

Coughing

"I was given up to die with quick consumption. I then began to use Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I improved at once, and am now in perfect health."—Chas. E. Hartman, Gibbstown, N. Y.

It's too risky, playing with your cough.
The first thing you know it will be down deep in your lungs and the play will be over. Begin early with Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and stop the cough.

Three times the strength for an ordinary dose, it cures colds, coughs, croup, whooping cough, and all other affections of the throat and lungs.

The Young Folks:

NOT THE KIND FOR HER.

"Tell me," said Mattilda, "do you think young Charlie Brown would make a husband for me?"
"No," said Amanda Green. "He is just a common fellow."
"I like him just as well," said Mattilda.
"He is not rich, and he is not handsome," said Amanda.
"I like him just as well," said Mattilda.
"He is not rich, and he is not handsome," said Amanda.

DANGEROUS FRIENDS.

"Keep the fellow who swears in all of your opinions at a safe distance. When you need his support the most you will find him a thousand miles off saying 'Yes' to someone whose side it is safe to be on. The mischief wrought by those well-lipped, kitten-eyed apologists for men cannot easily be measured. With honest endorsement of personal views and a full support they provoke conflict from which the man who is like a child from the incendiary contagion. If you have a conviction as big as a phyllophoran by it. Don't be one of those flibbering dilators who lend their voice to every fool who knows how to mislead, and who have come to you to select a name that will please his sister, sister and brother, grandparents, cousins, uncles, aunts and friends of the family and himself later on."

A BRIGHT STUDENT.

"Among the reminiscences of the days of '92 at Yale is the story of a stout and healthy-looking member who was told by his tutor that 'he was better fed than taught.' 'Yes, yes,' said the student, 'I do not understand myself. I feed myself,' was the reply."

DISASTROUS RESULTS.

"We wish to warn our young people against the folly of attending to the advertisement in a suit for divorce the victim of one of those many who say that they 'inadvertently and foolishly answered said advertisement.' This we can well believe, for a result was a ruined family, and the divorcee who was left with a broken heart and a ruined family."

PAIN'S CELYRY COMPOUND

Will Give You Health, Full Energy and Happiness.
Many men tell us in offices, stores and workshops during the hot summer weather, and women weighed down with the weight and care of home, are critically near the breaking-down point. The symptoms of coming sickness and disease are manifest in sleeplessness, nervousness, tired feelings, languidness, irritability, falling appetite and general loss of energy. Paine's Celyry Compound is a precious boon to the ailing, sick and run-down in this August weather. A bottle or two used at once will quickly bestow the needed strength to battle against the weariness and tiring effects of the oppressive heat, and will enable men and women to go through the necessary routine of daily toil with heart, soul and energy. Paine's Celyry Compound is specially distinguished for its ability to build up run-down systems in hot weather. Mrs. Mosson, of Mississauga, Ont., says: "I have much pleasure in giving my testimony in favor of Paine's Celyry Compound. I was entirely broken down by hard work, anxiety and sleeplessness, and had pains all through my body. Doctors' remedies had no effect, and nothing met my case until I used Paine's Celyry Compound. This medicine has done wonders for me, and I would strongly urge all sufferers to use it, as it is the best in the world."

MANY OF THOUGHT.

"Habit of thought has great power over attention and reflection. I once knew a lawyer of fine mind, who took the wrong side of questions for the sake of money. He was a man of high ability until he became the habit of his mind to do so, and he lost his original nicety of discrimination. I knew a girl who formed the habit of looking for the failures, and she finally saw something funny in everything. Another friend of mine, until she believed everybody. Both seemed to be good women."

SPITEFUL.

"Yes," said the engaged girl, "Dick is very methodical. He gives me one kiss when he comes and two when he goes away."
"That's always been his way," returned her devoted friend.
"I've heard lots of girls comment on it."
"That happened that they cease to speak to each other."

NURSING MOTHERS

A mother's poor health is bad enough for the mother but worse still for the nursing baby.
Mothers find Scott's Emulsion a nourishing and strengthening food. If the breast milk is scanty or thin Scott's Emulsion will make it rich and more abundant.

When mothers take Scott's Emulsion the babies share in the benefits. Thin babies grow fat. Weak babies get strong.

"Well, dad," cried the prodigal son blithely, "didn't you better tell the fattest calf?"

WHERE HE CAME FROM.

"It was in a mission Sunday School for orphans on the east side, and the black young chorister from Chicago was about to make a brief explanation of the staff work, somewhat as follows: 'I began with an audience, as he supposed, of exhibition which would have left Quintilian speechless with wonder and envy.'"

