Fourteenth Canadian Horse Bhow. In spite of the commercial and fin anolal depression the prices of the best class of horses have nover been so high in Canada as at present. The show ring horses are held at higher prices than animals of the same class in the United States. This fact has a special interest in relation to the fourteenth Canadian Horse Show which is to b held in the St. Lawrence Arena of April 20th, 90th, May 1st and 2nd The entries promise to be larger than at any provious show. All the leading exhibitors will be largely represented. Hon. Adam Beck, of London, has added no less than ten hunters to the fine stuble possessed by Mrs. Beck and himself. One of the new ones is sald to be a better horse than Kakabeka which won the premier honorant the International Horse Show in London last year. Mr. John J.
