ROCKWOOD.

The liquor licenses have been granted for the hotels here as usual.
There will be a function of the Methodist Church here on Thursday evening, 23rd May, both unique and interesting. It will be a reunion of the various congregations of Rockwood district, and will be held in the town hall. There will be addresses by Rev. J. C. Arthur, D.D., of Galt, a prince of platform speakers, who charmed an audience here last November; by Rev. W. J. Smith, B.A., the honored chairman of the District, and by Rev. J. T. Hall, the eloquent pastor of the Presbyterian Church. Vocal music will be provided by a union choir from the churches of the circuit, and these will probably be assisted by several leading singers from Guelph. Refreshments will be served at the personsage funds.

Remember the date of Chas. J. Western's visit to Acton. He is an ophthalmic specialist and if the glasses you now wear require changing, do not neglect the opportunity of having them properly attended to. Brown's Drug Store, Tuesday, May 7th.

The Women's Institute will hold their meeting on May 3rd at 3 p.m. This is the annual meeting for the selection of officers and also an exhibition of sewing. Every member is expected to make up some article, and prizes will be given for the neatest and best made articles. A committee will be at the council chamber on Thursday evening, May 2nd, from 7 to 8:30 o'clock. Intending exhibitors will please call and get their entry tickets. All entries free. All articles will have to be in the hall at 9 o'clock Friday morning so as to give the judges plenty of time. The members of the Institute will provide refreshments at the close of the programme. Everybody welcome. Admission 5c.

An Expensive Friday Night Carousal.
The carousal here have very promptly taken a cue from the License Commissioners' recent resolution respecting drunkenness on the streets of Toronto at the annual Acton House which was last Friday night a number of drunks parading the streets and making the night hideous with their fighting and profanity. There were several rows in the vicinity of the Hamilton Hotel, and the Acton House, which were most disgraceful. On Monday Chief Lawson laid information against five of these disturbers of the peace, charging them with being drunk and disorderly and using profane language. Four of them came before H. J. Moore, Justice of the Peace, on Tuesday, pleaded guilty and were fined $2.00 each and costs. The fifth cleared out to escape being served. A blue paper will be promptly presented if he returns to town. It will be difficult for the hotelmen to persuade the public that they are in any respect anxious to preserve the public peace when they put up extra bartenders on Friday nights and sell to all and sundry until many go reeling on the streets, and the next day find every one creating disturbances and offend peaceful citizens by their drunken actions and blasphemous language. The authorities are determined to put down drunkenness as fast as possible in town, and all those who do not further reflections justly made by the License Commissioners as to the proper policing of Acton in regard to drunkenness on the streets.

Station Teachers in Convention.
The annual convention of Halton Teachers' Institute will be held in Milton on Wednesday and Thursday, 22nd and 23rd May. Principal W. H. Stewart, of Acton, who is the President of the Institute, will take the chair at 10 a.m. on Thursday morning. He will give the opening address, which is entitled "How to Make our Pupils Polite." Mr. R. D. Gault, Georgetown, will speak on "Pencil English," and Miss Kathleen Laugan will give "A Primary Class in Oral Composition to Develop Thought and Expression." In the afternoon Mr. Geo. Graham will treat of "A Class in Entrance Arithmetic." Mr. Duncan, the Inspector, on "What I See," and Miss Minnie Holmes will demonstrate "Method of Securing Rapid Addition." Miss Tait, Miss Ryan and Miss A. Ryan will show how they teach their pupils to spell. Mr. McCreary and Miss Currie will report the proceedings of the Ontario Educational Association. In the evening Mr. H. D. Gault, B.A., will give an address on "Macholi," and a musical programme will be rendered. On Thursday Mr. John Dearness, M.A., will give three addresses: "Methods of Nature Study," "Conditioning," and "Bibliography of Spelling and Writing." Miss E. M. Ely will speak on "Color Work in Art," and Miss Daisy Nicklin will give a talk on "Physiological Chemistry." The closing address will be given by Mr. J. T. Latta, B.A., on "Words Composed by Miss Emily, the Heroine of 'The World' and the effect of the red light and artifice dressing and grouping was very pretty. Rev. Mr. Wilson was chairman.

Free Press Printing Always Pleasant.
The Press Printing has just received a lot of new type and borders for the job department. In order to keep down the prices in latest styles. Our printing invariably pleases a customer in Arthur wrote as follows on Monday: "Enclosed herewith you will find money order for $8.30, in full of invoice for printing. The work you have done for me is very satisfactory indeed. Had I not been sure that you would be all right you would not have received the order. It's fine." A lady in Rockwood writes: "We are very much pleased with all the work you sent us. Enclosed I send you $2.00, amount of bill. We appreciate very much your promptness."

