Marriage at Elfrida
A very quiet but pretty wedding took place on Wednesday, Sept. 2nd at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stewart, Elfrida, when their oldest daughter, Martha, was united in marriage to Mr. Geo. A. Proctor, of Daynam, Elgin. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. G. Irving, of Hamilton, assisted by Rev. W. Priddy. The bride was dressed in white point de veuve and carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums and roses. Her bridesmaid, Elizabeth, who was also dressed in white and carried pink roses and chrysanthemums. Mr. N. McConkey supported the groom. The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful gold bracelet, and the bride made a crescent brooch set with pearls. After the wedding dinner Mr. and Mrs. Proctor left for Toronto and a trip through the Thousand Islands. Upon their return they will reside at Daynam, Ont.

Labor Day Sermon
Rev. G. W. Barker preached a very able and appropriate Labor Day sermon in the Methodist Church last Sunday evening. The sermon was based on Matt. 13: 12: "How much better is a man than a sheep," and the leading thought centered in the query: "What in the value of a man?" The words were attended by a large number of people, and the sermon was a most successful one. The speaker was full of freedom and happiness. There are strange usings in the industrial world to-day. In the commercial world the question is: "What can a man do or produce?" It is his toll and mill and produce. There is surely something wrong with our system which permits some men to get great wealth, and others who can get no work to do at all. Every man has a right to have a chance to work to support his home and live. Labor organizations have done and are doing good work in many ways, but they have made the mistake of falling to recognize that there exists an inequality in the working men several questions were earnestly asked. How do you spend your leisure time? How do you spend your money? Do you seek for the quality of manhood? A man is better than a sheep if he exercises his God-given powers, and manifests nobility of character and lofty aims. Christ implied that a man is vastly better than a sheep.

NEWS OF LOCAL IMPORT.

He has therefore decided to dispose of his livestock by public auction on Saturday, 10th inst., at two o'clock. His family has returned to Cookville.

J. Lehman, of the Dominion Hotel. In the trophy contest Mrs. W. D. Anderson won first and John Litchman second.

The fourteenth annual convention of Guelph District Women's Missionary Society will be held in the Methodist Church here on Thursday, 15th October. A very interesting programme has been arranged. It will include addresses by Miss F. Hudson, Chilliwack, B. C., Rev. H. W. Dean, Superintendent of the District, Toronto; the District Superintendent, and an address of welcome by Mrs. C. C. Spight, Acton, and reply by Mrs. (Rev.) H. W. Crews, Guelph. Delegates will attend from the various municipalities and cities of the District.

A Pretty Wedding at the Manse
At Knox Manse on Tuesday afternoon a very happy event took place, when Miss Edith May Duff, sister of Mrs. Wilson, and Mr. John Horlick MacKinnon, of Boston, Mass., were married by Rev. J. C. Wilson B. A. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful gifts and amongst the rest a cabinet of silver from the groom. The happy couple left for the evening train for a trip down the St. Lawrence to the Maritime Provinces. Dr. and Mrs. MacKinnon will reside in Boston.

Glanders Among Horses
Two farmers of this vicinity have been notified that a serious loss to the horses affected with glanders. Dr. Lawson was called to examine several animals which were stricken and he reported to the provincial authorities. The Provincial Inspector came up on Friday and he examined the trouble was glanders. Four of the horses of Mr. J. H. Lane, Esquaring, were shot and two belonging to the family of the late John McKinnon, Nassagaweya.

Boys on Parkdale's Fine Green
In response to an invitation from Parkdale Lawn Bowling Club, through the indefatigable Secretary, Mr. A. H. Hurlingham, two rinks went down on Labor Day and enjoyed a very interesting game on their splendid new green on King Street. The two rinks were skipped by W. J. Gould and D. W. S. Osholm, A. J. Lehman, H. P. Moore, George Hynds, A. J. Mackinnon and E. Macklin. During the first half of the game Acton led on both rinks, but in the last end were defeated by a few shots. The day was much enjoyed and the courtesies of the Parkdale Club thoroughly appreciated. A return match with Parkdale will probably be played here about the end of next week.

