Big Lacrosse Match on Saturday. The "chic" game of the U. I. A. series for Saturday will be played in the park here, and the contestants will be Mora and Acton. Acton will have a very strong team and the match will, it is expected, be one of the fastest of the series. The public is promised a fine exhibition of lacrosse from these doughty contestants.

The generous thoughtfulness of Handmaster Mason in providing an open air concert on the Lower Ave. had stand on Saturday evening by Acton citizens, was especially appreciated by the house owners and visitors. The excellence of the music provided was freely commented upon by a number of the visitors, and the Prince Rupert was requested to express to the band of his entireling leader, their thanks for the treat provided.

Home from California. Mrs. C. F. Gookeve and Miss Goodlove arrived home from their transcontinental trip, last Thursday. Mrs. Goodlove was much benefited by the stay in California, though her health is not yet very rugged. Several months were spent at Berkeley and Pasadena. Then the homeward journey was commenced up the Pacific Coast in easy stages. Visits were made at Portland, Seattle, Victoria and Vancouver. Friends were visited at various points in Manitoba and for a week or so they were the guests of Mrs. Goodlove's brother, Mayor Ashdown, of Winnipeg. Several days were spent on the last section of the journey with Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Goodlove at Port Williams.

C. Hill, J. Lawson, V.S., and Counsellor Williams, all personal friends of Mr. Creech during his long residence in Acton. The casket was covered with beautiful floral tributes, which included a pillow from the family; roses, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wright; another, the borders in the home; a wreath, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Luff; sheep, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Matthews; sheep, Mr. and Mrs. Halberstadt and family; sheep, Mr. and Mrs. Lamb, Mrs. Wyllie and Miss Waldron; sheep, Miss Class No. 2, Wellington street Methodist Church. He was married to Elizabeth, the eldest daughter of the late Benjamin Nicklin, who with their three daughters, Mrs. T. Luff, Mrs. W. Wyllie, and Miss Jennie survive him. Much sympathy is felt here for the bereft family.

Pretty Wedding at Five Villa. A very happy event took place at Five Villa, the spacious residence of J. Pyte, Esq., yesterday afternoon, when his second daughter, Miss Margaret, was united in holy wedlock to Rev. David Black, the esteemed pastor of the Episcopal Church at Weywood Park, Toronto. To the strains of the wedding march, played by Mr. Wright, Toronto, the bride entered the parlor leaning on her father's arm, and she looked lovely indeed in her very becoming bridal robes. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. Stevenson, Toronto. The bride was attired in white silk with veil and orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of bridal roses. Her going away gown was electric blue, with clip hat and plumes. The bridal couple was unattended. Master Pyte (duffy), of Calgary, who was dressed in white velvet, was ring bearer. The groom's present to the bride was a beautiful sash of pearls. A magnificent array of presents were received. Among the many guests present, were Mr. J. J. Gurney and Master Pyte, of Calgary; Mr. and Mrs. William MacAcker and Miss Lulu, of Ridgeway; Mr. Frank MacAcker, of Highgate; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gurney, Mimosa; Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Gurney, of Agrove, and a delegation of four members of the Board of Weywood Park, Church. After receiving very cordial congratulations and partaking of a delightful wedding repast, Rev. and Mrs. Black left by the afternoon train on their honeymoon tour to Niagara Falls, Buffalo, and Chattanooga, N.Y. Upon their return they will settle in their new home in Toronto.

Common Sense in the North West.

No matter whether the crop of this year be large or small the long period of drought preceding the harvest will have a decidedly beneficial effect on the conditions of next year. The amount of summer fallow has been increased in every district and new liabilities have not generally been incurred and a spirit of caution prevails amongst all classes.—Hartley Star.

The Raspberry Crop is Small. Raspberries, like strawberries, will soon be a thing of the past for this year. A visit to a number of the fruit farms at Burlington last week revealed the fact that the crop is very small, compared with that of other years. Many bushes were killed last winter, and it is believed the crop will be about none this week.

St. Alban's Picnic to Stanley Park. St. Alban's Sunday School picnic started from the church on Monday morning at 8.30. Eight large three-wheeled motor cars, headed by a large vehicle, led in the procession to Erin. The day was cool and the air cleared off. The children enjoyed themselves greatly. The arrangements were under the leadership of Mrs. H. H. Wood, who will have a considerable balance after paying all expenses.

Our Prospectors to New Ontario. Mr. J. H. Taylor, of Toronto, and his two sons, Principal T. J. Moore, of St. George's school, Guelph, and J. M. Moore, manager of the Georgetown Herald, left on Tuesday morning for New Ontario on a two weeks' outing. They are the owners of one of the Ontario Veterans' farms on Long Lake, some thirty miles northwest from New Liskeard. They will visit this property and spend their time in prospecting, botanizing and fishing. The outing will no doubt have much pleasure for the trio.

