At the Corwhio school last Friday evening a spleadid concert and onter talminent was given before a large and well satisfied audience. It was given with a view to raising funds for the library of the school. Mr. Cockburn occupied the chair, and addresses were delivered by Principal Davison, of Guelph, and Inspector Major Craig. M.P.P., of Fergus. The programme consisted of songs, recitations, atc., by the children of the school, most credit ably randered, under the direction of Miss Barchy, who had charge of the training of the children. Others who took part in the programme were John Strachan, G. T. McArthur, o Guelph, and Itablason's orchestra, of
