THURSDAY, MARCH 5, 1903.
BRIEF LOCAL ITEMS.

The maple sugar season will soon be on deck.
March came in with quite a lion-like attitude.

Mr. H. P. Moore had charge of the morning service at Silburn church last Sunday.

City Engineer Hutcheon, of Guelph, has been re-engaged at a salary of $1200.

Spring school is fast approaching "mother to quit" on Winter last Friday and Saturday.

Eight members of the A. O. U. W. drove to Elm on Monday night to visit their brethren there.

Guelph has another small snow, whose home with nine minutes is quarantined.

The strong March sunline is reducing the snow banks and causing the sleighing to disappear.

Mr. John J. Lawson, carpenter and contractor, made an assignment last week for the benefit of his creditors.

The Methodist Sunday School hopes soon to install a fine new library. The friends of the school are generously contributing to the fund for this purpose.

Mr. A. T. Brown has been appointed agent for Acton and vicinity for the handsome wall papers handled by C. L. Nelles, the big wall paper man of Guelph.

The auction sale of farm, farm stock and implements, the property of John Walters, lot 27, con. 1, Esopus, was postponed from Saturday last to next Saturday, 7th March, at one o'clock.

HASSAGAWICVA.
Three of Mr. David Taylor's family at Carewin, contracted scarlet fever, but no recovering.

A party of young gentlemen from Brockwood, evidently a little short of change, attempted giving a dime concert in Brockville hall a week ago last Friday evening to a good-sized audience. They should be advised to give the art of playing a little more study before their next attempt, and thus save themselves the humiliation of being hoisted off the stage.

The Pioneer of All Malt-Wheat Foods.

Malt Breakfast Food is the greatest pioneer of all malt-wheat foods. In Malt Breakfast food the distaste of Malt was that used to increase the digestibility, flavor and food value of wheat. No process since brought out into the market equalled that employed in the manufacture of this food and popular Malt Breakfast Food. It is good to eat. It pleases young and old; it furnishes the greatest amount of nourishment; it is the most economical of cereal foods. It is gaining more completely every day the names of friends who give it "the altogether satisfactory breakfast food." Physicians say it far surpasses all other grain foods. All grocers sell it.

Everything new and priced to suit the times at Marshall's jewelry store.

Now is the time to get your thing placed, put in good running order. I guarantee satisfaction or money refunded. A. T. Marshall, the Jeweller.

You will also find a fine line of watches, clocks and jewelry at the new jewelry store on Main Street next door to Kenney Bros. store.

It never pays to fool with dishonest people, for you are sure to get the worst of it every time.
