THE LUCKY THIRTEEN.

She left the house and stood away And made a man's life a g in May,
She introduced to us, to-day Her thirteen downy chicks.

She had a right to chuck and strut, For when of eggs there was a glut, She quite forgot her living, but Her works do follow her—tut, tut!

She comes with them chicklets.
One day, when we forgot to hatch
The garden gate, she took her batch And scattered down the garden patch And my poor little chicklets.

For thirteen hungry chicks.

She has no equal in her class, For quickly raising "garden suns."
When she first left to go to grass—But that's our fault, I suppose.

"We need her fifteen chicks."

—Alison Seeger.

It play be so good a fete to have all of a little girl's petitions! The same length will be to have everything that goes on the stove cooked at the same time.

Every bush that comes home to us is a moral call, bidding us rise to a new position.—Goethe.

Effort lies not in escaping evil but in meeting, realising, and overcoming it bravely.—Smiles.

The greatest sympathy man can show to man is to help him do his best.—Mulock.

Many Merchants
Deceiving Their Lady Customers.

From time to time The Wells & Richardson Co., Limited, manufacturers of the popular DIAMOND DYES, receive letters from people residing in the various provinces of Canada, telling of the attempts of retail merchants to induce the ladies to buy weak, adulterated and worthless package dyes when the reliable DIAMOND DYES are asked for.

These efforts of retail merchants to substitute worthless dyes, should be represented by every woman and girl who has a desire to do successful home coloring.

The merchants who try to substitute and deceive the public, do so for the sake of the big profits they receive.
Such merchants care little for the comfort and success of their customers.

Successful home dying can only be done by the use of DIAMOND DYES, which are all guaranteed to give perfect results in beautiful, bright and never-fading colours.

This month The Wells & Richardson Co., Limited, Montreal, P.Q., will send free to any address now Diamond Dye Bottle and pretty Souvenir Card for every. You should have them.

Doing good is the only certain happy action of a man's life.—Sir P.
Sidney.

Caught Cold While Hunting a Burilar.

Mr. Wm. Thor, Laronger, provincial constable at Chapleau, Ontario, says:
"I caught a severe cold while hunting a burlar in the forest swamp last fall.
Hearing of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, I tried it, and after using two small bottles, I was completely cured." This remedy is intended especially for coughs and colds. It will loosen and relieve a severe cold less time than by any other treatment and is a favorite wherever its superior excellence has become known. For sake of all druggists.

THE FAVORITE GIRL.

She is the girl who is not "too bright and too good," to be able to find joy and happiness all over the world, says the Chicago News.

She is the girl who appreciates the fact that she cannot always have the first choice of everything in the world.

She is the girl who is not aggressively and does not find joy in inciting aggressive people.

She is the girl who has tact enough not to say the very thing that will cause the skeleton in her friends' closet to rattle his bones.

She is the girl who, whether it is warm or cold, clear or stormy, finds no fault with the weather.

She is the girl who, when you invite her to any place, compliment you by looking her best.

She is the girl who makes this world a pleasant place because she is amplyanted herself.

WITH THE SABRES.

Life never seems so clear and easy when the heart is beating fast at the sight of some generous, self-flaunting deed. We feel, no doubt, then what is the highest prize the soul can win; we almost believe in our power to attain it.—George Eliot.

We may safely call that man happy who, however lowly his position and limited his possessions, can always hope for more than he has, and feel that every moment of exertion tends to realise his inspiration.—Professor Stanley Leane.

Concern yourself not too much with the past. Now is the only point of time of great moment to you. If you devote yourself to now, the past will be behind, the future a present realization.—Joseph Russell Clark.

An aspiration is a joy forever, a possession as solid as a landed estate, a fortune which we can never exhaust, and which gives us year by year a revenue of pleasurable activity.—Robert Louis Stevenson.

SOCIAL STRUCTURES OF LIQUOR.

Restrictions regarding intoxicants are now being adopted by many of the leading fraternal lodges and social orders in America. Grand Master Masonic Lodge of the Free Masons, has issued a mandate prohibiting intoxicants in the Masonic Temple in Philadelphia, and similar measures are pending in several other large centres. In Georgia there is not only restriction on liquor, but the liquor dealer himself is debarred from their orders. The Knights of Pythias have issued a similar pronouncement that those engaged in the liquor business shall be eligible to membership in their organization. The new statute read: "He must not be a professional gambler, saloon-keeper, bartender, or dealer in spirituous, vinous or malt liquors."

EFFECT OF STEADY WORK.

Dr. John S. Holte, the famous southern surgeon, said in one his surgical lectures at the State college:

"It is always rather bad taste for a physician to boast of being busy.
Physicians, unfortunately, and gravely so, only cause discomfort when they allude to good times and prosperity.

"There was an old man who applied to the minister of the little village of Point Rock for the post of graveyard keeper. He referred him to the minister and said: 'Assign him to the graveyard. He would be paid much a grave.'

"The graveyard keeper overheard the price, finally accepting it.

"'Well, I get steady work,' he boasted.

"'Steady work?' said the minister.
'Land-skeks, man, with steady work you'd bury all Point Rock in a week!'

"IT WAS GREAT."

The Vic's daughter: "I'm glad to find you've turned over a new leaf, Mugger, and don't waste your money at the public house."

"Mugger: "Yes, just. I have it in my bag now, and that do come cheap!"

THE MAJOR WAS BOLD TO.

Major Green said to his servant one morning: "James, I have lost my mess boots out. I want them soon."

"Yes, sir," the servant said.

The Major, drawing for dinner, said that you did as I told you about those boots."

James held thirty-five cents on the hand. "Yes, sir," said he, "and this is all I could get for them; though the corporal who bought 'em said he'd have given half a dollar if pay day hadn't been so far off."

CANADIAN WOMEN FIND RELIEF

The Case of Ellen Walby Is One of Thousands Made by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Some persons are more susceptible to colds than others, contracting dysentery of the pulmonary organs from the slightest causes.

These should always have at hand a bottle of Bickie's Anti-Consumptive Syrup, the present day sovereign remedy for cough, catarrhal inflammation of the lungs. It will effect a cure no matter how severe the cold may be. You cannot afford to be without a remedy like Bickie's, for it will help to do away with an aching lack. Hours of misery are avoided when Bickie comes from sick kidneys, and a lot of trouble sick kidneys cause in the world.

Thousands of Canadian Women, however, have found relief with the aid of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, the most famous home regulator and therapeutic agent in the medical science. It cures the condition which causes so much discomfort and makes life a burden to their infants.

Ellen Walby, of Wellington, Ont., writes:

Your Vegetable Compound was recommended to me to take for my mother every month and with which I have been a sufferer for many years.
After taking it for a month, my mother, finally becoming disengaged with discomfort and distress, has been a regular patient of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am glad that I did, for within a short time I began to feel regular, no, and without pain.
This seems to be true and without pain, and I am still taking it.

Women who are troubled with painful irregular periods, headache, flatulence, dysentery, diarrhoea, constipation, etc., should take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as it is the only safe and reliable medicine which can be used to relieve these ailments.

Known to thousands, —Parmede's Vegetable Pills regulate the action of the secretions, purify the blood and keep the stomach and bowels free from detrimental matter. Takes according to direction they will overcome dyspepsia, constipation, diarrhoea, flatulence, griping, spasmodic colic, hiccups, etc. They are a safe and powerful medicine.

Ellen Walby, of Wellington, Ont., writes:

My husband and I have been taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for over twenty-five years and have been well pleased with its effects. Thousands have been cured by us.
