpenter at the Action Co., worked under the guidance of their Excellencies, the Earl and Countess of Minto, having the following objects:

1. To locate the graves of Canadians who have lost their lives in South Africa in the service of the Empire since the hostilities commenced in 1899. 2. To obtain

subscriptions for the purpose of valuing as much information as possible concerning the same.

—Mr. Horst, carpenter at the Action Co., worked under the guidance of their Excellencies, the Earl and Countess of Minto, having the following objects:

1. To locate the graves of Canadians who have lost their lives in South Africa in the service of the Empire since the hostilities commenced in 1899. 2. To obtain

subscriptions for the purpose of valuing as much information as possible concerning the same.

—