Acton Free

VOLUME XXXIV .--- NO. 4.

Brery Subscription Paid in Advance.

ACTON, ONTARIO, THURSDAY MORNING, JULY 28, 1908.

Subscription Price, $1.00 Per Aunum.

SINGLE COPIES---THREE CENTS

The Acton Free Press

MVERY THURSDAY MORNING Free Press Steam Printing Office, ACTON, OMT AILL STREET.

per year strictly in advance. All sub-scriptions discontinued when the time for which they have been paid has ex-pired. The date to which every sub-scription is paid is denoted on the ad-trees label. Jress label.

Advertising Maise—Transient advertisements, 10 cents per Nonparell line for first insertion, 4 cents per line for seat subsequent insertion;

Advertisements, without specific directions, will be inserted till forbid and charged accordingly. Transient advertisements must be paid in advance.

Advertisements will be changed once each month, if desired. For changes estated than above mentioned the composition must be paid for at regular rates.

Changes for contract advertisements

Changes for contract advertisements must be in the office by noon on Ture Accounts payable monthly.

English office. 20 First Street, Log-don, E. C., where Mesers, E. and J. Hardy & Co. will receive for us news subscriptions and advertisaments, and where our readers can, free of charge, see our paper when in England. H. P. MOORE Editor and Proprietor.

Ensiness Birectory.

MEDICAL.

THOS. GRAY, M. D. C. M., McGILL. L. R. C. F. HOUNDON. I. L. P. & S. GLASSOW. MEMBER BETTER MEDICAL ASSOCIATION Dre Mos-Frederick Street

D. AULT, M. D. C. M. Office-Perryman's Block, sorser Mill Office Rours-9 to 19 a.m.; I to 6 and T Might calls answered from residence, Freder-

MOTOM . DR. A. L. HORE. Graduate of University of Toront Office at residence, on Willow Street,-Phone Md. 30.

WOLON. TORK M. MACDONALD, M.D. C.M. Proprietor and Ruperintendoni MASSEY HOSPITAL

Discusses of women. For particulars as to accommodation, etc., Mesery, F.O. Out. Lödrees Bos 16 DR. DRYDEN, BYE, MAR. TERCHT AND MOOR. Corner Woolvich and Bakes Streets. GUELLEH. Ourses Mount-16 .m. to p.m. and I to 0 Spenars-10 p.m. to 1 p.m.

LEGAL. J. MACKINHON BARRISTER, SOLICIPOR, CONVEYANCE OFFICE Mill Street, in Storele' Block, Georgetown Branch-Main Street,

J. Manabb. Chart, Fourth Division Court County of on Courte Parent Agent Fire and Life Americal Research Agent. Money to loan, etc.

Opposer Perryman a Block
AOTOM ONT.

DENTAL.

TR. J. M. BELL, D.D.S., L.D.S. Office at Residence, Corner Mill and Frederick Meden GRADUATE OF TORONTO UNIVERSITY The latest ansesthetle need if desired.

At Bookwood Jusedays. IL BREETE, L.D.S., DESTIST, R. I. P. COGHLAN, DENTIST,

GUNLIPS, (Formerly of Actor.)

Joseph in his new office somer of Wynd.

& Cort hitracts, Quelph | over offices of

& Ontario Investment and Mavings

| Entrance Cort III. | Phone II.

MISCHLY AMBOUS. AND I. HARDY & CO.,

ADVERTISING CONTRACTORS AND NEWS CORRESPONDENTS. Pleat Street, London, E. C., England.

THRANCIS HUNAN (Over Williams Store.)

seriodicale provery description naverally bound. MARRIAGE LICENSES. H. P. MOORE

OURS OF MARRIAGE LACRESTS. Private Office. No witnesses required. Immed a residence in the evening. WETM HEMSTREET.

LIGHTED ADDRESSEE the Counties of Wallington and Halson or left at the Frank France school, Aston, or Property at the promptly a Also makery to look on the most favorable man, and at the lowest rates of interest, i

LICENSED AUCTIONEER ory lofe with the Pages Pages, Aston, will

TAMES MUDONALD MERHOTTOUA, CHEMEDIL.