The White Oak Tavern.
The Oddfellows will give a grand concert in the town hall next Thursday evening, 9th inst., at which a melodrama entitled "The White Oak Tavern" will be the principal feature of the evening. This is a temperance subject and will be put on by fourteen of Acton's young people who have had the drama under preparation for some time. Music will be provided and between acts by the Male Quartette, Mr. John Coleman, Mr. Harry Jones and others. The concerts provided by the Oddfellows in the past have invariably been well worthy the patronage of the public. This one promises to have more than ordinarily attractive features.

Mr. N. P. McLam Back to Acton.
Mr. N. P. McLam and family arrived in town from London last week and are now getting settled in the home recently purchased from Mr. J. R. Anderson, blacksmith, Main Street. The family is receiving a very cordial welcome back to Acton and will no doubt feel quite at home here again. Mr. McLam has commenced operations as owner of the blacksmith shop where he spent so many years before removing to London. The customers of the shop are glad to see him there as proprietor and he will have pleasure in greeting all his old friends and the patrons of the shop there. Mr. Anderson is still receiving hospital treatment at Guelph. He has taken up his residence at Hillside Place, which has just been vacated by Mr. W. J. Chapman, who has moved to his own residence on Main Street.

Death of Christopher Preston.
The many friends throughout the county of Mr. C. P. Preston, of Hornby, will be not only surprised but deeply pained to hear of his death which took place after a brief illness, at his home on Monday. Deceased was in his 72nd year, and up to a few days ago had every appearance of enjoying good health, giving promise of many more years of active life. He was a man who took a deep interest in municipal, agricultural, political and temperance matters, and on almost every subject was able to express himself very intelligently. The Liberal party especially lose a good, faithful supporter, and an active worker. He was twice married, and leaves, besides a widow, a son by his first wife, Mr. Preston, and a daughter by his second, Mrs. Preston. He was buried in Ashgrove Cemetery. Mr. Preston's death was due, we understand to affection of the heart.—Reformer.

Victoria Mission Band Entertainment.
The entertainment given on Tuesday evening in Knox Church by the members of the Victoria Mission Band was an enjoyable treat to all who attended. A programme, varied and interesting, was carried out in a manner which gave evidence of careful and painstaking training and effort on the part of those in charge. The while governers of the children gave the platform a decidedly pleasing effect. The orchestra in attendance gave several selections. There were solos, duets, quartettes, dialogues, almost too numerous to mention, contributed by youngsters of kindergarten age and older members of the Band. Solos by Miss Annie Harvey and Mr. Robert McIvor, and a recitation by Miss Mabel Chapman were given in a style that drew commendations. Mr. Maxtor Fred, McLaughlin gave an organ solo on the church organ with creditable skill. Mr. David Henderson, M.P., made a short address, expressing pleasure at the entertaining programme and his high appreciation of the children. He also remarked that Ottawa, where he has been at session of Parliament during the winter, was not so bad as the news papers painted it. The final number was a brilliant, "The Light of the World" and the effect of the red light and artifice dressing and grouping was very pretty. Rev. Mr. Wilson was chairman.

THE SPRING ASSIZES.
No Jury Cases, but Six Civil Cases were Tried Before Judge.

The spring assizes were held at Milton last week, occupying two days. Hon. Mr. Justice Trotter presided. There were six civil cases entered for trial by the Judge, but none to go to Jury.

They were disposed of as follows:
McKee et al. vs. Leonard.—The parties, James McKee and Richard Mitchell (claimant), plaintiff, and Hugh Leonard (execution creditor), defendant, live in Nelson. The action, interpleader, arose from the seizure of certain horses, cattle, implements, etc., by the sheriff of Halton on a judgment recovered by Leonard against McKee, the plaintiff, Mitchell claiming to own them. Judgment for claimant with costs.

Dixon vs. Garbutt.—Plaintiff is administrator of the estate of the late Miss Dixon, worth about $2,500. Defendant, Miss Garbutt, attended Mrs. Dixon for some years before her death. The administrator sued for certain monies which defendant claimed had been given her by Miss Dixon. Judgment for plaintiff with a reference to Judge Snider to settle technical points.

Dixon vs. Lutton et al.—The plaintiff, Precilla Dixon, claims from the defendants, A. G. H. Lutton and R. K. Anderson, executors of the estate of the late Geo. Hume, $300, money given to and lost by Hume to invest for plaintiff, and interest on same. Judgment for plaintiff for $175 and costs.

Munn vs. Halton.—Plaintiff claimed $10,000 from defendants, the corporation of the County of Halton, for non-fulfillment of an alleged agreement to buy his farm at a site for a home of refuge. Stands, pending the ratification by the defendants and Judge of a proposed settlement for $100, without costs.

Erard vs. Mascher.—Settled between the parties.
Gilhooley vs. Lushy.—Action on agreement by defendant to lease Allion Hotel, Acton, to plaintiff. Judgment by consent that if plaintiff obtains a license for the premises by May 1st, 1907, he is to put in possession and action dismissed without costs.

A feature of the court was the fact that every resident lawyer in Halton but one was counsel in one or other of the cases heard. Mr. A. J. Mackinnon appeared for Mr. Gilhooley in the Allion Hotel case.