Milton's Good Fortune
The outlook for Milton, so far as manufacturers are concerned, was never so bright as at present. In the near future we expect to have located here one of the largest farm implement manufacturing in the Province. And the best of it, the promoters are not asking either for a loan or for money from the town. Mr. G. R. Willmott, of Toronto, Vice-President of the Inter-Agents Limited, has purchased nine acres of land from Mr. Jasper Martin, and an adjoining two acres from Messrs. Fraser and Chas. W. Woodstock, all being situated directly north of the C. P. R. station. About the first of November they will commence the erection of a building for an $80,000 plant, and will employ in the neighborhood of one hundred hands to begin with. All the Company ask of the town is exemption from taxation, except for school purposes, and the opening up of streets leading to the property.—Reformer.

Death of Rev. W. M. Thompson
Rev. Fred W. Thompson, B. A., of Woodstock, died at Stewartstown on Tuesday evening of last week. His illness was tuberculosis, from which he had suffered the past year. He gave up his work as pastor of College Avenue Methodist Church, Woodstock, last spring and went to Muskoka in the hope of overcoming the disease. Instead of improving, however, he gradually grew worse and he returned to the scenes of his boyhood's home about the middle of August. Through all his illness Mrs. Thompson was his devoted nurse and companion and very deep sympathy is felt for her and her family in this bereavement. The funeral was held from the home of his father, Mr. William Thompson, Esquaring, on Friday afternoon. The service at the house was conducted by Rev. G. Noxon, pastor of the family, assisted by Rev. W. J. Magwood, Oakville. The remains were conveyed to the Methodist Church, Georgetown, where a memorial service was conducted by Rev. Thomas Collins, B. A., of Drayton, President of the Conference. Revs. G. H. Cobbedick, B. D., and A. J. Johnston, B. A., Woodstock; G. W. Barker, Acton; H. W. Wallis, Toronto; W. B. Caswell, B. A., Brantford; and W. J. Magwood, Oakville, each spoke briefly at the service which was most impressive one. The choir of the Church rendered music appropriate to the solemn service. The remains were carried to the tomb by the brother ministers of the deceased. The cortege was a very lengthy one. Delegations were present from Woodstock, Brantford, Brantford and Guelph, all of which places Rev. Mr. Thompson had held charge.

The Death of Miss Sarah Cole
The death of Miss Sarah Cole, daughter of the late Peter Cole, Esquire, took place at the Toronto General Hospital on Wednesday, Aug. 20th, after an illness of several months. Miss Cole was born at the homestead on the 6th line, forty years ago. There she spent her earlier years, and some time after her father's death she and her mother went to reside in Georgetown. After her mother's decease, some five years ago, Miss Cole went to live in Toronto. The decease was very highly esteemed and many friends of the family attended the funeral the Friday following her death, when the remains were conveyed from the home of her brother, Mr. Henry Cole, Esquire, to Greenwood Cemetery, Georgetown. The service was conducted by Rev. G. Milne, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Hamilton.

Base Ball on Business Saturday
Well, it wasn't a Union that lost the game for Brampton on Saturday last. The score was, Acton 26—Brampton 4, when the last ball was heaved. Gould may have been off in spots but he did not prevent the game to Acton. The leaders pulled together like a well greased piece of machinery. Hits of the real old run-getting kind came along just when they were the most valuable and the way the batsmen unflinchingly sacrificed the base runners was terrific. It was base ball however with a business system adjunct. Everybody knew just what everybody else was going to do and he just dropped in and did his little part without any fuss or feathers. Oh, yes, we were wall-pat just as bad as the score indicates, but the Brampton men always seemed to be on the verge of something. But the verge was far as they ever got. Time and again things seemed due but the hit that was needed was a foot too close to the folder or the base runner was a fraction slow.—Brampton Conservator.
