A 'recherche' repast was on by so trim a parlor maid, so deft in her movements, so irreproachable in her cap and apron, that Lord Aberdeen felt constrained to compliment our hostess on the results of her training. 'Oh,' said the lady, 'I am so glad you by it. think Jane did well-I should like you to tell her so presently.' And when that presently came, what did we discover but 'Jane' arrayed in evening dress and proving to be the daughter of the house-who, in consequence of the unexpected departure of the ser vant, had not only to walt on the table but to cook the meal, with the assistance of her mother, an adept in such matters."
