BRIEF LOCAL ITEMS.

Rather wet weather for harvesting.
Four weeks of the school vacation have passed.
Nominations for School Trustees at noon to-morrow.
Acton vs. Milton baseball match here on Saturday afternoon.
The Junior baseball team vs. the seniors in the park to-night at 8:30.
A large quantity of hay was damaged by the heavy rains of last week.
A party of Acton's prettiest girls are holidaying for a week or two at Stanley Park.
The brickwork of Mr. W. White's new house on Lake Ave., is completed and the roof is on.
Acton's Band will give an open air concert on the band stand, Howe Avenue, this evening.
For being drunk and disorderly I. Clavel was fined $1.00 and costs on Monday by A. E. Nicklin, J. P.
Rev. William Cranston, of McGill University, Montreal, will occupy the pulpit of Knox Church next Sunday.
Acton's Civic Holiday will likely be observed on Monday, 3rd August, the date adopted by the majority of towns and cities.
The Deputy Minister of Education has notified the Secretary of the Milton board that the model school will be discontinued.
Acton Juniors defeated an Erin team in Erin last Thursday by a score of 15-8. The game was the result of a bet.
It is well worth a trip through the country at present to see the abundant crops of golden grain. Fall wheat is being harvested and is a splendid yield.
The Maple Leaf Juvenile baseball team went to Georgetown Tuesday afternoon for a return game with the White Sox and lost by a score of 6 to 10.
Mr. Joseph Montgomery has kindly favored the Free Press with a copy of the Auckland, New Zealand, illustrated Weekly News, from his home town.
The Baptist Sunday School and the Epworth League will accompany the Georgetown Sunday School on their excursion to Burlington next Thursday.
The Epworth League is arranging for a grand open air concert to be held in the skating rink about the middle of August. An attractive programme is being arranged.
Rev. Father Arnold has taken charge of St. Joseph's parish and is rapidly becoming acquainted with his flock. He is creating very favorable impressions on all sides.
Projects are still under consideration for securing a chopping mill for Acton. Both citizens and farmers hope some scheme will be successful before the rush for fall chopping commences.
Rev. James E. Dyer, for fifty-eight years a Methodist minister, died at his summer home at Grimsby Park, on Tuesday. Rev. Mr. Dyer was pastor of the Methodist Church here for 25 years.
On Friday evening the Young People of the Baptist Church will have a debate. Topic: "Resolved that the world is more good than Paul," to be debated by four young people of the body.
Wm. Dowling, of Berlin, formerly of the Dale estate, Brampton, has succeeded Dr. Roe in connection with the Georgetown Greenhouse, the Dr. having recently tendered his resignation.—Herald.
Mr. Andrew Chayne was in town on Monday to move the household effects of his mother and family to a farm near Hillsburg. They have been in Detroit since they left Acton, but prefer living in Canada.
A very noisy municipal authorities' meeting took place on Monday night when the drunken orderlies who have become notorious at night in the park, were the subject of a lively and well supervised discussion.
The meeting was held in the hall of the St. Andrew's church.
A party of local fishermen were very successful at black bass fishing on Monday. They had a good catch on Division Court road. He hooked what he considered was a big salmon trout and was unable to bring it up into the boat. There it was a goodly sized fish it was a black bass he had caught.

