Acton Free Mrc55,

VOLUME XXXIII .--- NO. 21.

Kvery Bulacription Vald in Advance.

Bulecription Price, $1.00 Per Annum.

SINGLE COPIES---THREE CENTS

The Acton Free Press EVERY THURSDAY MORNING AT THE Pres Press Steam Printing Office,

ACTON, ONT. IILL STREET. per year strictly in advance. All sub-scriptions discontinued when the time for which they have been paid has expired. The date to which every sub-Advertising these. Transient advertisements, 13 cents per Nouparett line for first insertion, 3 bents per line for such subsequent theortism.
Advertisements, without specific diregious, will be inserted till forbid and charged accordingly. Transient advertisements must be paid in advance.
Advertisements will be changed once tagh month, if desired. For changes offener than above mentioned the com-

Changes for contract advertisements must be in the office by noon on Turs-Accounts payable monthly. English office. 30 Flust Street, Lon-don, 12. C., where Mesers, E. and J. Hardy & Co. will receive for us news where our readers can, free or charge, H. P. MOORE. Editor and Proprietor.

ubscriptions and advertisements, and

Business Directory.

The second of th

A RTHUR L. HORE, M. B., University of Toronto SUCCESSOR TO DR. JOHN M. MACDONALD. Office at residence, on Willow Street. Night calls promptly attended to. Office Hours -# to 10. . a. m., 1 to 2 p. m., and MIIOS. GRAY, M. D. C. M., McGILL Y. R. O. P. EDINDUROR. I. L. P. & H. GLASDOW.

MEMBER BRITISH MEDICAL ASSOCIATION ETC. Mos-Vrederick Street E. D. AULT, M. D. C. M.

Buccessor to Dr. McKesgue. Office and recklence formerly occupied by the Office Hours-8 to 10 a.m.; I to 2 and 7 to 8 . . .

R. DRYDEN. MYN, MAR, TUROLT AND NORM. Corner Woolwich and linker Streets. J GURLPH. OFFICE House-10 .m. to p.m. and a to s p.m SUNDAYS-10 s.m. to 1 p.m

LEGAL.

J. MACKINNON BARRISTEN, SOLICITOR, CONVEYANCES. -Orrick-Mill Street, in Stovels' Block, (lenrgatown Branch-Malu Street, open Veducada) and Haturdays.

J. MONABB. Olerk, Fourth Division Court County of Halon, Conveyancer, Agent Fire and Life Assurance iteal Estate Agent. Money to loan, ste. AOTON -Perryman a lilock

DENTAL.

TR. J. M. BELL, D.D.S., L.D.S. Office at Residence, Corner Mill and Frederick HONOR GRADUATE OF TORONTO UNIVERSITY. The latest ansesthatio used if desired. At Rockwood Tacadage.

L. L. BENNETT, L.D.S., DENTIST,

MISCELLANKOUS.

AND |. HARDY & CO., ADVERTISING CONTRACTORS AND . NEWS CORRESPONDENTS. 30 Pleet Sireet, London, E. C., England.

A File of this Paper can be seen free of charge by visitors to London, to whom advice gratis will be given if required.

LIRANGIS NUNAN Wyndham St., Guelph, Ontarit. Account Hooks of all kinds made to order periodicals of every description carefully bound.

MARRIAGE LICENSES II. P. MOORE PRATTER OF MARRIAGE LICENSES. rivate Office. No witnesses required. Imued s residence in the evening.

Free Press Office, ACTON TYM HEMSTREET,

LICENSED AUGMONESE For the Counties of Wallington and Halton Orders left at the Farm Pares office, Acton, or at my realdence in Acton, will be promptly at-tended to Terms lieszonable. Also money to lean on the most favorable sums, and at the lowest rates of interest, in sums of $500 and upwards.

XT HULL.

TAMES MODONALD

LICENSED AUCTIONERS Orders left with the Page Pages, Acton, will seeive immediate attention.

LICENSED AUCTIONEER Vor the countles of Wellington, Halton, Waterloo, Wentworth and the City of Hales conducted on reasonable terms and satisfaction guaranteed in every case.

For terms, dates, sto., apply to lost 376.

RESIDENCE—Cor. MoTague St. and More Road, CUMLPH, Ont. Telephone 147, Gualph.

