BRIEF LOCAL ITEMS.

—Cooler evenings now.
—Cheap fares to London this week.
—County Council will meet next Monday.
—The local fall fair will be the next attraction.
—Monday was the Jewish New Year's Day.
—Guelph Central Exhibition opens next Tuesday.
—The fall millinery openings are being announced.
—The new pavements are going down with a rush this week.
—Signs that fall is approaching are becoming more manifest daily.
—The recently sown fall wheat looks well on many sections.
—A pavement on the street, north side, is now being talked of.
—Mr. D. Tarzwell offers his new brick house on Frederick Street for sale.
—The rains of the week have visibly improved the pastures and freshened the lawns.
—A Toronto automobile party were stalled here on Tuesday night owing to the heavy rain.
—Front fishing season closes next Saturday, not the 1st September as previously stated.
—All of Acton's Jewish citizens are holidaying this week in honor of the advent of New Year.
—The holidays must hustle now or cold fingers will be experienced before contracts are completed.
—The frequent showers of the past week have been very timely in advancing the newly-sown fall wheat.
—The first installment of tax is due next Saturday. The collector will be "At Home" to all citizens, at the town hall.
—The roots generally promise well, excepting the potatoes. The yield this year is generally below the average.
—Mr. Geo. Stovell is having his store considerably enlarged by the removal of the partition. Other improvements will also be made.
—About fifty wild ducks were observed on Fairy Lake one day last week. They were soup-seared away by the promiscuous firing of unskilled sports.
—The fair visitors returned home the first two days this week in large numbers. A considerable contingent had been visiting Acton friends.
—A harvest home entertainment will be held at the Methodist Church, Chestnut Corners, on Tuesday evening next, 17th inst. An interesting array of talent has been engaged.
—A vandal has been working Acton, Smithville and Welland, as agent of the Toronto, Wexford, Chestnut Corners, on Tuesday evening next, 17th inst. An interesting array of talent has been engaged.
—Mr. Chas. Wells has been appointed ticket agent to succeed Mr. H. J. Wallace. Mr. Wells will however, go to Buffalo on relieving duty in a few days. During his absence Mr. H. Kigle will perform the duties of day ticket agent.
—Edith Hat, H. Danby's residence, Kimbark, at Stinson, valued at $25,000, and built by John E. Potts, 40 years ago, was destroyed by fire on Sunday. The contents including a fine library, were worth $10,000. The insurance on the whole was for that amount.
—Mr. Adam Cook reports the delivery of the first apple barrels for the packing of his fall apple pack. Fall apple packing will commence generally next week. The crop of fall apples is short but the winter apples are in first class condition and quite plentiful.

MAY LEAD TO EXCLUSION TREATY.

Washington, Sept. 10th.—That a stringent exclusion treaty between America and Japan is measurably nearer realization than the most optimistic administration officials could have believed forty-eight hours ago. The judgment of members of the diplomatic corps here as an indirect result of the meeting of the Japanese at Vancouver in British Columbia last Saturday night.

—Have you any of these symptoms of defective vision? Pain in or over back of the eye, inflammation, granulated eyelids, pain in the temples (superciliary) muscles falling out, cross eyes and squint. If so, consult the specialist in Brown's Drug Store on Monday, Sept. 16th.

NEWS OF LOCAL IMPORT.

Deacons Convention at Acton.
The Women's Auxiliary Sunday School Convention for the Deacons of Hamilton will be held in St. Alban's Church, Acton, on Tuesday and Wednesday, Oct. 15th and 16th. The services on the Tuesday will be entirely choral. The new pastor of Oakville will be the special preacher.

The New Armory at Guelph.
On Saturday the last seven of the huge steel girders supporting the roof of the new armory building were installed into place, and all in readiness for the placing of the roof over the finishing touches are put on by the masons over the windows and doors. The construction work on the front portion is also now nearing completion.—Mercury.

Mittie Moore in Good Order.
Col. Galloway, D.A.A.G., of Western Ontario, inspected the accounts and all stores in the armory of No. 6 Company, Acton, on Saturday. He commended the splendid condition in which everything was found; the best, he said, in his many years of experience has been making his annual inspection.

Mr. James McMillan's New Burial.
During the storm on last Thursday the barn of James McMillan, lot 1, con. 1, Egin, near Creweville Corners, was struck by lightning and burned to the ground, with some twenty tons of hay, the crop of eighteen acres of wheat, bladders, seed drill, roller and other implements. Loss heavy. Insurance of $6000 on the building and contents of the Union.

New Church to Guelph.
The committee of the Wesley Street Church, Guelph, met last week and let to Inspector Oakes the contract to build for them a $10,000 church, almost identical with the Trinity Baptist Church in that city. The contract was signed and Mr. Oakes was instructed to proceed with the work as soon as possible. It will be remembered that the church of this congregation was destroyed by fire last spring.