Change in the Merchants Bank Staff. Mr. J. R. Davidson, of the staff of Merchants Bank here, and Mr. H. Birmingham, of Watford, exchanged places last week. Prior to his removal, Mr. Davidson's gentleman friends entertained him at a speckled trout supper at the home of Mr. Hugh Wallace, last Friday evening. A very pleasant evening was spent. Mr. H. Birmingham was master of ceremonies and words of kindly farewell to Mr. Davidson were spoken. Mr. Birmingham, the new teller, is rapidly becoming acquainted in town and will soon feel at home here.

Married in Muskoka. On Tuesday, July 30th, at the home of Mr. Roland Perryman, brother of the bride, in the township of St. Albans, Muskoka, where the family are summering, Miss Evangeline May Perryman was united in marriage to Mr. Amos Fleury Love, of Toronto. The bride, dressed in silk and over cream netting, with trimmings of all-over lace and pearls, and carrying a shower bouquet of roses, was given away by her father, Mr. Thomas Perryman. Her brother, Roland, acted as groomsmen, and Miss Elnie Madill, of Allansville, performed the duties of bridesmaid. The Rev. J. Beckett performed the ceremony that made the young couple husband and wife. Only the immediate friends were present. After a sumptuous repast the company largely endorsed the proposal of Rev. Mr. Beckett to wishing health, wealth and happiness to Mr. and Mrs. Love. The newly-wedded pair will make their home in Toronto after a short honeymoon in breathing the healing air and beholding the beautiful scenery in the Highlands of Ontario.—Com.

Saved By the Bark of a Dog. Messrs. Forgie Martin, A. G. H. Laxton, Fred Matthews, Enzie Higgins, and Mr. Corner, chauffeur, started out on Saturday from their automobiles to a picnic. They first visited Oakville, going from there to Toronto. Returning from that city that same night, they took a blind road between Cooksville and Streetsville, and were going at a mile clip, when they heard a dog barking, and not being sure whether they were on the right road or not, stopped their auto and made enquiries at the house where the dog was barking and during the time they discovered that the steering bar had just broken. They then found the startling discovery that about 100 feet further on the bridge over which they were to cross had been washed away. So that had they not stopped to enquire of their whereabouts, they would have met with a serious mishap at the bridge, and going at the rate of 40 miles an hour, the result would of necessity been most disastrous to the occupants of the auto. They arrived here about 12.30 that night, congratulating themselves on their almost miraculous escape.—Milton Reformer.

Death of Former Hamilton Resident. The death of Mrs. Catherine Hutchart at Hamilton on July 27th at a ripe age removes another person from a circle where she was once an intimate friend and relative in this community. The late Mrs. Hutchart was the widow of Mr. David Hutchart who died in 1901, after a long business career in Georgetown and Milton. She was the eldest daughter of the late Robert Royce, of the township of Keeweenaw, who in the latter years of his life, with Mrs. Royce, made his home in Acton and enjoyed the respect of all who knew him for his upright Christian character. As a visitor at her father's home, and also at the home of her sister Mrs. Mary Orr, now removed, Mrs. Hutchart became acquainted with many in this town and enjoyed the respect and esteem of all. For the past eight months she had been a sufferer from paralysis, a painful form which was born with Christian resignation. She was cared for by her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Hurler, of 39 Erie Ave., Hamilton, and also Mrs. L. Monteith, of Grand Valley, another sister. The interment took place at Everton, after the arrival here of the morning train here on July 30th. Besides the aforesaid mentioned relative Mrs. Hutchart leaves a brother, Mr. Joseph Royce, of Keeweenaw, and a sister, Mrs. Geo. Tough, of Grand Valley. Two sons survive her, Mr. John R. Hutchart, of Hamilton, and Mr. Hamilton Hutchart, of Toronto.

Here is a line in choosing from which it's a good thing to exercise some care in making some selections—unless you buy at this store, for we have exerted the care and forethought for you and no extra charge for it, either.

Both working and dress shirts are here in wide varieties—ready to give good service to any man who wisely purchases them. The patterns and styles are new and varied. Besides assuring you of stylish neckwear in every case, we offer you neckwear that doesn't easily wear thread-bare, fray, fade, or grow rusty.

Our collars and cuffs are of the best quality of linen—snow white, closely woven and four ply. No liability, after a few launderings, of their developing a saw edge, that nearly saws your head or hands off.