Hales may be avranged at Faus Pause omce,

R. J. KERR

LICKHSED AUGTIONERS For the Counties of Weilington and Malen. Orders by letter to Minoss P. O., telaphone to Mimoss or Capringe, or left at Pank Faks office, Acton, will receive immediate attention.

Arnold's

STATION HOTEL STADLES. Mill Ht., Acton. shortest notice

Stylish Rigs, double or single, supplied on COMMERCIAL TRAVELLERS' OR DERS given special stiention.

ACTON, ONTARIO, THURSDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 21, 1907.

Eyesight Specialist, of Toronto Villa Actor every month, Fur date of next visitenquire in Brown's Drug Store.

Attend tire Best. It pays. PELLIOTT TORONTO. ONT.

All graduates of this school are pheololely sure of getting positions. Sindenis admitted at any time. Catalogue freu. . . J. W. BLLIOTT. Frincipal. Corner Yonge and Alexander Bus.

Your chopping will be done quickly and well on either plates stones, if taken to the-

ROCKWOOD Chopping Mills

Flour Bran

Oatmeal Shorts The best at lowest prices.

HARRIS & CO. Limited

ls It Footwear

ing For? If that's the case

You Are Look-

go to Williams'

Shoe Store I carry a full line of boots, shoes, rubbers, etc., for people of all ages and sizes.

Fall and winter stock now ready for your inspection.

Wm-Williams-The Shoe Man Mill Street - - Acton

Excelsion Bakery

We are headquarters in Acton for Bread, Cakes, Pastry, etc., of firstclass quality. We also carry, a splendid stock of Groceries and Conlectionery.

T. Statham & Son Mill Street, Acton

New Pictures at Waters Bros.

New ideas in Framing...... Artists' Supplies ... ... Oil and Water Colors ..... Always fresh and of the best quality.

WATERS BROS. QUELPH ART STORE.

The Old Citizen's Work Charlle Sucy ACTON - HAND - LAUNDRY

Willow Street Near Post Office and Town Hall. I am a laundry man of long experience and give special and tender care to articles of all kinds brought to be laundried. Shirts ironed so they will not hurt your neck. Stand up collars fronted so they will not break in the wing. All ladies' and gentlemen's troning done to Charlie Sucy, and let him know when M. MACCORMICK, H.A. Proprietor wanted and he will not fail you.

Linoleum

Oil Gloth

in- Stalr Wilch, One Yare Width, Two Yard Width and Fodr Vard Width . . . . .

Special refucilon on a qumber of ffolls which must be, sold to make room for new Goods Quality guaran-

> OUR PRICES ARE ALWAYS RIGHT.

The BOND HARDWARE Co. QUELPH, Limited

About Your Watch

To svoid unnecessary wear and tear, your watch should be cleaned, re olled an: adjusted every eighteen months. Scores of watches are ruined by neglect Scores of watches are ruined by inexper lenced workmen, Avold both by taking your watch repair ing to Savage & Co. Watch repairs by experts. No apprentices in this department.

SAVAGE & CO. Established 1848. GUELPH'S RELIABLE JEWELLERS

W. H. WALKER

Paper Hanger Painter Decorator

Opposite Stephenson's Blacksmith All work guaranteed. The work

Main Street, Acton,

of years in Acton is proof of its ex-Orders loft at A. T. Brown's Drug Biore will receive prompt attention.

W. H. WALKER ACTON

Parry Sound

FALL TIME TABLE ...... 19 00 a.m. 16:30 pin Washago ...... 12.35 p.m. 10 00 p m .... 3.15 pm Parry Sound SOUTHINGUND .... 111 45 n m. Washago ...... 2.13 p.m.

Toronto ...... 545 pm. 10 10 mm † Dally except Sunday. Observation-Dining Parlor Care between Toro sto and Parry Bound, torving meals a la carte.

Offices: All stations, also corner King and Toronto, and Union Illation. Phone. Main 5179

> ..PAPER.. MAKERS GEORGETOWN, ONT.