The latest and the la

Your chopping will be done quickly and well, either plates or stones, if taken to the-

ROCKWOOD Chopping Mills

Oatmea Flour Short The best at lowest

HARRIS & OO Limited

Pictures at Waters Bros.

New ideas in Framing...... Artists' Supplies .... Oil and Water Colors ..... Always fresh and of the best quality.

WATERS BROS. GUELPH ART STORE.

GEORGETOWN FL()RAL GO. Limited.

CUT FLOWER GROWERS Funeral and Wedding Orders Specialty.

GEORGETOWN.

All orders placed with Mr. E. A. Robertson, Drugglet, Acton, will receive prompt attention.

The Old and Reliable Granite and Marble Dealers

Will are manufacturers and direct imposted west. We sail direct to car enatomers at whole sale prises. these saving our enatomers at whole sale prises. these saving our enatomers at whole sail machanies in the Dominion who can operate passent to the posterior who can present and phone troppedly. We can five the passent and other places, where others have to stand law suits in order to collect. We have the largest and best stock of Granise in the largest and best stock of Granise in the largest and heat stock of Granise in the largest and heat stock of Granise in the West. We are legitimate dealers and one-pley up agents, and do not amone or post reporters we employ mechanics only and defy competition.

HAMILTON & SONS Oer. Morfelt and Woolpiehtler., GUNL PH

W. H. WALKER Paper Hanger

Decorator" Main Street, Acton,

Opposite Stephenson's Blacksmith All work guaranteed. The worl of years in Acton is proof of its ex-Orders left at A. T. Brown's Drug store will receive prompt attention W. H. WALKER ACTOR

Excelsion Bakery

We are headquarters in Acton for Bread, Cakes, Pastry, etc., of firstclass quality. We-also carry a splendid stock of Groceries and Confectionery.

T. Statham & Son

> HOTON MOR

BUS LINO

The undersigned respectfully solicits the pairousge of the public, and justices them that Wall Reutipped and Stylick Star oan always be secured at his A comfortable hus meets

The Big Hardware Store

Lawn Mowers Refrigerators

Screen Doors Windows Linoleum.

Garden Tools Netting Hammooks ...

Our Prices are Always Right

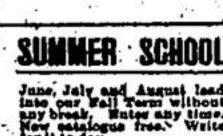

The BOND HARDWARE

Retall Phone 07

Shur-on Success

We are on the top rung of the ludder of success to day, bedone our best to please our patrons. We've always recommended Eyeglasees and they have pleased thousands of our patrons Bee us before you get another pair of Eve-Lense grinding.

Quick repairs. SAVAGE Exclusive Ontario

June, July and August lead inte our Fall Term without any break. Huter any time. New catalogue free. Write for it to-day. CENTRAL BUSINESS COLLEGE The largest, most reliable of W. M. SHAW, Principal, Youge and Gerrard Street, Teronte.

Conveniences

BROUGHT TO YOUR HO your home, with hot and cold water under pressure wherever required. Why not have it and be up to date? By the OMPRESSED AIR SYSTI this is successfully accomplished.

even though you have no water works system within reach. If this interests you, write to day. Orders may be left with Mr. Spencer Husband, Acton. For further particulars write

GEO. E. B. GRINYER &

Old Home Week

Will be more enjoyable if you wear a new Hat or Cap. It's you duty as a citizen to tell your friends about La Fontsine's Hat Sale, if you do not wear one yourself.

$2.50 and $3.00 Hats, at

Straw Hats, Half Price. Caps, Half Price.

See them and take ad

Lafontaine's Establishment

95 Quebec Street, GUELPH

THE WAY TO Muskoka

Maganetawan, and the best country in six provinces for the holiday maker and business man, opened up by the blackmenton worker by at Aud this giving had won his way for

Boetry. THE KISS IN SCHOOL

A District School, not far away, 'Mid Herkshire hills, one winter's day Was humming with its wonted note Of three-score mingled girls and boys; Some few upon their tasks intent. list more on future mischief bent The while the master's downward look Was fastened on a copy-book, When suddenly behind his back. Rose sharp and clear a rousing smac As twere a battery of blice, ... Let off in one tramendous kies. "What's that ?" the startled misste

"That, thir," a little imp replies, leaw his kith Thuthahpab Peathe With frown to make a statue thrill, The Mester thundered, "Hither, Will! Like wretch o'ertaken in his track," With stoley chattels on his back, Will hung his head in four and shame And to that awful presence came : A great, green bashful simpsiton, The butt of all good-natured fun.

