Bomowhere there must always be a woman to whom he can go and say, "I'm tirul, donr !" and when she has answered, "Toll me all about it," difficulties that have been as mountains begin to fade away like mist. For every man who succeeds, this woman exists. Think Hadn't this woman better be you? Inevitably, when she is not, she must be

THEY HAD TO WAIT One afternon a couple from an adjoining town presented thomselves to a Boston divine, and asked to be married, just as he was about to enter the pulpit to conduct an afternoon service. The minister replied that he regretted that he could not, at that moment. comply with their wish ; but that, immediately upon the canclusion of the service, he would take pleasure in performing the ceremony. The lavers, after some demurring, sented themselves in the rear of the church. When the minister had finished the service. be made the following amount oment: "The parties who are to be joined in

A JUDGE'S INDICTMENT OF THE DRINK TRAPPIC In charging the Grand Jury at the Glamorgan Assixes at Swanson, Eng., recently. Justice Coloridge said that in 30 out of 73 cases the depositions disclosed origies which would in all reasonable probability never have happened except for either the prosecutor or prisoner having been under the haneful influence of drink. That afforded much matter for regret, and his Lordship said he would ninke no comment, but would content himself by stating

ECZEMA AGAIN OVERCOME Zam-Buk Cures a Case which for Two Years had Defied Every Remedy Tried

PARMER'S ORATEFUL TESTI-

No case of occoma, skin disease, or diceration, should be despaired of until Zam-Buk has been applied. The case of Mr. Francis Renoit, of St. Anne's Man., is a powerful illustration of Zam-Buk's effloncy. Ho sayet "I suf-