BOOK, NEWS AND COLORED PAPERS

JNO.R. BARBER

CUBLPH Business (Sollege

Masonie Block, Upper Wyndham St. Quelph, Out. The Best System

Of Commercial Training known to modern direct to the College Office, Manufe Block. Upper Wyndham 86., Quelpn, or address her life for another, and the baby sleeping at her side would nover know a mother's love.

the QUELPH BUSINESS COLLEGE, lng no questions, but with sorrow him. This system has been thoroughly tested, and has demonstrated its superiority to all other sincere and carnest. In all the village "What! Tell the story of my you this morning systems of commercial training. The dusple none had been so great a favorite as shame? Nover Here, nothing has take the milk in. Hylght young min and woman of energy and character can fit it emselves have at moderate and, when, but little more than a year position among Canadian inclines Golden unique position among Canadian inclines Golden unique them, at the same time with the position among it will pay you to investigate flow and Why young and hundrome atranger who Principal than with consure.

WISDOM PROM THE PARMER'S

WIFE. Hame people rave over country life, The lack of burry and noise and strife, The grace of nature, the bracing air. The robe of green that the meadows Doetry.

Old clottles, bere feet, and a fishing But life in the country is something

A mileand a half to the general store, No waterworks, and a coal oil lamp, A two mile walk for a postage struck, Eight cows to milk at the days of

The cool fresh berries fust off the The new potators, ad large and fine, The cherry ple and the cream so yel-The haryest apples, so sweet and mel-

Bestowing on it a beatitude,

But fond in the country means stove, Aglow with wood from the maple and a woman clowly melting awa While doing her baking day by day, My name is old and honorable. I an No neat gas range with its flame so

And four blg men --- with an appetite The folks in the city ought to know That life in the country is somewhat

So when they Joyfully come out fishi They should say: "Come in for the We need a change ev'ry new and then. From galo' to bed on the stroke of,

Yamily Meading

行の直接というないというというというないだった。 Seth Graham's Pride

BY AGNES BREWER.

HE little New England village nestling in the heart of the lills seemed shut out from all the world on one cold night in January, as ellently and swiftly the white, feathery flakes fell one by one, wrat ping it in a shroud of purest white. Already the snow by thick upon the ground, and the people shook their heads as they listened to the wind, and gathered clover round their obeerful fires, with a glance, perhaps, toward the trundle-bed where rosy cheeks and young limbs were safely housed and quietly eleeping. In Soth Graham's cottage the scene was a different one. Hero all was order. No toys were scattered upon the floor for the careful house-wife to gather up with loving touch; no child's breathing broke the stillness. Soth Graham and his wife sat alone. The fire immed brightly on the hearth, the shutters were closed tight against unjust, cruel. You shall not submit the storm, but on the faces of both toit!" was a worn and anxious look. "I wonder where she is to-night ?" at last burst from the mother's lips, as | words. It will break my beart to give though unconsciously. For the first you up, but I never can desert the old two young lives, time in twelve long months she again man who has watched so tenderly approached the forbidden subject, over my childhood and girlhood "Father," she continued, "should she Time may soften him, Will; and come back to-night, would you forgive | though it come years hence, you know For a moment tremulous lines soft- to him, and see what my pleading can trembled in life eye, then the same sovere expression came back sterner than before, as be answered :

"Have you forgotten your promise nover to breathe that name? Forgive her? No! Not though she lay dying at my feet! Let her not come here for ald or comfort; she who has brought disgrace and dishoner upon

"Perhaps not," the mother replied, in pitying tonce. "Perhaps-" but her sentence was unfinished, for a walling ory without the cottage door caused both to start from their sents, and gaze at each other as though they had conjured up a ghost. In a moment it came again fainter, nearer. The wife looked into the busband's face with anxious dread, but the father's heart conquered. "It is she -our Atice !" he excluded. "Woman, have you no soul, that you can stand there and see her perish? Quick-a light !"

And throwing open the door he went harrlodly out into the night, returning in a few moments, bearing in his arms the prostrate woman, who had fallen almost at his very door. With tender care he laid her upon his bed; but the blue eyes which opened to the light had to them no gleam of consolous. now, and the long hair which swept the pillow was wet with snow. On his knows booldo her kucht the man who, a few moments before, had spurned her In his thought, calling her by the pet names of her babyhood, imploring the headstone at your mother's grave fast one word in answer. But no is but one word: answer came. Once a look of recognition swept over the bountiful face ; loved blm so that-" But the sentence died away unfinish. love. ed; and when, at last, the morning san dispelled the last night's storm, it shone upon the calin, quiet sleep of one forever at rost. Alloe had given

Reverently the neighbors followed this true. Let me go to him and tel the dead to its last resting-place, ask- my story t then leave the issue to flowers grew in rich luxurlance over he meant it not, with his bonor and Alice Graham's grave; and in Beth Graham's cottage once more childleh laughter broke the silence; a child's young Howard's hands. He tore it cry demanded food and rest.