With sinils suppressed and birch The threatener faltered: "I'm amaze That you, my biggest pupil, should He guilty of an act so rude! before the whole set school in hout What evil genius put you 'o 't?"
"Twas she, herself, sir," sobbed

"I didn't mean to be so bad; But when Susannah shook her ourk And whispered I was 'fraid of girls, And duren't kies a baby's doll I couldn't stand it sir, at all I list up and kissed her on the spot. know-boo-hoo-I ought to not, But, somehow from her looks, -- box

I thought she kind o'wished me to.'

Relect Family Reading

Charles and the charles and th The Deputy Janitor of The Rosamond.

By Clem V. Wagner ORRIS Raymore' tunity had come, and had now called upon the college president to say good-bye, preparatory to going forth from . school to take a situation as a teacher. "I have a letter asking that you come at once." said his teacher and friend. "Now, as you go, my boy, remomber that we here are sure you will succeed. I am told it is not an easy position, but I feel you will be equal to it, Only but heart into your work.

and let your real self go out to meet your pupils, and you'll win." And so the young man came to enter upon his duties at the head of th grammar department of the schools in in the rather overgrown country town. As his preceptor had intimated, the place was not an easy one. The teacher | way a secret - secret which was t who had preceeded blip had been very popular with the pupils, but had had some trouble with those in authority over him, and for that reason had been compelled to resign his position. boys and girls of the department had deck, protested against the loss of the favorite teacher, and were in a spirit of rebellion that made them anything but friendly to the newcomer. Morris felt this from the first, but sarnestly sought to overcome the under curre of opposition. But while some were won by frank parneetness with which he went about his work, the greater number his pupils maintained a decidedly .unfriendly attitude toward him. . They mountain shodtens shi herunan with those of his predecessor. . His very efforts to make friends they affected to be incincere. They recented i "The boy professor tried to be very ice to the geometry class to-day," said Myrk Graham, as a crowd of boys and

uch terms. "Nicel" exclaimed Charles Lane with a shake of the bead by which you notice how he blushed, when Chester unked, in the general history class, why it was the Athenians never allowed a young must to become a teacher!" | teacher. "Yes," answered Lester Drayton "But I thought he gave it a pretty good turn, when he said that those same young man could do, when Alexander, at eighteen, conquered them in battle. He is just eighteen, now, you know. "Do you know, folks," Interrupted Lens Gaines, "that Tom Martin has been very slok P. I saw Mrs. Bush out for several weeks yet. He lives with them." Inquiries were made concerning their sick schoolmate, and it was agreed that someone from the school ought to call at the Bush residence and let Tom know that he was not forgotten. Leeter Daytijt and Charles Lane offered to take this duty upon themselves, and the others at chos hirdened them with messages of good will to be conveyed to the sick boy, who was a popular made their way to the remote part of the town where their schoolmete made his home. They had just turned a cornet on which stood a large building known as Bossmand Plats, when Lester uttered an exclamation. the building . A young man clothed in for had, advised him to give his year blue overelle and a blueblones was just self to ble pupile. He bad done this delwying a heaket of post thinough the carpetly, unselfishly, and in a way The boy professor it sexclaimed spoken the words of spoourement.

