IN THE METHODIST CHURCH.

The unniversary services are always occasions of interest in the churches. The sixty-third anniversary of th Mothodist Church was observed las Bunday, and the able sermons of Rov J. J. Redditt, of Taranta, were enjoyed by large congregations morning and

The morning discourse was based upon Rom. 10; I-4, and presented the leading characteristics of St. Paul as a Christian patriot. Careful perusal c the epictic proves that Paul was no luss noted as a patriot than as a Christian. As a patriot he proposed a remedy for the moral decadence of his mation His patriotiem was his heart's desire It was the product of philapthropy His search for the hest good for his country made salvation the object His hourt's dosire was that they might be saved. The great theme of the bible le the salvation of mon- Halva tion implies deliverance from byll of every kind t restoring a right state to the soul. When people are saved they come into possession of every good If people are saved, God must inter pose to sure them. If God is to save them it must be through intercessory prayer, through Jests Christ, one great reason why men are no saved is because they will not submit themselves unto God. Mon are only mitted themselves to God. In the evening this gifted presches delivered a most helpful sermon up in the everlasting love of God. The text was: Jer. 31; 31 "I have loved thee with an everlasting love; therefore with loving-kindness have I drawn thee." The personality of God is here set before us. God addresses us as a great personality. Ille great heart was skilfully treated under two divisone, lat, that love is personal, and 2nd, that love is oternal. I have loved thee, He declared. He line given man nore faculties of enjoyment than any other creature He created. His gifts include the power of intellect; coolal effection, and religious affinities. The fatherhood of God is revealed in Josus Christ. We are, therefore, under obligation to serve God. God's love is John W. Philip, of Carman, Man. everlasting. I have loved thee with an everlasting love. Christ and his mediation was no after thought with God. He was the expression and manifestation of God's love. He died because God leved us. The great central thought and will of God is the walvation of mon. All good things are meant by God to Impress them of his love. He is searching after your heartstrings. God loves you. My friends, he concluded, will you accept the measage : "I have loved thee with an ever-

Shopping This Week

HERE is but one short step from now till Christmas, and only a lew days before Winter Fair week is here. The busiest days of the year are commencing. Begin early this week to do some shopping. You will find our offerings for this first week of December of more tham usual interest. We are indeed gratified with November's business. Our sales' records show a splendid increase over former years.

The unprecedented volume of trade that our men's and women's clothing sections handled emphasizes more strongly than ever the unquestioned leadership of this store when it comes to men's and women's outfitting.

Our unequalled manufacturing facilities enable us to offer values in these departments that you will not find at any other store. Just now the red letter special price tickets all over the store tell of money-savings that you cannot afford to miss. Again we say, shop this week. before the impending invasion of seekers after gifts, when shopping cannot be accomplished to such advantage.
