KNATCHBULL.

Mr. William Alexander, of Nassagaweya, lost a fine two year old colt last week from distemper.

Dr. L. H. Wilson and family, of Armada, Mich., are visiting friends in Nassagaweya and Eden Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. Diamond, of Guelph, visited at Mr. Jas. Lind's last week.

The Central Emigration Board, of London, Eng., states that the bulk of emigrants proceed to Canada not always because there is a predilection for this country, but because it is easy to secure passage, and work is guaranteed. The Board appeals for funds to start boys on farms in Canada.

It is gratifying to note that, while the Canadian Magazine, as a literary production, has for some time been holding its own with the high-class magazines, it is now showing a marked advance artistically. The Christmas number gave emphasis to this feature, and again the January number contains some particularly attractive illustrations. The drawings of Louis A. Holman, illustrating an article on old Acadia forts, are especially good. The number contains a very valuable and illuminating article, entitled "Metal Mining in Canada," by Ralph Stokes, an authority on mining, and contributions by Dr. Louis Frechette, Virna Sheard, A. R. Carman, and other well-known writers.

It's easier to drive some men to drink than it is to hold them back.

NEWS OF LOCAL IMPORT.

Many Teachers and Students.

Acton sends out an astonishingly large number of teachers, students at university and theological colleges, the normal schools, high schools and business colleges. About a carload of them left to resume their duties after the holidays on Saturday and Monday.

The Shakespeare Club Resumes.

The first evening of the Shakespeare Club for the season was held at the home of Miss Minnie Bennett on Monday evening. Miss Kate Kennedy is the President and Mrs. A. T. Brown, Secretary. An enjoyable season with this standard poet is anticipated.

A Soloist at Knox Church.

Miss Maud Jordan, of Orangeville, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. John Lawson, the last two weeks, sang in Knox Church with much acceptance last Sunday morning. "One Sweetly Solemn Thought." Miss Jordan is a pupil of Mabel Manley, Toronto, and is making most encouraging progress as a vocalist. She has an exceedingly sweet voice and splendid compass.

Mr. Davidson's New Barn Raised.

Mr. Chas. Davidson's commodious new barn, which has been under construction for the past two months, is well under way. The frame-work has been completed and was raised last week. It is an excellent frame and went together well, doing much credit to Mr. N. McMurchy, the contractor. If the weather is favorable, the structure will speedily be finished. Mr. Davidson is proud of his new barn, which is much larger and better than the one destroyed by fire last July.

Death of Robt. Cunningham, Guelph

Mr. Robert Cunningham, insurance agent, Guelph, very widely known, died on New Year's Eve., at 9 o'clock, aged 71 years. He had a paralytic stroke on Friday, from which he never rallied. The deceased was somewhat bluff in manner, but kindly at heart, and very free in dispensing charity. In his death Guelph loses a good and progressive citizen. He leaves a widow, but no children. Mr. Cunningham was well-known in Acton. He attended the funeral of the late Col. Allan on 21st November. In renewing his subscription to the FREE PRESS on the 24th December, he wrote: "The FREE PRESS is a decent, clean sheet. I wish you much success in the year on which we are so soon to enter."

Bob Gurney's Admirable Enterprise

Mr. R. J. Gurney, of Calgary, Alta., arrived in Acton on New Year's night to spend a few days with friends here and with his father's family at Mimosa. On the 24th November fire broke out in the drygoods store of Gurney & Co. of which Mr. Gurney is the leading member of the firm. The premises were gutted and the firm sustained a loss by fire and water of $8000. They carried an insurance of $4000. After selling off the salvage the premises were put into the hands of carpenters, painters and other tradesmen for repairs and Mr. Gurney came east to select a new stock. He has been at wholesale houses at Montreal, New York and Toronto for several weeks. The store was re-opened the day before Christmas.

Another New Teacher.

At the meeting of the Board of Education, reported in last issue, Miss Tina McQueen was engaged teacher of the third department of the Public School. A few days after her engagement Miss McQueen notified the Board that she had decided to accept an offer received from Toronto. This vacancy was promptly filled by the engagement of Miss Queenie McIntyre, daughter of Mr. A. L. McIntyre, President of the Listowel Business College. Miss McIntyre is an experienced teacher and will no doubt make a very satisfactory successor to Miss Smith. Miss Hammond, the new assistant in the High School Department, took her place also at the opening of the school on Monday.

The Late Mrs. S. Graham.