"It certainty who the toacher,"

at a pile of coal at the street-curb, and carried it into the basement. "No mlatuke !" said Charles. he !" And then, as they turned away be added, "Pretty work for a grammar-school professor!" But there was a good deal of hesitation in the word Indeed, both the boys instinctively fel that there was some mystery here. garded her curiously. When they arrived at the Bush home "You haven't given up, have you they found that young Martin was a she said. Ill that callers were not allowed to see

"Tell him that the class misses his and that we hope he'll come back soon, bim, and all they could do was to ask that the right he informed of their added Leeter. "I'm sure he'll appreciate your con lng," said Mrv. Bush; who had come t the door to receive them. "He's wrap up in his school, Tuni is," she went on "And he just idolises Mr. Raymor Well be might, too, for Mr. Raymor's been a friend in need to him. You know Tom's working his way through school, and just before he came down he had got the japitor work at the Rosamond Plats to do mornings and eveninge. When he got sick he worrled to think he might lose the place by being away. But Mr. Raymor told him to rest easy, se he'd get someone from the school-I don't know just who-to attend to the janitor work. And the teacher's done this, so Tom feels say shout it. The pay comes in good to him, too, now he doubly needs it."

The two boys exchanged significant glances. "We were in a hurry that time exciginged Lector, as they again passed into the street. "Doing it all himself

"Makes two fellows about our sixe seem rather small, doesn't it?" orle Charles. "We've been a set of unruly silly nulsances, anyway !" he went or "What have we done it for? We've tried to hurt his work and to make life miserable for him, and he's just gone ahead and trusted us as though w were gentlemen.'

"Here comes Lona Gaines. Her peple live in the Rosamund, and she know something about the matter Lenn," he asked, us they came up t the girl. "what do you know about Mr. Raymor being lanker of you

Lans looked heeltatingly from one "That's a secret," . he amilingly rai at last. "But since you seem to know It, I guess it is not a secret any more

Mr. Raymor seked me not to say any thing about it." "And he's doing it for the other fe low P' saked Charles.

"Yes, for Tom, you know ; mornings and evenings," Lens replied. The three held a short conference and when they separated each carrie be told to the other members of the grammar-school as quickly as possible The next morning when school convened, Lester Dayton, who was the class president, stood at the teacher's

"Will you allow us to conduct a little business session?" he asked, turning to

Mr. Raymor. The young teacher involuntaril started, the request was so unus Were the pupils about to give voice t their feelings of unrest? But the re spectful attitude and smile of the class president banished his doubts, though they but increased his wonder. gave useent to the request that he been made of him, and sat down to awalt results. "We have just a little business the morning." said the president, turning to the school. "I believe Charles Lane has the matter ready to present."

Charles Lane was on his feet, prepar ed to read a set of resolutions. course these common ordinary, everygirls were passing down the street from day young Americans must embody the schoolhouse one afternoon. Myra their sentiments, thoughts, and goodreally did not know how disrespectful | wishes in formal resolutions. It is the

it sounded to speak of her teacher in American way. Charles read: "Resolved. That, after one month's trial, we welcome as the teacher of our grammar-school, Prof. Morris Raymor intended to convey a meening he did whose learning and methods we have not care to put into words. . "But did learned to admire, and whose unselfish character we have come to extern t "Resolved. That we syldence ou welcome by giving three cheers for our And as Charles unded the reading these resolutions he led in the cheering and the school joined so enthusiastical Athenians were made to know what a that passers by wondered what in the world was occurring in the school house. The president declared, the resolutions unanimously adopted. The teacher sat with head elightly his cheeks. For a moment after the ging a newer excavation. They thrown forward, a hot flush mantling morning, and she says he may not be reading, he seemed utterly helpless from surprise. And then he leaped to his feet, pleasure lighting his countenance. But there was still more to fol HMr. President," said Chester Curtis, riging as Charles Lane resumed his resent." And then he read as appointed himself deputy japitor of the The short winter day was drawing to appoint a committee of five members | themselves. to's close as the two young friends of the class to not as assistants in the

Then, Indeed, did the cheering break waved their handkerchiefe. he roar entrance to the basement of service in that schools His old precepting to "rest."

not theught of by the one who had

THE TIME TO DIVE UP.

"There's ten dollare lacking, and ten dollars is as bad as a hundred or thousand, with only two days to get it

Mamie did not answer except to it her hand gently on her brother's shoul der. The boy turned his head and re

He draw a long breath.

"You ought to have been the boy. "No, I hadn't !" Manile orled almost angrily. Nothing annoyed her like having someone, either in plain words or by implication, find fault with Richard. "But I haven't given up," she added, "because there's no use in doing that till you have to. We've got the two days." was puzzling to her.