"Well, children, I figure some of you know where I came from." His own ingenuity warmed his heart as he saw "visions" of his stockyards stretch to come. But he promptly got a coldshower. "Oh, yes, we do!" spoke up shiny-faced young fellow. "An orator must follow his lead even if it isn't the one he desired. So the youthful minister, a slight shade of disappointment now on his forehead, turned to the audience and said: 'Well, where do you think I came from?'"

THE SWINDLER SWINDLED.

A man on his way to see a show-off held in Aberdeen met a chum, whom he asked "Are you game to see the show?" "No, no," replied the individual, "I've been ill and I can't afford it."
"Look here," said Jim, in a sudden burst of generosity, "I've a bad shillim in my pocket, if you care to try an' pass it on to me."
"Le's see a hand of it," said the chum, eagerly. "An' I'll do my best."

Accordingly it was handed over, and off they went together to have an evening's amusement. "When they reached the grounds, Willie walked boldly up to the pay box, put down the bad shillim, and was admitted. Jim was immediately at his back, and imagine his disgust when he put down a florin and got the bad shillim back as change!

AN IMPOSSIBLE TASK.

The committee waited upon the successful man.
"Your fame has preceded you," they said to him as he entered the room. He smiled broadly. "I am rather well known," he admitted modestly. "You have given names to sleeping cars, new cigars, health foods and public names that have pleased the public and your patrons?"

The successful man bowed.
"Well," said the spokesman, "we have a new baby in our house, and we have come to you to select a name that will please her sister, sister and brother, grandparents, cousins, uncles, aunts and friends of the family and herself later on."

Among the reminiscences of the days of '92 at Yale is the story of a stout and healthy-looking member who was told by his tutor that "he was better fed than taught."

CORRECTED HIS ERROR.

"With the Germans the absurdity of the Englishman is a stock source of wit. One of these deeply absorbed gentlemen, sitting on a boat, thought he knew a person sitting in front of him, and he spoke to him when the stranger by chance turned a little, the professor said that he was mistaken."

NEVER THESE, TOUCHING HIM ON THE SHOULDER, HE REMARKED POLITELY:

POVERTY IS THE REWARD OF IDLENESS.

WANTED.

"We would like to pay, through the columns of your paper, if there is any person who has used (Green's) Ancient Balm for the cure of indigestion, dyspepsia, and liver trouble that has not been cured—and we also mean their results, such as sour stomach, fermentation of food, habitual constipation, nervous dyspepsia, headache, despondent feelings, sleeplessness, in fact, any trouble connected with the stomach or liver? This medicine has been sold for many years in all civilized countries, and was the first to be prepared with you and read 'You are one of our books free of cost. If you never tried August-Flower, try one bottle first. We have never known of its failing. If so, something more serious is the matter with you. Sold by Wm. Ewking."

"A To the Weary Dyspeptic. We Ask This Question: Why don't you remove that weight at the pit of the stomach?"

Why don't you regulate that variable appetite, and condition the digestive organs so that it will not be necessary to starve the stomach to avoid distress after each meal?

The first step is to regulate the bowels. For this purpose Burdock Blood Bitters Has No Equal.

It acts promptly and effectually and permanently cures all derangements of digestion.

It enriches and purifies the blood, restores strength and energy to the feeble, and is a scientific restorative that was always popular. In chlorosis, anaemia, thinness, languor, brain fog, indigestion and dyspepsia its action is prompt, and satisfactory cures always follow. Yes, I recommend Ferrous to my customers because I believe it to be the best tonic and strengthening medicine that money can buy." Large boxes cost 25c.

DO CROWS REASON?

The following stories of the crow we have an authority of "Native Trails in Japan." They are related as happening in Yezo, the northern island of the empire, where these birds are a feature of the country: "There are millions of them, and in many places they bark the silence of the silent land with a babel of noisy discords. They are everywhere and have attained a degree of most unapproachable impudence, mingled with a cunning and sagacity which almost puts them on a level with man in some circumstances. Five of them were seen to ascend on to a light on two of my horses, and to be ferried across a river. In the inn garden at Mori I saw a dog eating a piece of bacon in the presence of several of these voracious birds. They evidently said a general deal to one another on the subject, and now and then one or two of them tried to pull the meat away from him, which he resented: 'At last a big, strong crow succeeded in tearing off a piece, with which he regaled himself to some extent; the others were congregated, and after much earnest speech they all surrounded the dog, and the leading bird dexterously dropped the small piece of meat within reach of his mouth, when he immediately stopped at it, amusingly letting go the big piece for a moment, and two of the crows flew away with it to the pine; and with much fluttering and hilarity they all ate it, the deceived dog looking vacant and bewildered all the time, after which he sat under the tree and barked at them."
