BRIEF LOCAL ITEMS.

Building operations are commencing.
According to the almanac this is spring.
Garden activities are being arranged.
March, retired as per proverb—quite lamb-like.
The vernal equinox passed very early this spring.
Maple sugar supplies are still being laid in by the farmers.
Hartney, Man., recently carried local option by 127 to 11.
Spring morning walks will now be popular and invigorating.
An experienced golfer would find Action a fruitful field for enjoyment.
Mr. W. G. Brent, Toronto, has purchased $25,500 of Oakville's debentures for $24,400.
April is here again. Now for warm showers and preparation for May flowers.
Rev. Mr. Willoughby was unable to get to Churchill from Georgetown on Sunday afternoon.

The young people of Knox Church are talking of raising funds for the purchase of a bell for the church.
Miss Mary Simchuk passed her primary piano examinations at Metropolitan School of Music, Toronto, last week.

Mr. S. H. Graham, of The Oshawa Vindicator, died suddenly of heart failure at his home on Monday morning, at the age of fifty-four.

A gun shot in a stray bullet from the gun of some unknown shooter went through the door of Burlington's public library on Monday morning.

The fresh invigorating air of April owes much to the boisterous March winds which scattered the unhealthy miasmas which linger as the snow melts.

A notice has been posted to the effect that the factories of the Bell Piano and Organ Company will be closed down next week.—Guelph Herald.

A number of citizens have been greatly annoyed by boys ringing bells and knocking at doors. If these senseless pranks continue some arrests may follow.

The residents of Beardmore expect would very much appreciate the laying of sidewalks or pavements there. It is most disagreeable getting about through mud.

Mr. Fred W. Park has kindly sent the Picton People copies of the Red Dog Advocate, special number, illustrating the growth and importance of this thriving northwest town and its vicinity.

A new drain has been opened during the past week on Willow Street, from near Church Street southward. Quicksand was encountered and filled the tile laid on Saturday. On Monday afternoon the Fire Brigade was called out and they flushed everything clean.

It is said that the cut of wood was much less than usual this year, owing, no doubt, to the heavy fall of snow, which made it nearly impossible to handle the trees after they had been felled. This being the case the price is likely to be very high during the coming fall and winter.

The address of Rev. R. P. Stillman, of Chilliwack, B.C., before the Sunday School of the Methodist Church last Sunday afternoon, which enjoyed, Rev. Mr. Stillman has travelled the ground covered in Ralph Connor's "Silky Fins."

He is personally acquainted with most of the characters in "The Doctor."

Those who attended the meeting of the Epworth League in the Methodist church on Monday night were very much delighted with an address on "Personal Influence" by Mr. Hampshire of the Scotch Block. Miss Clara Moore, of Acton, was the only other outside person who took part in the programme, which was altogether of a delightful character.—Georgetown Herald.

Fresh tea is all-important. Ten weeks after being picked in the tea gardens of the Island of Ceylon (the finest tea-producing country in the world) "Salada" reaches you. The flavor of tea consists in an essential oil, which deteriorates rapidly with age. In order to preserve the delicious flavor of "Salada" tea it is packed in sealed lead packets (never sold in bulk), guaranteeing you a superior tea, in flavor, quality, purity and economy in use.

Life is like a bath; we cannot tell its possibilities until the season of bloom has ended.

A man may live justly by avoiding what is blamable in others.—Montaigne
