Death of Mrs. Rev. T. R. Forbes. News has been received here of the death at Wapells, Assinibols, of the wife of Roy. T. R. Forbes, who resided in Acton some years ago as pastor of the Congregational churches at Churchill and Caladon. Mrv. Forbas was soized with dysentery and died on Saturday, Sept. 5th after eighteen days lilness. She was indeed a loving wife and companion and was a great ducted to the pastorate of the Presbyterian Church in that town on Aug. 5th and has been laboring there until the time of Mrs. Forbes' death. Priends were extend sympathy to their former

Many hearts in Acton were saildened last Saturday when the news reached town of the death the day before, in the parsonage at Hanover, of Rev. J. E. Howell, M. A. Mr. Howell was in good health two or three weeks before, when his daughter Miss Lucie was married, and his illness was of rather briefduration. The funeral took place on Tuesday at Belleville, the old home. Mr. Howell was the paster of the Muthedist Church here for three years-1801-06-and has always been held in loving remembrance by the congregation. Ho popufar and successful was bushere that he was paid, during the whole of his twotorate, the highest salary over said by the Methodist Church, Acton. Twice last year he was called from Hanover to officiate at the burial of members of the congregation here. Mr. Howell was born in Prince Edward County. near Rolleville, on August 1st, 185. He graduated from Victoria University in 1803 and taught for a your in Athert University, & Belleville. entered the ministry in 1864 and was just closing his fortloth year of service for God. His ministry throughout was evangelistic and was marked by the ingathering of hundreds of converts. He was elected President of the Quelph Conference in 1880, and was sent to General Conference at four of its quadronnial sessions. Mrs.

Howell, who is in much better health

The Coming of Fall

Means New Autumn Millinery. New Autumn Suits. New Autumn Wearing Apparel of Every Description.

The White House, Guelph

Has been preparing for months for easily twice the fall business in the store's history. The rapid growth of this business under the new 25 and 27 Wyndham Stroot management has been a matter of surprise to everyone acquainted with this store. To-day we point with considerable pride to the fact that we have one of-the most attractive stores in Guelph, a stock of Fall Dry Goods, Millinery and Mantles that will compare favorably with anything they recently challenged. They re- Athens-on-the-Hudson, a pretty river- shown this season, and best of all, a volume of business that will compare favorably with stores of many years growth.

There's a Reason for all This.

We think it is because our customers are assured of getting reliable stylish goods at their real value. In marking goods we are not asking ourselves "How much the article will bring," but "How little can we afford to sell it at. .. And then another important factor-We give our customers the very best attention and do anything within reason to gain and hold your trade.