Swiftly the years rolled on in their appointed courses, Seed time and which had booned in storm and darknose seemed to have left them at it's side my mother.". very portal, and to hive-lived in And thistle mixed with the claver of moly gelef as few have known, she changed ; the months come and go, fed by hundreds who shared her kind-Home people talk of the country food, > questloned, her valce tremulous with why should he not give his consent!

sure he will not hesitate to give you her answer and her secret.

to one who has done naught to sully So that pight, with a heart beating high with hope, the girl paced up and lown the walk alone, waiting th return of the lover who had gone to plead his cause; and the flush rose and died on her cheek as she pictured his onger face, fancled his buoyant tread hastening to her, to, perhaps, draw her arm through ble and bring her a willing truent to her grand father's side, first to be playfully scolded, and then to receive his blessing. How happy she wast But, ali, she bears ble step! A sudden shyness takes possession of her, and she throws herself down on the green sward making no motion till be stands beside her. Where is the enger delight, the torrent of words with which he is to break the allence P Mute and atill he stands there, and at last, with wondering dread, she turns her head and glances upward into his face. In its whiteness she reads alt. He went se returned a man. No sign of youth tourns to be in those hard lines around his month or in the over, which have so strange an expression. "Had I been a beggar, Florence," ho says at last, "he could not have spure ed me with greater scorn. He had me tell you to come to blin, and never look upon my faça agala."

from her a boy, with no trace of care

"Will," she sobbed, "he meant to tr us. Why should he have said such dreadful things ?" "He meant it all and more, When told him that the name I offered you was as old, as honorable as your own, he laughed and said : 'A noble legacy. Indeed. Bld the girl come to me, and put such thoughts out of her head She shall never marry.' Florence, it is

"Hush, Will!" the young girl answered. "You do not mean those my love can never fall you. I will go effect. If it is hopeless, ob. Will, help nie to be strong!" swoot young voice, as Seth Graham raised his head from his reverie and glanced at the threshold where she stood, who had interrupted him. had her mother stood eighteen long yours before, and the storn lines which then had gathered on his face again saw the light. "What is this story young Howard has been telling mo? What do children, such as you, know of love ?" and we love each other. Ob, grand- defence or escape. All that is needed father," she continued, hastening for is simply to scoop them up with blg ward and throwing horself at his foot, | solnes. "think of the time when you, too, were young, and your dear granny : think of your own child who lies! buried in the churchyard, the darling | read ? mother whom I never saw. You did not blight her young life. You-" "Hush, child!" the old man exclaim ed, rising hastily from his chair. "De not speak of her! I say you shall "And I say, give me some reason for your refusal. If it be just I will abldo by it. But I have no right to condomn the man I love unless you can convince me it is lakt." She, too, had risen as she spoke. As she stood confronting him, the light blaging in his eyes was reflected in her "Then you will have it-the secret I have kept from you all you life. On once, as the dawn was breaking, she It was all to which she had the right. stretched out her arms to her mother. Now can you understand why you are barred from an honest man's beart? "It was not as you thought. I-P Your mother left my home and gave up all for a stranger who had won her "How do you know he did no > marry hor ? The old man laughed. "Think you she would have born sitence and disgrace had it been so P" "But it Will loved me, he would no close lile atms against me even were young and handsome stranger who a baby from your dead mother's arms. | with tramps out here? . har, nover again breathe this man's tarians, but our dog len't."

But with the springtime the wild name-he who dared turnt me, though unsulled record." That night a note was put into engerly onen. "It is over, Will," she wrote. "I have accepted my grandfather's deharvest followed each other rapidly, cree. It is stern, but just. I can only Seventeen summers passed. The life pray fate has more happiness in store for your for me-an early grave be-

The aummer died ; the harvest frillts eternal sun-blue slace. The man who , blossomed and were gathered ; the had proved an atern's father had, to winter knows fell again; the spring this with her hishand over 50 years ago the girl, been only kind and gentle, crowness pushed up to see If they and to "granify," as shir called the might show their header but in Both sweet old lady whose face bore traces Grahum's cottage all scened unknow ele had but-to frame a wiel to yet leave no sign. Yet it was not so. have it granted. 'And now she felt Bluce that fatal day Plorence had her you g life was swiwned indeed made no outward moan, but day by with joy, for in the twillight in the, day her cheeks paled and the light early summer time Will-Howard had faded from her eyes, and often, when confessed his love, and won from her the twilight fell, she would steat away to alt beside that grave whose day in the main cave which is is feet "You will see grandfather?" she head-stong borb the one word-;

