

Get the Most Out of Your Food

You don't eat and can't get your stomach to work. A weak stomach does not digest all that is ordinarily taken into it.

Among the signs of a weak stomach, are unreasoning after eating, flatulence, nervous headache, and disagreeable belching.

"I have been troubled with dyspepsia for years, and tried every remedy I could find until I took Hood's Sarsaparilla. I cannot praise its merits too highly for the good it has done me. I always take it in the morning and fall asleep without it."

Hood's Sarsaparilla Strengthens and Tones the stomach and the whole digestive system.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 3, 1903.

IT'S AT IT AGAIN.

Major-General Thadon Powell was asked to write a few lines for a particular leaflet.

Tell me not in accents dreary That you think I'm a coward.

Cash is useful, cash is scanty. At our efforts do not grieve.

Wives of great ones oft remind them They could make their wives a present.

And departing leave behind them What to us is quite as pleasant.

Soberness, which perhaps another, After consulting his slaves, Some famous and stately brother, Seeing him, adds something more.

Let us then be up and speaking, With a surety such as this, And our wishes still extending, Learn to purchase and to pay!

They make you feel good. The pleasant purgative effect experienced by all who use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets.

Self-possession is nine points with the lawyer.

Pain Disappear Before It.—No one need suffer pain when they have the available Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil.

It is the bride of advanced years who speaks the most plyingly of an old maid.

"Traveller's" headaches are quickly relieved by Millburn's Sterling Headache Powder.

Immediately, now, did you ever have a really good time at a "church social"?

Mrs. Wm. Gresham Shepperton, Ont., writes: "I have given my boy Dr. Low's Worm Syrup, and find it an excellent worm medicine."

When money talks it seldom has any trouble in finding a listener.

FIFTY CENTS A MONTH. A small bottle of Scott's Emulsion costing fifty cents will last a baby a month.

Babies that are given Scott's Emulsion quickly respond to its helpful action.

Ordinary food frequently lacks this nourishment; Scott's Emulsion always supplies it.

RED ROSE TEA is packed in six grades—25, 30, 35, 40, 50 and 60 cents per pound.

Be Quick.

Not a student should be lost after a child shows symptoms of cholera infantum.

"We'll some ways I'd like to see some ways I wouldn't," said Farmer Bantow.

"If you are a sufferer from kidney disease, liver complaint, blood troubles, rheumatism, neuralgia or nervous prostration, we confidently recommend the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Some men are born great; some achieve greatness, and others manage to grow so like such day.

To Cure a Croup in One Night. Apply Putnam's Patent Corn and Wart Extractor.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me after doctors had failed.

My husband is going to miss me when I finally begin to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

The boy who never had a grand-mother is going to miss her precious recollections when he is a man.

Considered with reference to its recuperative effect, there is not so much good in the ordinary vacation as there is in a single bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla.

The small boy always wonders if his mother will ever get over being surprised at the things he does.

It takes a bachelor with money to exterminate the weeds from a young widow's bonnet.

Bilious?

Dizzy? Headache? Pain back of your eyes? It's your liver! Use Ayer's Pills.

Want your moustache or beard a beautiful brown or rich black? Use BUCKINGHAM'S DYE.

Some men look upon home as being merely a place where they can rest up for the next day's work.

In Nature's Storehouse There are Cures.—Medical experiments have shown conclusively that there are medicinal virtues in even ordinary plants growing up around us.

A good stomach is sometimes as useful as brains in helping a man along in the world.

HERE AND THERE.

An Episcopal clergyman of Cincinnati was being shaved by a barber who was addicted to occasional profanity.

"You see, Jackson, that comes from taking too much drink," said the man of God.

"You, sah," replied Jackson, "it ain't no drink, but it's the man of God."

"What are you talking on your hands for, Jimmy?"

"Cause papa said that if the stock market went right he'd take me and mamma for a trip around the world."

"Of course you'll be up-side-down part of the way. Me and pa can stand it, I guess, but it's going to be hard on mamma."

A Minnesota travelling man struck a small town a few days ago, and put up at a hotel where the accommodations were nothing to brag of.