It was sarly the next morning when | elsewhere. Richard woke to find his sister stand ing by his bed. .. "Get up gulck, Dick. Peter says there's a freight wreck two miles down | was working on a dalve.

the track, and the eastbound passenger

Richard blinked sleepily. what about it?" ter, with an impatient laugh.

is tled up at the junction."

le our chance, Don't you see?" Richard only stared. "I heard Peter talking under my window this morning. That's what woke me. He thinks it will be noon, anyway, before the track is cleared The people on the pullman will be looking around for entertainment. They will buy our oranges and flowers, an we can row them around the lake for ten cente a trip. . Hurry, now.

want to be ready." sengers from the pullman sleeper began to make their appearance in twos and 25 years, and I pronounce your work threes, looking for something to fill up the time, they found it. A table stood on the front porch on which differen kinds of fruit were tastefully arranged and grandma was stationed behind to act as saleswoman. On the beaut ful little lake was a good-sized boat and a good-looking boy was ready to bonvey passengers to the apring un back for ten cents a trip. Mamie's lit tie sister was flower girl, and carried tray covered with little clusters senil-tropical blossoms. Mamie was mistress of ceremonies-met the new comers, gave them permission to go over the ranch, use the plants and given in the Town Hall on Thursday make themselves generally at home. It was a busy day. The track was not cleared till four in the afternoon and the young people scorned th thought of stopping for luncheon. All the fruit was sold, and most of the flowers: Richard made the trip to the spring and beck till even his stout arm sched. And when the whitle of the locomotive sent the passengers scurry ne back to the train, they sat down on the plane and counted up their gains Then they looked at each other with shining eyes. It was too good to be

"Well, 'It's an Ill wind that blows nobody good," said grandmother from her chair. "I suppose it's hard on the railroad folks, baving a freight train leave the track, but it's pretty lucky

"And yesterday we didn't see how was possible to get ten dollars, even Richard said. "It's like having money drop from the clouds." Mamie did not often say: "I told you so," but this once she thought it would not matter. She put her hand affectionately on Richard's shoulder. "Just #### remember. Dick," she said, "the time Of to give up is when you have to."

CHRONIC WEARINESS. You are "too-tired to go to plurch. place on the continent so restful as the church. You are going to lie around the house all day; encore in a hammock; foll in a rocking chair; go to that's loading. Tell yourself honest ham. ly-you like to think you are honestdid you over in all your life see a loafer who looked rested? Did you ever Hyads, here, this week. ere a leafer who didn't look tired all the time? The people who try to rest friends at Toronto, Markham and are always tired. Reeting is the bardest work in the world, when you make work out of it. About a year ago, I stopped in Boston street to watch a group of laborers. It was noon hour. They had been at work all the morning dig eaten their dinners from the little the nalls and now they were "resting Some of them were pitching quoits and others were putting the with a great round boulder. were workingmen "resting." sitting on the curbstone watching them-too laxy to even stand up and look at them; their lary chine resting in their lasy bands, and their lasy "Whereas, our esteemed teacher has slbows supported on their lasy kness were the loafers who had been watching them work all the morning. These "He it therefore resolved, that the I fellows were too tired even to join the president be, and he is hereby directed. | manies by which the workers rested

You have no need to loaf all da Bunday. Two hours in church : two hours of the quiet: the sermon; the out. Boys sprang to their feet, girls reading t the uplift which comes from the new channels into which your It is needless to say that it was a thought, your mind is led, will rest you happy teacher who well forward from more, physically, morally, lutellestual: "Look !" be gried, pointing toward that day into he years of successful ly, that will all the day spent to try-

A CLOSE MAN.

"I presume old Pinchpent is the closset man in town." "Well he is a judicious business man, his kitchen gettin' dinner roady for

TWBNTY YEARS AGO! Chronisles Carefully Conned, Culled Condensed Compiled and Copled from the Free Frees

of July 30, 1888. DIVD. - At Ameliasburg, Prince Edward County, June 30, Griffith Howell, father of Rev. J. E. Howell Seaforth, aged 71. His and was peace. Dian.-In Acton, July 20, infant son of Mr. Peter Masslas, aged

News has just reached friends here of the death of Joelah Royce, brother of the late Robt. Royce, of Acton. He dled in California, having settled there

Mr. John Waldle has again beet shosen to be the Reform candidate ! the coming bye-election for the House of Commons.