Three Shows to Be Held.
An exchange whose experience has evidently not been wholly satisfactory, says: When a newspaper man has to yell himself hoarse trying to persuade people to patronize home merchants, and then accidentally stumbles onto the fact that some of the fellow that he is trying to protect are sending away for their job printing, or using printed matter sent out by patent medicine concerns or wholesale grocers, it rather makes his faith in mankind and makes his prospect look like a dim with a hole in it.

Landlord Lehman's Father Dead.
Mr. Ignatius R. Lehman, of Aberfoyle, father of Mr. A. J. Lehman, of the Dominion Hotel, here, died on Saturday from complications of the stomach. He had been ill for 7 or 8 months and suffered very much. Deceased had been in the hotel business for some thirty-three years, seventeen at Welland, and sixteen at Aberfoyle. He was in his sixty-fifth year. Mrs. Lehman and five sons and two daughters survive. Mr. A. J. of Acton, is the oldest member of the family. The others are: Messrs. Charles, Richard and Edward, Guelph; and Joseph at Kintouan, Mich. Mrs. J. Eason, Berlin; and Mrs. Robert Casan, of Aberfoyle. The funeral was held on Tuesday to the R.C. cemetery, Guelph. Deceased was one of the most highly esteemed hotelmen in his district.

A Model Boy's Ball Team.
"We will not play on Sunday, but money on the game, nor use bad language if the game does not go to suit us," was the motto of the London Heights baseball team. The team is composed of boys between the ages of 15 and 18, who are members of Sunday schools and whose parents do not believe in Sunday baseball. Among the members are: Messrs. E. P. Pearson, superintendent of the West Side city schools, and a son of the Rev. John Endacott, pastor of the London Heights M. E. church. "We do not think it is right to play baseball on Sunday either on the game or play for money, which is about the same thing," said one of the boys yesterday. "If a team cannot play us on a week day then we do not play. Some of the other teams make fun of us, but we do not care. We never smoke nor smoke cigarettes, and we have beaten every team we have played this year."—Kintouan City Times.

An Appreciation.
The following appreciative words respecting one of Acton's home sons appeared in the last issue of the Dominion Presbyterian: "The new General Secretary, happily, is not a new man. He has already won his spurs and proven his worth in four years of faithful service. Mr. T. Albert Moore, then President of the Hamilton Conference, was in 1903 named to become Secretary for Ontario and Associate Secretary of the Lord's Day Alliance of Canada, holding within his territory all Eastern Canada. He has in addition made several special trips through Western Canada. Wherever he has gone he has been well received. As a public speaker he has few, if any, superiors. He has a keen mind, well informed and well trained, good judgment, personal tact beyond most, a large heart, and a pleasing personality. He takes a broad, reasonable view of the Lord's Day question. He has had a large share in deciding the policy and methods of the Alliance. He has always been a strong advocate of the quiet method of dealing with infractions of the law, in using moral suasion rather than legal compulsion up to the limit of its usefulness, in prevention rather than punishment, in conciliation rather than coercion. He is a sane, statesmanlike leader who deserves the confidence and loyal support of all who honor the Lord's Day in Canada. He is a hard worker who does not spare himself, and there are few men who can work as rapidly or administer with so large a scale as efficiently. His own church has honored him in many ways, but in none more than in electing him, a year ago, Secretary of the General Conference, one of the highest honors in the gift of that church." Acton's citizens will appreciate these and other words. The Press prints especially those referring to what they do to one who was a former editor of the columns.

Local Option for Mount Forest.

A fully signed petition requesting submission of the local option by-law has been submitted to the Mount Forest town council and favorably received. The campaign is now on and the temperance forces have great hopes of a wining. Hamilton ratepayers are also working for the submission of the question to the ratepayers there.

Final for Shooting on Sunday.
Six Italians were fined $100 and costs each for shooting birds, insects, and birds out of season, and also for shooting on the Lord's Day, by Magistrate Saunders, at Guelph, on Monday. Through the interpreter the culprit acknowledged their guilt, but explained that they did not know the law. His Worship explained that ignorance of the law was no excuse.

The Bunch Went Home Defeated.
That bunch of baseball players known as the Elizabeth street bunch, departed (this morning) in a G.T.E. passenger train for Acton, where they are to pull off a match with the ball tossers of that town.—Guelph Herald. The bunch, played the game, and showed the ball driven over the field prodigiously by Acton's heavy hitters, and won home with a score of one to eight in Acton's favor.

Death of Editor Munro.
D. J. Munro, editor of the Orangeville Post for a score of years, died at his home in that town on Monday. Though blind from his youth, this man of untiring energy and indomitable will, who spent his spare time in his own newspaper which served not only his town but was counted a live factor in every political fight in Dufferin. Brought up in a Guelph family, in one of the strongest Liberal townships in the Dominion, he has conducted the Post as an extreme Conservative organ. Mr. Munro was ill for several months. He leaves a widow and four children.

