

An Ancient Foe
To health and happiness is Berberis—
an ugly as ever since time immemorial.
It causes bunches in the neck, disfigures the skin, induces the mucous membrane, wastes the muscles, weakens the bones, reduces the power of resistance to disease, and the capacity for recovery, and develops into cancer.

"Two of my children had berberis scars which I could not get rid of and kept them from going to school for three months. Old timers and midwives did not good until I began giving them Hood's Sarsaparilla. This medicine caused the scars to disappear and the signs of scalds to fade away."

Hood's Sarsaparilla
will rid you of it, radically and permanently, as it has red thousands.

TRouble-PROOF.

Never again where Jim is—
People kickin', whinin'
He goes round bawlin'
"Sun is almost shinin'"
Never's but where Jim is—
When the town is sweatin'
He's set and settin'
Well, I am afeart'?

None of all where Jim is—
None of us micht it it,
Seet! we're high frosten'
He's al'ad though about it?

Things that ride up others—
Never seem to fit him—
Trotting along, I call it—
Wish that I was like him!

—Edwin L. Salmon, in "Lippincott's Magazine."

LAW TO GO.

Don't stick to money like a burr to a cow's tail when other people have a legal or moral claim on it. There is an old farmer down east who rides into town on the rear seat of the trolley, so as to hang on to his fare until the last possible minute. There are plenty of men in business just like this old scrooge, who carry around in their pockets or hold in their banks money that does not belong to them. The man who knowingly keeps money a minute longer than it belongs to him is a rogue. What business have you to compel a man to ask you back again for what is his? What right have you to demand a man to pay off his own? By rights the borrower is a servant of the lender, and instead of the latter seeking repayment the borrower should seek him. "Say not unto thy neighbor 'go and come again to me' tomorrow I will give thee; when thou hast it by thee."—Confucius.

HOW BRIGHT CHILDREN ARE SHIPILED.

It is a wise mother that does not unduly stimulate the self consciousness of her child and thus lay the foundation for life-long habits of affection. If clever children do not always make clever men and women, a partial reason may be found in the way they are commonly treated. They find grown-up people constantly on the watch to hear, and most industrious in repeating their original speeches, and soon they exchange the gift of originality, which comes in seeing and expressing things in an unconventional manner, for the very inferior gift of being smart-speechless. They are thus forced by the very education of their elders into taking conventional instead of unconventional views, and speaking, as it were, to the "gallery" instead of uttering spontaneous truths.

THE VALUE OF A LAUGH.

It is said that when Lady Jeme first planned her scheme of a Children's Happy Evening Association she was generally laughed at by some of her friends in the London "Tat-Hill," Lady Jeme merely smiled at criticism, but when the association was working well she invited that lady to be present upon one evening. The critic was speedily turned into the admirer. "Ah, my dear friend," said Lady Jeme, "if no one had laughed at my scheme, it would have been a sure sign that it would fail. Nothing worth doing is ever accomplished without ridicule."

HE GOT EVEN.

The late Paul Leicester Ford had, on every one knows, a deformity of the spine. Any reference to this he resented, sometimes with considerable acrimony.

On one occasion in Ford's youth he paid an overhanded compliment to a girl whom he admired.

"You are," he said, "the handsomest young woman I have ever seen."

The girl vexed, answered rudely: "With what I could say as much for you, Mr. Ford."

"You could," Ford retorted, "if you would lie as I did."

FIFTY CENTS.

A MONTH

A small bottle of Scott's Emulsion costing fifty cents will last a baby a month—a few drops in its bottle each time it is fed. That's a small outlay for so large a return of health and comfort.

Babies that are given Scott's Emulsion quickly respond to its helpful action. It seems to contain just the elements of nourishment a baby needs most.

Ordinary food frequently lacks this nourishment; Scott's Emulsion always supplies it.

COMPANIONSHIP.

This tendered power of companionship is of singular force and bestowed special blessing in hours of grief and suffering. Half the world becomes its incapacity to undergo grief, or soothe the sorrows of bereavement. There is a dominant and irreducible, though unknown, note of self which thwarts the affectionate desire of the heart-seeking to comfort the sufferer. In its home of trial a man's spirit can only be comforted by those with whom there is that "satisfying companionship" in silent meanness. The beautiful perfection of such love, or friendship, or devotion has to be built up in the disputation of controversy and a readiness to comprehend fully what it cannot share.—Register.