"Alice." But the time came when the could But not go so far, when her thoughts failed chambers, reached a distance of 112 her utterly, and when by the open fort from the potrance. They are galaxy window she could only look wistfully toward that spot. But though the old man knew that he who had murdered the young spirit was suppling the young life, the stern pride of his race forbade relenting. Frail and white as a lily she had grown, when one day Both Graham burst into his cottage followed by a stranger anxious and eager. His wife looked up with wonderment; but when she saw that face, hers, too,

"It is not as you think, mother, Heth exclaimed. "This is our child's usband, come to punish me for my wicked, cruel pride-come to demand the child whose life I have wrocked." "No, father," unswered the stranger.

"I have been the one to blame. It was I who begged Alice not to noknowledge our marriage, because I know my father had other views, and would probably have discarded me. I had gone to his eick-bed when who came to you with a feeling, I suppose, of home sickness she could not replat. I roturnod to find her gone, and was frantic with grief. Then the news of her death reached me, but I did not know she had left a child. I thought, then acknowledgment could do her no good and so I let it pass, but my conscience would not let me rest, and I came to find her grave, when I learned all. My child! Where is sho!" "Hore, father!" answered a clear, young voice, and turning, he claused in his arms the new fainting girl, who had came forward at the sound of voices, an unseen listener. . But happle new proved a wonderful cure, and ere many months the roses came back to the cheeks to which nature had restored their roundness. And when. Florence stood before the alter happy bride, it was her father, honorod and neknowledged, who placed her hand within Will Howard's, who so gladly claimed his own again. But on no face shone the glad, happy light which lighted that of the old man, whose pride had so nearly blighted

OIL WELLS AT SEA. The whale is by no mosns the only known to fame, the humble menhaden yields oil and fertilizer worth $1,000, 000 a year, giving employment to 1,800 fishermen and 1,000 employees of fifty "Grandfather, I am here," said the factories. The people who are so Act." profitably engaged in slaughtering 700,000,000 of these fishes every year naturally claim that they were created providentially for the express purpose since they are not fit for food, and yet the supply scems inexhaustable. No one knows whence they come whither they go. All we know is that overy apring vast schools of then appear in the Gulf of Mexico, heading north in closely packed masses, near "We are both children, grandfather, | the surface, utterly incapable of either

CONUNDRUMS. 1. Why does a chicken cross the

2. Chink, chank under the bank, to drawing four ? 3. There were a frog, a duck, a lam and a skunk went to a fair. They each had to pay a dollar to get in. How many got in, and how did they got in i 4. What is it that a rich man wants, a poor man bas, and an honest may stonla? -5. -What is it that occurs once to minute, twice in a moment, and never onto in a thousand years?

ANHWIGH

1. To get to the other side. 2. A lady milking a cow.

duck had a bill, the tamb had four quarters, the skunk had a cent, and it was a had one. 4. Nothing. 5. The lester "m."

THE ART OF BKIP READING. Skip reading is an accomplishment our own time. An ordinary man or woman of to-day can extract all the requisite information out of a newspaper in less than five minutes by the exorolse of this now senso-for it is litthe else than this. The eyes race down a column, pick up instinctively an es sontial word here and there, and the brain fills in the intervals intelligently producing a precis which is sufficien for the purpose,

NOTHING DOING. Mistress-Jane, I saw a milkman kin you this morning. In the future I wil

TWENTY YEARS AGO. Chronioles Carefully Coralled and Condensed from the Free Press of November 17th, 1887.

