BRIEF LOCAL ITEMS.

Caledon East has a new G. T. R. station.

Sunday next sees the advent of November.

The full wheat harvest is looking exceptionally well.

Ladies' Aid Social in the Methodist Church next Tuesday evening, 3d Nov.

Mr. Agnew is having the electric light installed in his new residence on Park Avenue.

Mr. Cook has shipped over a thousand barrels of apples and expects to double the amount.

Apple barrels are at a premium at present. Some cooperers of this vicinity are asking 50c for them.

Capt. Ford and Galloway were in town on Tuesday inspecting the Armory and Drill Shed at the park.

Mr. R. E. Nelson has been elected chairman of the Board of Directors of the Elliott Home for the Friendless, Guelph.

Don't fail to hear Harold Jarvis, one of America's greatest vocalists, in the town hall to-morrow evening.

Complaints still reach the Free Press at Mill Street crossing being blocked by trains longer than the legal time.

The annual convention of the Ontario Lord's Day Alliance will be held in Guild Hall, Toronto, on Friday, 6th Nov.

Mr. H. P. Moore will address Sunday School at Mono on next Sunday. He will also have charge of the evening service.

Mr. J. R. Moshier has arranged to handle Horton's flour at the mill here, and will continue the business carried on by his late father.

Though he is disposed of his household effects Dr. McKeague is still in his office and will be until the middle of November.

One of the best sales held in this section for a long time, Saturday, on Saturday for Dr. McCauley by Auctioneer Henstrive.

The Bryan Brothers' at Hanlan's Point, finished threshing 38 acres of barley last week, and got a little over 50 bushels to the acre.

Communion services will be held in the Methodist Church next Sunday, Love Feast at 10.15 a.m., sermon at 11 with sacrament at close of service.

The programme for the High School entertainment in the 15th November is progressing very satisfactorily and will be one of real merit and pleasure.

Some clothing and valubiles found on the lake shore Oakville lead to the belief that Mr. D. McGregor, formerly manager of the Bank of Commerce at Galt, has drowned himself.

Mr. W. J. Chapman has transformed the appearance of his residence on Church Street. The grafting and sodding of the grounds and palings of the residence have vastly improved the place.

Mr. L. A. Ewald, of the branch of Hespeler, has been added to the staff of the Merchants' Bank. There are now five on the staff of the bank here, two of whom will spend three days each week at Rockwood.

NEWS OF LOCAL IMPORT.

Methodist Ladies' Aid Social.
The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist Church have changed the date of the social from the 5th Nov. to the 3rd next Tuesday. The programme will be an interesting one and the opportunity for social intercourse will be enjoyed.

Cowchin Plowing Match.
The eighth annual plowing match at Cowchin will be held on the farm of Mr. Robt. McFarlane and Rev. Rold. Watt, lots 10 and 15, 10th concession, on Thursday, Nov. 5th. A good prize list is presented.

An Moustelling Cigarettes to Boys.
It is reported that for some time past no hostler has had a cigarette box, being supplied cigarettes to boys. That holder is liable to find himself in serious trouble if he persists in this business, for all alleged sales are illegal not only to boys but to any other purchasers.

Two Papers in One Paper Town.
Another evidence of the futility of endeavoring to run two local papers in a town under 2,500 or 3,000 population at hand. We have before us the last number of the Vergis Canaria in which Mr. Mills, the competent and energetic publisher, gives his valedictory address. For five years the Canadian has been well conducted, but it found the News-Record, with its prestige of forty years of honorable history, too strong a rival, and was forced to submit to the Vergis. The last issue appeared of that week to the New Bedford. This experience has been seen over and again in Canada and the United States where a second paper has entered the field in a town capable of the living support of but one.

Harding-McConnell.

A quiet wedding took place last Wednesday night at the residence of Mr. Leslie Holmes, 9 Alice Street, Toronto, when Miss Maggie McConnell became the bride of Mr. Albert Harding. Mr. Norman Graham, cousin of the bride, acted as best man. Miss May McConnell and Miss Violet McLaughlin were bridesmaids. Rev. Jas. McHugh, of Eskdale Street Presbyterian, officiated.

The Odellfows' Concert To-morrow.

The success of the Harold Jarvis Concert to-morrow evening in the town hall, under the management of Acton Lodge I. O. O. F., is assured. Every seat which was reserved is now taken and tickets are still in demand. They are, however, a large number of seats open to general admission, and the Odellfows expect to sell them out, so that all who attend comfortable. Doors will be open early and those who have failed in securing reserved seats are advised to reach the hall half an hour at least before the concert commences.

With such an array of talent as Harold Jarvis, F. E. Gresley, etc.

At DEATH'S DOOR.

THE STORY OF THE RECOVERY OF MISS FALFORD, OF ST. ELIE.

She Says "I am Confident that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Saved My Life"—Hope for Weak, Sickly Girls.

To be well, to be strong, to possess a clear complexion, bright eyes and an elastic step, the blood must be pure and filled with life-giving energy. When you are pale, sickly and weak, easily tired, subject to headache, backache, and to frequent irritation of the heart, let the blood that is at fault in the body be purified especially the patient passes into that condition known as "decaying" and death follows. The one sure, positive way to obtain rich, red, health-giving blood is to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. This medicine has saved thousands of young girls from a premature death. Strong right-ticks is offered in the cure of Miss Zanadie Falford, of St. Elie, Quebec. Miss Falford tells the story of her sickness and recovery as follows: "Like many other Canadian girls, I went to the United States and found employment in a factory at Woonsocket. The close, indoor work proved too much for me and nearly ended in my death. At first I was able to pursue my journey to my home, but was so much changed and emaciated that my friends hardly knew me. Two weeks after my return I was forced to take my bed. I had a bad cough, was disturbed by terrible dreams, and sometimes passed whole nights without sleep. Two doctors treated me, but without avail; so I was steadily growing weaker; in fact I could not hold my hand above my head for more than three or four seconds, and had to be turned in bed. No one expected I would get better, and I thought myself I was about to die. At this time my brother came from Montreal to see me, and strongly urged me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. A supply of pills was procured, and now I blow the dust I began taking them. It is enough to say that before three boxes were used I began to feel better, and from that I grew stronger every day. By the time I had taken nine or ten boxes I was once more enjoying the blessing of perfect health. No symptoms of the old trouble remain, and I am confident Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have cured me."

After several weeks ill in bed from a spirituallly baptized Church, and failing, the widow of the late Rev. W. Nicklin died at the home of her brother, Oliver Lansley, near Crowsnest, last Monday evening. Mrs. Nicklin had resided in Acton until about four years ago when she took up her residence with her brother. It was her intention, however, to return to her residence here this fall and preparations for removal were in progress when she was taken ill. Mrs. Nicklin was the daughter of the late Oliver Lansley, one of the respected pioneers of this section. She was born in Nichol on Nov. 5th, 1886, and moved with her parents to Acton when but a child. She was married to the late Rev. W. Nicklin 25 years ago. There were no children by this union. Mrs. Nicklin was a life-time member of the Methodist Church here. The funeral will be held this afternoon at two o'clock at Fairview Cemetery.

The Kinn-Kough Concert.

Rev. Mr. Brown provided a very excellent musical and literary standpoint. Mrs. Alice Killin-Kough, the prima donna soprano, won the hearts of all by her splendid rendering of both classical and popular arias. Mrs. Terry proved herself an eloquent and of rare skill and was happy in the selection of her various numbers. The selections by Mr. James Yester, etc., were all received with great applause.

The people in Milton are boasting of their few runs of cotton walks like