Large School Attendance.
Acton schools have the largest attendance this year in their history. The High School department has a very large registration, it being upwards of forty. The value of this department is now beginning to be better understood by students. When it is known that a larger percentage of Acton students passed the recent departmental examinations, with two and three year courses, than the average High School students with three and four year courses, the advantage of individual teaching, as given at Acton, over the usual class teaching of High Schools, the result is appreciated more fully.

A Valuable First Prize Dog.
When Mr. H. H. Warden came back from the west he brought with him his pet dog, an Irish water spaniel named "Barney." He was well with his brother, Mr. J. P. Warden, until the Toronto exhibition, when he was entered for competition with the thousands of canines from far and near. When the judges had completed their numerous duties Barney was decorated with red ribbons and his proud owner had the distinction of being in possession of the first prize water spaniel at the dog show. Barney was bred from a dog owned by Mr. T. Moore-Smith, and valued at $1,000, and the noted "Nora McElhann," owned by T. A. Carog, who values her at $200. As dog flesh goes, Mr. Warden is evidently the owner of a canine of high value.

The Woman's Institute.
The Woman's Institute opened with a very interesting session last Friday afternoon on the lawn of Mrs. N. P. Moore, Mill Street, after the usual two month's summer vacation. There was a good attendance of ladies. The President, Mrs. W. J. Chapman, occupied the chair. She felt the prospects were good for a profitable season's meetings, and cordially welcomed the visitors present. Mrs. A. T. Brown, read a carefully prepared paper on "Canning Fruit and Vegetables," which contained numerous suggestions for new methods which had been found advantageous. A discussion followed in which the ladies very freely engaged. The preparation of pickles was also informally discussed. Samples of pickles, jellies, etc., were brought by members. The proceedings closed with the serving of dainty refreshments.

Marriage of Dr. More and Miss Hagoy.
A very pretty wedding took place on Wednesday afternoon, September 4th, at three o'clock, at "Riverside Farm," near Preston, when Miss Ethel Edith, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hagoy, was united in marriage to Dr. Arthur Louis More, of Acton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. W. Barker, of Acton, in the presence of about a hundred guests. The bride party entered the drawing room to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Miss Hattie Hagoy, and the bridesmaids, Misses M. E. P. Albert Moore, then President of the Hamilton Conference, was in 1903 named to become Secretary for Ontario and Associate Secretary of the Lord's Day Alliance of Canada, holding within his territory all Eastern Canada. He has in addition made several special trips through Western Canada. Wherever he has gone he has been well received. As a public speaker he has few, if any, superiors. He has a keen mind, well informed and well trained, good judgment, personal tact beyond most, a large heart, and a pleasing personality. He takes a broad, reasonable view of the Lord's Day question. He has had a large share in deciding the policy and methods of the Alliance. He has always been a strong advocate of the quiet method of dealing with infractions of the law, in using moral suasion rather than legal compulsion up to the limit of its usefulness, in prevention rather than punishment, in conciliation rather than coercion. He is a sane, statesmanlike leader who deserves the confidence and loyal support of all who honor the Lord's Day in Canada. Acton's citizens will appreciate these and other words. The Press prints especially those referring to what they do to one who was a former editor of the columns.

It is expected that the findings of the present session will be sent forward to the congregations of the churches concerned for their consideration.

BRIDGE ENQUIRY CONTINUED.
Quebec, Que., Sept. 10.—From present appearances the bridge investigation will last for several weeks, as the commission are at present only taking evidence regarding the organization of the Phoenix Bridge Company and the Quebec Bridge Company. Mr. Milliken, superintendent of the field erection, stated that when at the bridge he was struck by a bolt some three times daily and thoroughly examined them. He was followed by Messrs. Kinloch, Inspector McLure, assistant engineer, and Outwith, in charge of field instruments, who gave evidence regarding inspection.

NEW PARIS IDEAS IN WOMEN'S FULL DRESS

Paris, the home of dame fashion, the original source of those ideas which produce the vogue in women's dress each season. We are keeping in close touch with dame fashion, that mysterious influence which sets the feminine world agog several times every year.

Miss Brown, the head of our dressmaking department, has spent the past few weeks in Paris, gathering ideas, absorbing the chic effects which will distinguish the wonderful creations of the artistic Parisian designers from commonplace attire.

It is hardly necessary for us to say that Miss Brown, on her return, will be better prepared than ever before to fashion your autumn raiment in a most distinctive manner. We are ready to place every facility at her command. To begin with, we are now displaying this store has ever prepared for your critical examination—the most exclusive of the new designs, fabrics that are rich, weaves that are radiant in their brilliancy of coloring, cloths to please every good taste. Come in and see them, you'll gather inspiration for autumn dress of the most charming character.

ROYAL TAILORING

A man's business training makes him positively unwilling to pay "fancy prices" for his clothes—that is a bonus for the prestige of the maker's name, etc.

The man who buys Royal Tailoring made-to-order clothing feels that he is getting the best clothes that can be made—and knows that he is not paying for anything else whatever.