A Successful Medicine.—Everyone wishes to be successful in any undertaking in which he may enter. It is, therefore, extremely gratifying to the proprietors of Mrs. Paine's Vegetable Pills to know that their efforts to compound a medicine that would prove a blessing to mankind have been successful beyond their expectation. The endorsement of these pills by the public is a guarantee that the pill has been produced which will put everything claimed for it.

If you hit the mark, aim a little above it. Every arrow that flies feels the attraction of the earth.—Longfellow.

How an abscess in the Fallopian Tubes of Mrs. Hollinger was removed without a surgical operation.

"I had an abscess in my side in the fallopian tube (the fallopian tube is a connection between the ovaries and the womb) and misery and was agony. I could scarcely get around. The sharp burning pains low down in my side were terrible. My physician said there was no help for me unless I would go to the hospital and be operated on. I would not let anyone touch me after his own operation. I could hardly bear it. I tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, "A. T. Brown, Acton, Ont.

A man who dares to waste an hour of time has not learned the value of life.—Charles Darwin.

Severe colds are easily cured by the use of Bickley's Anti-Consumptive Syrup, a medicine of extraordinary penetrating and healing properties.

It is acknowledged by those who have used it as being the best medicine sold for colds, catarrhs, inflammation of the lungs, and all afflictions of the throat and chest. Its agreeableness to the taste makes it a favorite with ladies and children.

Misn't the occasion; by the fore-jack take; that subtle power, the never-failing time.—Wordsworth.

A Scientific Voice Improver.

Because of its strengthening influence upon the vocal chords, Catarrhozone cannot be too highly recommended as a wonderful voice improver. It almost instantly removes hoarseness and harshness, thus insuring clearness and brilliancy of tone. Catarrhozone keeps the mouth and nose in perfect condition, and its regular use absolutely prevents colds and throat irritation, thereby removing the singer's greatest source of anxiety, multness of voice.

The most eminent speakers and prima donnas would not be without Catarrhozone and speak in no small degree of their uniform strength and brilliancy of tone to its influence. The hard rubber inhaler fits conveniently into a purse or vest pocket, and may be used in the church, theatre, any place or time. Complete outfit $1.00. Small size 25c. Druggists, Pulson & Co., Kingston, Ont.

Courage consists not in having, without fear, but being ready-minded in a just cause.—Plutarch.

Strength and vigor come of good food, duly digested. "Force," a ready-to-serve wheat and barley food adds no burden, but sustains, nourishes, invigorates.

It's a wise man that knows her own fopper.

As the Oil Rubs in, the Pain Rubs Out.—Applied to the seat of a pain in any part of the body the skin absorbs the soothing liniment under brisk friction and the patient obtains almost instant relief. The results of the use of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil have surprised many who were unacquainted with its qualities, and once known it will not be rejected. Try it.

Fans are now moving in the best society.

Some men convince themselves by trying to persuade others.

A Carefully Prepared Pill. Much time and attention were expended in the experimenting with the ingredients that enter into the composition of Parmede's Vegetable Pill, but the result is the best in the state, in which they were first offered to the public. Whatever other pills may be, Parmede's Vegetable Pills are the result of much expert study, and all persons suffering from dyspepsia or disorders, liver and kidneys may confidently accept them as being what they are represented to be.

When ill news comes too late to be serviceable to your neighbour, keep it to yourself. Zimmerman.

WITH OTHER YOU AN APPETITE.

And a stomach to take care of it, a digestion that will fill your arteries with rich blood; if weak, it will strengthen your heart; will make the liver discharge its proper functions. Ferrozine will do all this and more too. Ferrozine will increase your nerve force, and capacity for mental labor, and will make work a real pleasure. Every man, woman and child can derive benefit from Ferrozine. At all druggists.

True friends visit us in prosperity when only invited, but in adversity they come without invitation. Their visitations.

Nothing looks more ugly than to see a person whose hands are covered over with warts. Why have these disfigurements on your person, when a sure remedy of all warts, corns, etc., can be found in Holloway's Corn Cure?
