BRIEF LOCAL ITEMS.

- Saturday-the glorious Twelfth.-Indications point to a magnificent apple crop in this vicinity.

- The baseball team are preparing for a garden party in the park next week.

- The heavy rains of the past few weeks have been rather detrimental to the hay crop.

- Action Orangemen go to Oakville, on Saturday to attend the Orange celebration there.

- Saturday is the twelfth-the day of the Orangeman, the orange flag, the pipe and drum, and good King Billy.

- Strawberries are decidedly plentiful. The recent rains have brought them out in abundance and made them large and lucious.

- No electric light this evening. The lighting of the fixture of the power house failed to being replaced to-day. Consequently there will be no light to-night.

- The Biophilic Sunday School held their annual picnic in Plank's grove on Saturday afternoon. The children thoroughly enjoyed the outing and the good things provided.

- Action Cricket Band are in demand for garden parties just now. They attended one at Moffat on Friday evening, this with the St. Albans' and Methodist sociale making three all-ready this week.

- Swallow, Reeve Williams' fine carriage studion has been sold to Mr. John Kinnaird, of Alton, and left town on Monday after being seventeen years here. Swallow has been in Mr. Williams' possession for fourteen years and has always been a favorite.

- An exciting baseball match was played in the park on Saturday afternoon between a team picked from the glove factory and Beardmore's tannery and a team, from Story's tannery. The former team won after a fast and interesting game with a score of 11 to 8.

- The Globe of Tuesday contained an interesting article referring to the Hillsborough strawberry crop, speaking particularly of the lower part of the county and in the vicinity of Oakville, in which this year's crop is the largest and best crop for years. The fruit is so plentiful in that district that it cannot be harvested and all residents are engaged in picking and shipping. A great quantity of the fruit is being sent to Montreal.

- The seven o'clock bell rang an hour early on Tuesday morning and caused considerable consternation among the employees. The bell had stopped up when it rang and slipped off into the rafters and vanished out of sight. It was quickly jumped out of the rafters and brought back to work with a breakfast, caused of course. - It was quite a joke. - The accident occurred merely through a mistake. Oliver Graham and family were up an hour earlier than usual on Tuesday morning and were not aware of the mistake that was made.

- The eyes believe themselves; the other people.

- H. P. Moore, Issuer of Marriage Licenses, the Vital Statistics Office, Acton, is evidence in evidence. No witness required.

- The mind enables, not the body.

- CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY.

Lasaline Bromo Quinine Tablet. At least one tablet a day is safe to eat.

NEWS OF LOCAL IMPORT.

Knox Church Notes.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was observed on Sunday morning. The attendance was quite large. The Rev. S. S. Peale will be held this year as usual. Arrangements are now being made for time and place, and will be announced later. A grand garden party will be held at Willow Grove, the residence of Mr. Henry Sayers, Sayerside, on Tuesday evening, July 16. This is something for which every person should look forward. The service in charge will be glad to entertain guests up to 10 p.m. Next Sunday evening Rev. A. M. Macpherson will preach the topographical Bible. The Sacrament of Baptism will be held in Knox Church next Sabbath morning.

Newspaper Pavement.

The somewhat familiar experience of having the sidewalks around town rippled up again in evidence. This, while uncomfortable for a short time, however, gladly welcomed, for it means the return of more permanent pavement. Petitions were presented to the Council on Thursday evening and as a result, the Royal City "Grandstand Walk" Co., Ltd., commenced operations on Monday. During the first week the following walk will be laid. On Frederick St. from Church St. to Bowery Ave. on John St. Mill to Bowery Ave., and a longitudinal walk on Main St., from West Bowery Ave. to the end of the present board walk at Stoney's former. The extensive permanent walk laid in past years are certainly a great improvement and the new one will add to our town's clean appearance.

The New Methodist Pastor.

Rev. A. E. Smith, B. D., the new Methodist pastor, with Mrs. Smith and family arrived in town on Friday and are now installed at the new parsonage on Park Avenue. Mr. Smith preached his first sermon on Sunday and the guests wondered over on the lawn which had been provided with tables and a booth for the serving of the ever present ice-cream and other delicacies. At nine o'clock an interesting programme was begun which lasted for an hour and a half. Mr. A. E. Smith acted as chair man and he introduced the new pastor Rev. A. E. Smith, B. D., who afterwards presided. Short speeches were made by Revs. Godden and Macpherson, and Mr. D. Henderson, P. P., all full of welcome and friendliness to the new pastor. Salvo was given by Miss Neiklin and Laing and Mr. Ed. J. Morris. A quartette with violin and cello accompaniment by Miss Neiklin and Laing and Morris, L. Williams and Husband. The Sunday School Orchestra played several selections and the band, which always wednesday, was on hand and played numerous numbers.

St. Albans Garden Party.

The residence of Miss Moore, 1011 St. George Street, was the scene of a pleasing garden party last Thursday evening. A pleasant evening added to the enjoyment. In the orchard behind the residence the house had not been erected and tables spread and the indispensable cream and other good things were served for time and place, and will be announced later. A grand garden party will be held at Willow Grove, the residence of Mr. Henry Sayers, Sayerside, on Tuesday evening, July 16. This is something for which every person should look forward. The service in charge will be glad to entertain guests up to 10 p.m. Next Sunday evening Rev. A. M. Macpherson will preach the topographical Bible.