The farmers throughout this county Richard shook his head. Mamie's little reason to be thankful for the unfailing hopefulness was as hard for crops they have, though in some blm to understand as bis early dejection | cases tomparitively poor, the major | Companion. ity have better crops than the average

Mr. John Masales, nephew of Mr. Ohrie, Massiss, Acton, was drowned at Minden, on the Gull River, where he voted $12,000 for the building and the throaty persuasion of their "bark-"Well, furnishing of their new High School. These pupils from Mr. Moore's room "Why, you old goose," cried his sis- passed the examinations at Georgetown High School: Herbert Henderbe admitted by the Education Depart-John R. Clarke, the noted lecturer for whom we have filled several orders for job printing, writes: "Your last work like your first, is superb. The pictures shown in these places are as circulars are a model of neat, unique and artistic work. Everyone that suggestive and descriptive of orime. sees them says so. I have been as a And Dick hurried. When the pass public man, getting work done in the forms. old world and in the new for the las > slinply perfect." esteemed pastor of Churchill Congre gational Churches, has tendered bis reeignation and will farewell on Sunday. He has been in charge for four. mits that they have not only become a years and three months. His labors have secured large congregations, and won for him much favor and esteem

An "Unqualified success," is the statement regarding the garden party at Cedar Creek Farm, the home of Mr. John Warren last week. . A very entertaining concert was evening, under the auspices of Bi Joseph's Church. Frank Hunter : near Campbellville died suddenly in Devlin's Hotel, there last week. He had been suffering for you don't like them. some time from consumption, and bad entered the hotel with a friend, when he suddenly became sick, and sank helplessly to a chair. Few of our citizens have any proper conception of the volume of business | then get your neighbors to voice their transacted at Acton station, G. T. R. The agent, Mr. Holmes, list given out the following figures of the shipments bad example to our children, let us for the year ending July 1, 1888; stone, 8130 tons : lime, 1927 : manufactured goods, 551; grain, 454; live stock, 272; lumber, 48; miscellaneous, 380. Total. 11,780 tops. This is very creditable considering that the classes of goods extensively manufactured here are Many prefer the butter to oil. light in weight. The unipments received for the same period was : Hemlock bark, 830 care : Adding a little sugar to the water will lumber, 50; bides, 50; coal, 15; imple- correct any bitterness. ments, 8; brick, 8; salt. 1. Total.

He leaves shortly for Australia.

451 cars.

home from his theological studies at | time in a clean cloth to insure perfect Montreal. This excellent young man dryness. passed this year's examination with great credit to himself. He will pro- | there are guests, scallop the edges and bably complete his course next year. Mr. Harry Blake, Mr. Joe Perkins. and Miss Jessie Perkins arrived home lemons on orispictuoe leaves and serve That's sheer nonsense. There isn't a from England in excellent health and with choose and crackers.

spirits yesterday morning. Blake and Gordon will remain in Eng- | wich making prefers fried ham to bollland for some months. Mr. W. H. Speight spent several eleep over a book. That isn't resting, days this week with friends in Mark- enough browning to improve the flavor. Mrs. Geo. Hynds, Sr., of Toronto, veritable powder and mixes it with

Miss Agusta Nicklin, is away visiting

HE HONORED HIS MOTHER. There is a story of a boy who attended college, about a hundred miles from here, who was about to graduate. He wrote back to the farm for his mother to come. She replied that she could not do so. She said her clothes were worn out and she had no money to buy new ones for the occasion. The boy said, come anyliow. The poor mother went in her best, but was not stylish The commencement was held in a at this season of the year who are all fashlonable church. The son was run down, no strength-hardly able to prouder of his mother than of his drag about. Don't know what alls bonors. He walked down the alale them. with her to the centre of the church and took ber to one of the best sauta: There were tears in her eyes, and she uret out weeping when her son pronounced the valedictory. The presi dent planed a badge on his coat, but he took it and planed it on his mother's every organ in the hody to do its faded dress, as he bent and kissed her work. In this natural manner wrinkled face. The boy with this kind strength and vitality quickly replace of pride will be an honor to his country and his God. May his number increase and the shadows of his lovelinees cover

A MODERN FAMILY. "Where's Edythe?" "Up in her studio hand paintin' "Where's Glady's ?"