Mrs. Samuel Graham, who died at the family residence on Bower Ave. on Saturday, 28th December, was born near Malton, on April 15th, 1828. She was joined in wedlock with her late husband, Samuel Graham, on February 9th, 1847, and for 28 years theirs was a very happy home, until death removed the head on January 10th, 1875. After their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Graham lived for several years in Caledon and then removed to Erin where they resided until his death, and in fact until nine years ago, when the family came to Acton. Deceased was a lady of very fine character, a friend to all, a neighbor esteemed and a mother beloved. She was a devout Christian, a member of the Baptist Church, and her home was always a welcome lodging place for all the ministers. Mrs. Graham is survived by a family of nine, as follows: Dr. W. H. Graham, Detroit; Joseph and Mrs. Waite, of Copper Cliff; Samuel, of British Columbia; Ida, of North Dakota; Mrs. James McIntosh and Misses Emma and Martha, in Acton. All the members of the family were home for the funeral, but Mr. Samuel, of British Columbia. The remains were interred in the family plot at Erin Cemetary on Monday, 30th ult.

Knox S.S. New Year's Entertainment

The annual entertainment, of Knox Sunday School, held on New Year's night, was a decided success from the financial standpoint. A good crowd listened to the varied programme with evident interest. The cantata entitled "Santa Claus" included several solos, dialogues and recitations, and each part was well performed by those representing the various characters. The chorus of Santa Claus' workmen was especially enjoyed by the juvenile portion of the audience. A flag drill given by sixteen small girls, was an interesting feature of the programme. An entirely new diversion was made by a pantomime given by one gentleman and fourteen ladies; judging by the close attention given to this number it was highly interesting to those looking on. The scene of the greater part of the pantomime was laid in the parlors of the matrimonial agent where the young bachelor was seeking a wife. The climax was reached when he at last discovered one who could sweep, wash, scrub, etc., to his satisfaction. Rev. J. C. Wilson, B.A., pastor of the church, acted as chairman.

DUBLIN.

On the evening of the 19th December, Miss McEwen, the teacher, held a concert in Dublin school in behalf of the Library. The weather was very cold and stormy, consequently, owing to poor stable accommodation, the attendance was not up to expectation, although the school was about filled.

The programme was very suitable and interesting. Selections of a varied nature were given by pupils and were intermingled by addresses, songs and Scotch dances. The stars among the pupils were, James Gibbons Jr., who made an excellent opening address and later sang, Willie Ross, Irene Mulholland, Lena Carty and George Somerville. The dancers were Minnie Stalker and Peter Ferguson, while music was supplied by Piper Ross and the Arthurs family. Singers were Mrs. George Midgley and Alex. Munroe. Both received hearty applause. Short addresses were given by Wm. Hampshire and Wm. L. Mullin. Chairman Wm. Mullin. Miss McEwen, who was leaving Dublin, having taught there three years, was presented by people of the section, with a beautiful ring, bracelet and locket; accompanied by a suitable address. It was read on behalf of the pupils by Wm. L. Mullin, and the presentation was made by Flossy Joe. Eleanor Stewart and Rita Gibbons. Miss McEwen was very popular through out the section and leaves carrying with her their best wish for her future success. Following is the address:

DEAR TEACHER.

For three years we have stood in the relation of teacher and pupils and we wish to tell you how grateful we are for the kind direction, the wise counsel, and the keen sympathy which has made all our intercourse pleasant, as well as profitable. It is scarcely necessary to speak here of the splendid record you have made and maintained for our school. It is owing to your ability and enthusiasm that it stands to-day in the front rank among the schools of Halton, and we do not need to seek far for the secret of success. By patient guidance in our difficulties you have ruled through teaching self-control. Under your care we have gone on from strength to strength in a preparation for the battle of life and our success; our usefulness in the coming years, will be a lasting memorial to your earnest and self-denying labors. At this hour of parting as a token of regard and esteem we ask you to accept this bracelet, ring and locket.

Though you are no longer our teacher the stronger bonds woven by mutual interest and aims will not be easily severed. You will always hold a place in our memories as having made your work as a divine mission by doing it in a right spirit and cheerfully spending your strength in diligence and patience on our behalf. Wherever we go, however we may be employed, as often as our thoughts revisit the scenes of our childhood and dwell upon the events that marked our youthful progress, our memories will recur to the old school house and in recalling the well-remembered incidents of school life, its abiding influences towards truth and right we shall ever feel devoutly thankful to God for his gift of a patient, faithful, self-denying teacher.

With Christmas greetings and best wishes for your future success we bid you farewell.

Signed on behalf of Section by

MANUFACTURER'S FORCED SELLING.