Mesers. Graham & Graham have pened out in the meat business in the neat shoperected beside Kenney Bros'. Digo-In Equesing, Nav. 6th, 1887,

Mary Ann, widow of the late James

Brown, and mother of Mr. James

Brown, farmer here, aged 76 years, 6 The late Mrer Brown bangs to Esquesand lived on the farm then taken up until her donth. Her bushand died 13 years ngo; Hor docease will be regretness and coloyed her hospitality lo years gone by. Her'sly sops noted as

Prof. Panton and the 3rd-year students at the O.A.O. in investigating the Rookwood Caves started on Saturlong, and by worming their way in through passages, some less than two feet in diameter, which opened into feet from theontrance. They are going to lovestigate the pot holes, which are circular with perfectly formed sides, and are supposed to be made by friction of small stones under a glacier. The large one is estimated to be 25 feet deep, and nearly as large as the one at Lucrne, Switzelard, supposed to be the largest in the world. Two men, S. Daffield, Rockwood, and H. Foley, Morriston, who publicly declared they would pay no Boott Act finer, linve had distress warrants b sued for the collection of $50, and $100 for two fines respectively.

"Glenner," of Crowsons Corners, ro ports stiering evangelistic services in the Methodist Church under the lenderable of Revs. Swann and Baruby, Also deprecates the possibility of Halton repealing the Heatt Act, as owing to its active enforcement, the word "Halton" was a good roply to those who said prohibition was not enforced in Maine, or Massachusetts, or Michigan. Under the large-type caption, "A Rousing Meeting," a three-quarter when one of the largest andlences, over seen in the town hall, assembled on the 7th to hear Mrs. Youmans, upon Tyle called the meeting to order, and grounds. One night, unseen himself, Mr. D. Honderson, banker, was uppointed chairman. On the platform were : Rov. A. E. Riss, Co. Pres., Rov. O. R. Morrow, Co. Secy., Police Magistrate Young, Rev. R. Phillips, Rev. J. W. Rao and Rov. R. B. Cook. Mrs. Youmans spoke for over an hour, followed by the gentleman out of town, named. Mrs. Youmans asked for an expression of favor for the Act, and nearly every one rose, including many who had previously voted against the Argonaut. The Georgetown Herald gives further interesting information re Esquésing's poor fund fluancing under icense and no-license. In the four years previous to the Scott Act in Halon, in Evquesing $1,203.00 was paid for licenses, and $2,082.56 paid for the . road detective said he caught the felsupport of the poor. During the past four years only $503.80 has been required for charity. The Woodstook goal returns for the County of Oxford, for the year, show that not one person was imprisoned for I the judge. drunkonness, but that six were for broach of the "Canada Temperance Six dynamic explosions have occur- the joke that he let him go. red in Ocangovillo in two years. It is noteworthy that they always occur after liquor mon have-been fined. Or Nov. 15th the house of Inspector Ancourts is thus indicated by the Atlanta derson was again blown up. He had only luft the house's few minutes, but was badly stunned, but his wife, who was alone in the house, was badly shocked. A note was found tacked to the fence, warning him to desist from | red ?" his efforts on bobalf of the act, and stating that he might congratulate blinself that he had not been blown to "Kingdom Como" before this. MARRIED-At the residence of the bride, Grimsby, by Rav. D. 16. Brow nell, Roy, Christopher Cankman, of Waterdown, to Minnle, Lawy of the into J. M. Bowsinugh, and sister of Rov. D. E. F. Gor, and Rov. Thus

Bonn-In Acton, Nov. 10th, to Mr. and Mrs. George Hynds, Chalrman Public School Board, a son. nows for you. We've had a birth in Boun-In Esquesing, Nov. 12th, to

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mullin, a son.

HOW HE DIED. An Lishman is too nimble to be eatight when he doesn't wish to be an probonded. Cardinal Manning delight ed to tell the following story as m 3. The frog had a green back, the Blustration of the national elusive-

> An Irishman, the son of one who has been hanged, having been asked liow his father died, thus cluded the admiswlon of the fact : "Sure, thin, my father, who was very rookless man, was jist standin' on a platform barangulag a mol, when part of the platform suddenly gave was found his nook was broken."

way, and he fell through, and thin i fitted by Vinol at this season of the In Puris, as well as in some other venr. Vinol is delicious to the taste, parts of the world, there are men of fashion who alm to do everything as the English do it. A fopplish Frenchnun, who know no Knglish, but nover thologs onlied himself a "gentleman," went so far in his Anglomania as to write "Hog," after the names of men | coughs, chronic colds, bronchitis and to whom he wrote letters, on the back | all throat and lung troubles. Orentes of the envelopes. By and by a friend | an appetite and unkes those who are "Why, the English do it," the other

"You, but what does 'Beq.' moan?"

answeredi

With the smile upon her lips,

With the wonder in her eyes

MAIDENHOOD. Where the buds are white and plak, On the trees the bursting green, In the land of "Oh, I think, In the years, years that have been; 'Neath the blue of perfect skies,

And the world at finger tipe. Morging from the dewy morn, Dazzling le the noon-day heat, ind the thunder of the storm. With its quick, putarting best; Watching shadowy figures glido. In a new world just anon;

Hill does dim regret abidd For the morning prayer and song, o the future vagnety reaches. With a Learful glanco behind datbning, while the new hour tenches, All the longing of the heart; ..