"In the library writin' po'try," the world. - Ex.

"Where's Clarice?" "Bhe's in the parlor "And where's ma?"

Three leaves, of course, I'm bound to The little clover said.

I'll think I'll go ahead And grow another if I can, An extra leaf to show That I am trying, with all my might, To live and work, and grow.'

They're all I'm set to do, but atil

Ho while the other clovers stayed Content with leaflete three, Their braver brother added on A fourth, for all to see. "How foolish I" gried the other ones "Why do an extra task!

Three leaves are all the world expects: And all that it can ask !". But lo !/men halled the extra leaf.

And grasped its meaning, too,

For now the four-leaved glover stands. For Luck-a symbol true;

Since 'tis the added, willing work, The extra bit of pluck. That conquers all the best of life And brings the worker luck. . -By Prisellis Leonard, in Youth's

THE FIVE CENT THEATORIUM. The punny arcades and flyc-cent theaters made their appearance with no greater blaze of Lriumpets than the noise of their phonographic horns and

They came upon us unobtrusively in the still of the night. Every big city and even the smaller ones, woke up to find them there by dozone. They son, Samuel Laird, John Ramsay, have multiplied faster than guinesmarks, but has been recommended to pigs, and within a short time have may no longer snub them as one of the catch-pennies of the streets, says the July Delinestor.

With but few exceptions, the bad as the police will allow. They are largely presented in most alluring

Months ago, these theaters attracted the attention of the Ohicago and Philadelphia authorities, and those inter-Rev. Geo. Richardson, the bighly seted in juvenile courts throughout the country have been raising their voices in protest against them. Jane Addams, of Hull House, frankly adforce in the city life, but they are capable of developing crime to a very alarming degree. Judge Lindsey, of Denver, a friend of the homeless boy.

has epoken strongly against them. When a manager of one of these penny arcades was asked why he allowed such pictures to appoar, his answer was short: "Because the people like them." Who are "the people," anyway? As they exist to-day, the municipal authorities don't like them ; the social settlement workers don't like them

If you don't like these amusements, say so. In this case "say so" to the managers of the penny ninusements. to the editors of papers and magazines. to the municipal authorities; and

If we cannot have pleasure without #### even forego pleasure. Don't you think so?

THE COOKBOOK Meltad butter is very good substitute for olive oil in saled dressing.

Turning boiled in their jackets like beets are much better than when pared. Fish that is to be fried should be o dered to be sent early, as it cooks Mr. Richard Maloney has returned | much better if previously rolled some > fill the cups with French pear mixed with a stiff mayonnaise. Arrange the A woman who is pest master in sanded for sandwiches. She cooks the hamslowly in the frying pan, giving it just

Scoop out as many large lemons as

Then she reduces it by grinding, to a has been visiting her son, Mr. George mayonnaise.

HIS EDUCATION. "Yes. Markley came in for a fortune the other day. He's actually got

"Yes, There are certain people who will be anxious to meet him now, and after that he'll know more." NUN DOWN-TIRED.

Acton People Who are in this Condition are naked to Read more money now than he knows what to do with."

this Article. There are many people in this vicinity

We want to say to every such person that our cod liver preparation, Vinol, is the topic reconstructor which they need. Vinol tones up the digestive organs, creates a healthy appetite, makes rich red blood, and strengthens weakness and lassitude.

Miss Rose Biair, president Sophomore club, Kansas Olty, writes : "Lash spring I was all run down, nervous, irritable and could not sleep. I tried many medicines without benefit. Viuol was recommended. It was delicious and not at all like the greaty cod liver oil and emulsions I was used to. Vinol gave me a bearty appetite and restored me to perfect health and strength." Vinol is recognized, throughout the world as an unexcelled strength areator for old people, weak, slokly

"Mawi" Ob, Maw's dawn in the