NEWS OF LOCAL IMPORT.
Highly Esteemed Subscribers.
In renewing their Free Press subscriptions last Thursday, Messrs. George Douglas, of Requeuing, and Joel Laelle, of Erin, both remarked that this was the thirty-fourth time they had paid for the paper. For thirty-three successive years they have neither of them missed an issue. Their names were amongst the first on our lists.
A Mammoth Production.
The Miss Kitchin's daughter, of the great Spectacle, "The Siege of Sebastopol," which is to be presented nightly at the Canadian National Exhibition, Toronto, from August 21st to September 22nd. There will be thirty thousand square feet of scenery, while the music and, in fact, to present as vivid a battle scene as any military of warfare can be.
Honors Won by Miss Edith Nicklin.
At the recent examinations at the Normal School, published last Friday, Miss Edith Nicklin, daughter of Mr. A. E. Nicklin, J. P., stood at the head of the candidates, winning honors and the Governor-General's gold medal. Miss Nicklin who is at present holidaying in Muskoka, is receiving the congratulations of her many friends. Two years ago, her sister Miss Daine won similar honors at the Normal.
Father Feary Comfortably Settled.
A note from Rev. Father Feary, who removed to Oshawa a few weeks ago, says he finds Oshawa and surrounding country to be very charming, rich in farm products, with a paradise of fruits of all kinds. Needless to state, I am most pleased with my new sphere of labor. I find also that I have a splendid people under my care, but the injured member is now rapidly mending.
Reception to the Bride and Groom.
The members and adherents of the Congregational Church tendered a reception to Rev. B. A. G. Willoughby and his bride on the lawn of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Moore on Thursday evening. After refreshments were served some entertaining musical selections were given by Mr. Frank J. Barber, Mrs. W. A. Fraser, the Misses Kelley, Miss Matthews, Miss Adams, Mr. Howard Hodgson, Miss H. McKay. During the evening the friends became acquainted with the pastor's wife, who promises to be very popular with the congregation. At the close of the programme, Rev. Mr. Willoughby heartily thanked the friends of behalf of Mrs. Willoughby and himself for the kindly reception that had been tendered.—Herald.
Welcome to Rev. Mr. Gott and Wife.
On Wednesday evening of last week a reception was held in the Baptist Church to welcome Rev. Mr. Gott and wife. Several good selections were read and interspersed with singing by the choir.—Rev. J. C. Wilson, B. A., gave an excellent speech eulogizing the late pastor and giving special advice to the church, ending by extending a very kind and generous welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Gott and daughter. The Quartette from the Presbyterian Church sang very acceptably, reflecting great credit upon themselves and their leader Mr. A. T. Mann. Rev. G. W. Barker gave a few well-chosen remarks extending cordial greetings to the new pastor and family and hearty good wishes for the church. Refreshments were served at the close and a social half hour spent before going home.
The New Ten-centenary Stamps.
The special issue of postage stamps to commemorate the Quebec Ten-centenary are on sale at the post office. These stamps will be sold in the regular way, and none of the usual stamps will be sold until the special issue is exhausted. In addition to the number which will be sold in the regular way for sale, it is safe to say that many thousands will be purchased by stamp collector and others to be preserved as souvenirs. The eight stamps in the complete set, and the cost is sixty cents. The first is a half-cent stamp of the usual color bearing the head of the Prince and Princess of Wales. Following is the one-cent having the picture of Cartier and Champlain; the two-cent, King Edward and Queen Alexandra; the five-cent, engraved with "Abitibi de Quebec" the seven-cent, Montcalm and Wolfe; the ten-cent, Farthest point of Champlain setting out for the west; and the twenty-cent, the arrival of Cartier in 1492. The engravings are beautifully clear and the whole arrangement is artistic.

St. Andrew's Brotherhood.
The officers and members of St. Andrew's Brotherhood will hold an open session on Wednesday, July 26th, at 8 p. m. in St. Alban's Church, when the Rev. Matthew Wilson will speak on the principles of the Brotherhood. All young men cordially invited.
Magistrate—Keep off Pavements.
There are several cyclists in town who have been violating the law lately by riding on the pavements. The officers concerning which complaints have been made, have been committed on Young Street and Park Avenue. On Monday evening a certain delivery clerk ran into a young lady at the corner of Mill Street and Park Ave., knocking her down. The cause for violation of the bicycle law are heavy.
Dr. Buck Stetson with Paralysis.
The Milton Reformer says: "The many friends throughout the county of Dr. Buck will regret exceedingly to learn that on Thursday last, the 25th, at the age of 72 years, he died in Valerius, he received a stroke. He was assisted by his wife and medical assistance. While the stroke was not very serious, the Dr. will be confined to his room for some time, with a trained nurse in attendance."
George's Coughs in May House.
Mr. Lewis, Atkinson, of Cedar Brook farm, Requeuing, met with a painful accident one day last week while unloading hay at his barn. The hoisting rope twisted and while he was straightening it the rope was started and the thumb and forefinger of his right hand were caught and he was pulled up bodily by the imprudent fingers. No bones were broken but the fingers were painfully bruised. Mr. Atkinson suffered excruciating pain for a few days, but the injured member is now rapidly mending.