For the still great, unknown part. -Minnie Evelyn Henderson, in The Unnadlan Magazine.

n the land where mankind weeks

THE "NADUR" AND THE PIDDLE. Horo is a story that Frederick Douglass used to tell about himself! Once when he was in Dublin he felt very lonesome. He was wandering about the street, when he was attracted by two violing in the window of second-hand dealer. Frederick ontered and asked the price of one of the instruments. "Pive shillings, sor," said the Irish

Prederick tuned the violin and began to play "Rocky Road to Dublin." Boon the proprietor's wife heard the music and entered the rear door. Then Frederick started in on "The Irish Washerwoman," and the couple began to dance for door life. When the music and dancing stopped Fredorick tendered the dealer five shillings, but his performance on the violin had greatly enhanced its value in the mind of the storekeeper, and as he hurrled away to a place of security he exclaimed : "If a black nagur can git such chunesout of that fiddle I'll never sell

It at any prices, begorrah !"

THE SECRET. From his farm Judge Blank was in the habit of supplying the preachers of all the churches with flour, corn. column report is given of a meeting hay and vegetables free of cost. He also kept the country supplied with venison from the herd of deer which he kept for many years. He built a the repeal of the Scott Act. Reeve blg smokehouse in the rear of his he saw a man emerge from the smokehouse with a side of pork on his shoul der. He recognized the intruder, but sald nothing. A week afterward the fellow approached him, saying, "Judge, I understand you had some

> The old judge raised his hand deprecatingly and said : "Sh! No one on outth knows any-ment stolen from your smokehouse?"

thing about that but you and me."-WIT SAVED HIM.

An instance of wit serving as a buckler is mentioned by the Buffalo A man was up before a judge the other day for stealing coal. The raillow in a conl-car, but the man said be was only eleeping there because his wife had looked him out and he had no money to go to a hotel. "Protty hard bed, wasn't it P" asked

"Oh no, sir," he answered.

And the judge was so struck with NOVEL MENUTRATION. One of the difficulties in the way of acquiring exact information in Georgia Constitution : "How far was it ?" asked the lawyer of the witness, "from your house to the road where the difficulty occur "Bout a acre on a half, suh."

"I mean how many yards?" "Doy wurn't any yards dero at all, anh, exceptin' of my yard, en dat wuz bout a acre on a balf fum de road !" CORRECTED. A commercial traveller who makes frequent trips to the West from New York is on friendly terms with the porter of the sleeping car, who reloices in the name of Lawrence Lee. "Well, Lawrence," announced th salesman, gloefully, "I have good

"Dat am no birth, sir," said Lawrence, "dat's a section."

our family-twins, by George."

WANTED. Every Man, Woman and Child !

To only at our store for the greatest strongth orestor and houlth restorer which we have over sold-Vinel. It is not a patent medicine, but the most valuable coil liver preparation made by an extractive and concentrating process from fresh cods' livers without a drop of oil to mangeate and upset the stomach and retard its work, and tonio from which is a needful constituent for the blood added.

We do not believe there is a person in this violaity who cannot be bone-and it is recognized as the greatest strength creator for old people, work, sickly women and children, nursing mothers, and after a severe slokness. Vinol la unequalled for backing too thin, fat, rosy any hosithy. We have had so much experience with Vinol and soon so many wonderfull results from it's use that we offer

"Why, you see, the linglish are of to return money without question if had been spending his summer and If you do not wish me to shed tears of | Subbubs-Not I have a sign on the a very cold imperament, and admire | it does not accomplish all we claim for the hills, they spoke pityingly rather blood that you were not buried with gate reading "We are strictly vege; sold things, and Eig., which means it It. A. Robertson, drugglet, Acton, i quinau, is a great compliment !"

Livery